SCOT Comes Through

Great was the operation as in the outcome of the WAC-sponsored State Fair. Goals were the accomplishment and the application. But the operation was successful. It would have been impossible to complete the purpose without the help of the Secretary of State. However, the Secretary of State did not co-operate. As a result of this cooperation, the State Fair was a great success. Over the water the benefit of State Fair was found to be immense and of little security.
