Social Event Planned
Annual Junior-Freshman Reception

On Friday, November 29th, the Junior Class of State College will formally welcome the Class of 1922 at a reception in the gymnasium. Continued on page 4

Interesting Lecture Delivered
"Monuments of France"

State College was honored Friday evening with the privilege of hearing Professor Theodore Reinach, one of the ambassadors sent over by the French government to this country. Continued on page 4

Student Assembly
Contest for College Song Leader

Student Assembly Friday morning, November 22, was one of importance to the student body in general, and to the Senior and Junior classes in Continued on page 3

Albany Men Lose to Mount Pleasant
State College Student Army Training Corps Loses, 24-0

The Student Army Training Corps football eleven of State College was defeated in a hard-fought game with the Mount Pleasant team of Schenectady at Central Park, Sunday afternoon. The score was 24-0. Continued on page 3

Friday's Assembly To Be Important Meeting
Balloting on Appropriation Question and Consumers' League Speaker to Occupy Hour

An important meeting of the student body will take place at the regular assembly hour Friday morning, because of some misunderstanding following last Friday's action, a re-vote will be taken on the question of appropriating $400 of the athletic money for the United War Relief fund. Continued on page 3

The matter of the re-vote mentioned above needs further explanation. While the will of the student body was evident at the vote of last week, it was not expressed in a definite parliamentary way. Consequently President Brubacher and Myskunian have decided that further Continued on page 3

Member of Faculty Receives Degree

Professor C. A. Hidley, member of the faculty of State College, has received his Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. Professor Hidley graduated from State College with the Class of 1916.

G. A. A. Frolic

Friday evening, November 22d, at 8 o'clock, a large number of girls, wearing bloomers and sneakers, gathered in the gymnasium for the annual G.A.A. Frolic. All wore smiles when they came, but as the evening progressed Continued on page 4
The State College News, November 28, 1918

Volume 111, November 28, 1918 No. 6

Published weekly on Thursdays, during the college year, by the Student Body of the New York State College for Teachers, at Albany, New York.

The subscription rate is one dollar and a half per year. Advertising rates on application to the Business Manager.

Articles, manuscripts, etc., must be delivered at the office one week before the date of publication.

Board of Editors, 1918-1919

Editor-in-chief, Donald Smurth, '19
Managing Editor, Bertha S. Brommer, '19
Assistant Business Manager, Ellen Dohmke, '20
Business Manager, Donald E. Lyle, '19
Assistant Business Manager, Bertha West, '20

EDITORIALS

THANKSGIVING

To the student body the "News" extends cordial good wishes for a happy Thanksgiving day.

Thanksgiving day, November 28, 1918, is no doubt the most memorable one for many students. Since 1789 people have prospered and hoped and paid for peace before Thanksgiving and the holidays of each year. And 1918 sees the fulfillment of the prophecies, the realization of the hopes and the answering of the prayers of the past four years.

To American foreigners the day was one of genuine thanksgiving—truly a holy day. But, through the centuries since the first Thanksgiving day, custom has changed the significance of the day. Merrymaking, neglecting the real meaning of the day.

It cannot be otherwise than that this week Thursday will assume much of the significance of the early Thanksgiving days. Merrymaking will take the place of thoughts of the day. But the joy will be tinged with a sincere feeling of gratitude for the peace which has come. It will be a day of humble prayers to the Almighty who has brought victory and peace and hope for the future. It will be a true Thanksgiving day.

FORGETTING

It seems the supreme irony of fate, as displayed in the twentieth century, that the ideal and American nations are now called upon to consider the German as a enemy. The term of nation against the other members of the family of nations.

Already plans for showing mercy, for offering food, clothing and other necessities to the people who have fought against our civilization.

That the people of the entire country are working to make the German feel that he is a member of the family of nations.

The people of the United States have fought for the principles of Christianity.

The leadership of Corporal Koplof has been changed to 6:15 and up to 9:30. There is an hour and a half of drill now.

Friday American sent from Company A, a party at Y. W. C. A. headquarters.

Saturday morning inspection of rifles, quarters, and personal appearance. The entire company was in camp on the Saturday by Captain Rehfeldt, with the assistance of Sergeant Lobell with his little red beard.

State College S. A. T. C. was well represented at the meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club Saturday evening.

Sunday afternoon found the army trucks full of men going to Schenectady to see the football game between State College S. A. T. C. and C. A. A. of Schenectady. The latter team out-weighted us and beat us by a score of 28-0.

Private Edison F. Young, of Company A, also sent a party to Schenectady, following the attack of influenza.

GILBERT J. RAYNOR, '90, RECEIVES IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

Gilbert J. Raynor, a graduate of the old Albany Normal School, is to be appointed principal of the Commercial High School in place of Mr. J. E. Keeling, by the Board of Education of that city on November 20th.

Dr. Raynor, who was born in East Moriches, L. I., was graduated from New York University in 1890, is to be appointed principal of the Commercial High School in place of Mr. J. E. Keeling, by the Board of Education of that city on November 20th.

Dr. Raynor virtually administered the inspection of the rules of the school, owing to the absence of Mr. Miller.

RECEIVES IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

As the editor of the News, I have the honor of presenting to the student body the news of the day.

Miss C. A. Steele announced a meeting of the Food Administration organization at Hotel Plaza, 59th street and 3rd avenue, New York City, on Monday, November 25th. The meeting was held at the auditorium by consulting Miss Tuttle. This will answer the question of those seeking this information.

S. A. T. C. NOTES

Corporal Founk's name was intentionally omitted from the list of N. C. O. appointments. Founk is a Freshman at Law School, and is in his final year of course.

Wednesday evening all men of the Freshman class out-weighed us and beat us by a score of 28-0. The Freshmen team was met by the faculty, and the Freshman-Coalition-Team was met by the faculty.

Y. W. C. A.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 20th, Dr. Matzke, formerly physician at Cornell and later Dean of Women at that college, delivered a message from the governor to the Y. W. C. A. girls. The subject of her address was "Social Morality."

November 22nd there was held in the Auditorium a Thanksgiving service led by Edith Wallace, '17. Special music was enjoyed.

JUNIOR CANDIDATE ELECTED SONG LEADER

As a result of all-day voting, on Thursday, November 21st, Miss Archibald was elected junior candidate for song leader.

Miss Archibald's name was intentionally omitted from the list of N. C. O. appointments. Founk is a Freshman at Law School, and is in his final year of course.

Whatever he the decision, it rests with our government to decide the degree of severity.

The final answer is awaited anxiously by the German people.

Are we going to say we have fought and then proceed to revenge? The possibility of revenge is not conceivable.

Can we as a nation learn to forgive and forget? Perhaps we shall, but we must and will come in the grand plan for the working out of things.
STATE COLLEGE NEWS, NOVEMBER 28, 1918

KAPPA DELTA RHO

Kappa Delta Rho extends hearty congratulations to Adele Hedges, '19, and Lieutenant Ray Townsend, '19, who were married on October 18th.

Sister Tomer, '29, is in training at Camp Wheeler, Gettysburg, Pa.

Elizabeth Archibald, Junior candidate, recently enjoyed a week-end at her home in Dundee.

Lawrence McMahon, '20, is instructing several gym classes for Milne High School.

Y. W. C. A. SWIMMING CLASSES

Many will be glad to know that Bath St. Central Avenue and Ontario street, has lately been thoroughly cleaned and painted. Come ye who would like to visit a new swimming place, where the water is deep and the people are small. The Junior class has already spent two hours and twenty minutes in the pool, and twenty-seven students, who, incidentally, have won the pool contest, have been observed there during a week-end.

STATE COLLEGE GRADUATE STUDIES INTERESTING WORK IN FRANCE

Kolin Hager, a State College graduate and member of the Class of '17, is now the Second Pioneer in France.

For a period of three months the Second Pioneers were stationed in Bordeaux. While there Mr. Hager visited the picturesque city of the River Seine and enjoyed a week-end at his home inVendee, Poppy Van Ness, last week. Florence Lanning, '19, is a dissident in the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

STATE COLLEGE GRADUATES INTERESTING WORK IN FRANCE

Kolin Hager, a State College graduate and member of the Class of '17, is now the Second Pioneer in France.

For a period of three months the Second Pioneers were stationed in Bordeaux. While there Mr. Hager visited the picturesque city of the River Seine and enjoyed a week-end at his home inVendee, Poppy Van Ness, last week. Florence Lanning, '19, is a dissident in the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY

Continued from Page 1

A military music was in order when the voting began, and the candidates for the position of any well qualified for the position are the best and the most suitable. The atmosphere of excellence filled the Auditorium. Mr. Breathing and the Junior candidates were present at the Waterhouse, acting President of 1919, opening the contest. Promoting the Elizabeth Archibald, Junior candidate, would try out such a position if it were necessary, Miss Archibald put into the song. Her spirituality was catching, and everybody sang "Pack Up Your Troubles" as though he or she meant it. This song was followed by "A Long, Long Trail." This, too, was well sung, as was the next song, "After the Long, Long Trail." After singing the chorus of the latter song, it was whistled and hummed, sung. When it came to settling down life into a crowd and making things go with lots of "snap," just leave it to Betty Archibald. Inasmuch as the Junior candidate, Edward Springstead, had withdrawn from the contest, it was decided to hear Jennette Keller, one of the representatives for the Junior class, sing for the floor. Owing to the illness of the Junior candidate, Marjorie Peck, Miss Keller was the only one to take part in the contest. She ended off the singing with "American, the Beautiful." This was followed by "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Miss Keller hit upon the idea of making Myskania sing the first verse, with the students joining in only on the chorus. And even if Myskania were few and far between, there was a noble response! Apparently the song leader believed in variety—should he say that he varied? For, apparently pleased with the Myskania rendition, she made the final song a success. It did credit, but politely. Then, with a try-out, surely could sing! They mixed their voices in war songs, "vill's sure a din to fright a monster!" (Let us not complete that quotation, else the soldiers will come.) Just then the Juniors were getting ready to start the Frosh on a lesson in singing and the Sophs a squelching; the leader announced that the Juniors would have a try-out, the students joining in only on the chorus. The best about this performance was better, but the Juniors joined all the more heartily in the final united chorus as a result of the Frosh's display. There was no question in regard to Miss Keller's ability to direct a student body in singing, for she displayed admirable qualities necessary for a successful leader. This ended the contest. The remainder of the hour was taken up by consideration of reapportionment of part of the Student Tax. This matter will be voted upon again in the future.

ALBANY MEN LOSE

Continued from Page 1

Kline and Smith of the Mount Pleasant sagacity were the only ones of the game. Klein, the quarterback, was a consistent and reliable ball-blower, scoring three touchdowns. Buono, Barry and Dierdick were the mainstays of the Army team, and the two guards, Buono and Barry, made a good combination, their men outwitting nearly each of the Army men by forty pounds.

The first period ended 0-4, with the Mount Pleasant on the Army's 21-yard line. The home team lost the ball on the Army's 1-yard line, and Dierdick kicked from behind his goal. Klein brought it back to the 1-yard line before he was downed. Tawney was hurt, but continued in the game. Baker got Kline around his end and stopped him for the fourth down. Barry was tackled on his 1-yard line and Dierdick kicked out of bounds on the 19. With just three yards to go, Klein carried the ball over for the first count. White failed to kick the goal, the ball becoming the post above the crossbar.

White kicked off to the Army's goal and Barry carried it back 24 yards before he was brought down. Smith was caught in a three-yard gain and then lost seven when the Army's line failed to hold on a fourth down. The weight of the Schenectady team began to tell, and when Dierdick passed the ball and Klein failed to get the ball right down the field on wide end runs. When within three yards of the Army end, Klein again carried the ball over. White's attempt to kick the goal went wide of its mark.

Klein broke through for 25 yards, the longest run of the game. Barry then intercepted a forward on his 30-yard line and ran it back 10. The Army lost the ball when Volkman blocked Dierdick's kick. Klein took the ball back 20 yards and then tackled, Mauserberger recovering it. Klein carried it over for the third touchdown. Kline, who kicked off and Flynn ran it back 12 yards. Young ran around right end for 20 yards. Snaford hit the fourth touchdown around left end. A fourth attempt to kick a goal failed.

FRIDAY'S ASSEMBLY

Continued from Page 1

selection is necessary. Printed ballots, bearing the following designation:

"Shall four hundred dollars ($400) of the athletic appropriation of the State College student fund be re-appropriated for United War Relief?"

shall be used. The answers "yes" and "no" will be printed directly beneath each vote. Each vote shall be signed by a student who has failed to pay their student tax. It is for this purpose only that names must be signed.

The question is one of great significance, and should be answered only after serious consideration. The emotional answer is yes. The fund must not be kept up. After-war work demands constant and enormous contributions. But the present issue involves other considerations. The consensus of opinion is that the S. A. T. C. will be demobilized before Christmas. In that case, college athletics will boom—and money will be needed. No one can definitely say that more than $800 will be needed, but it is wise to take the chance.

Also, shall we initiate the policy of re-appropriating funds already set aside for a definite purpose? How soon would the student fund thus be replenished? In that case, college athletics will boom—and money will be needed. No one can definitely say that more than $800 will be needed, but it is wise to take the chance.

KAPPA NU NOTES

Marion Haskins, '20, visited Jane Schultze's at her home in Kingston during vacation.

Kappa Nu extends its sympathy to the parents of their daughter, Celia Case, '19.

Elizabeth O'Connell, '20, visited New York City during vacation.

Edith Sullivan, '19, spent last week-end at her home in Kingston.

Fiercey's for Shoes

28 No. Pearl St.

Cotrell & Leonard

MAKERS

OF

CAPS, GOVNS, AND HOODS

Broadway, Albany

Bradt Drug Co.

7 Central Ave.

556 Broadway 9-11 No. Pearl St.

Linos Lunch and Restaurant

Good Things To Eat

3 Central Avenue

Albany, N Y

Harp, Shaffner & Marks Clothes

Regal Shoes

Savard & Toburn

3 State St

Albany

EAT HOSLER'S ICE CREAM

IT'S THE BEST

Cotrell & Leonard

472 to 478 Broadway

HATS AND SHOES FOR MEN

WOMEN'S OUTER AND UNDER GARMENTS

FOOTWEAR AND FUR COATS

Fine Qualities—Reasonable Prices

Shampooing—Scalp Massage—Hair Dressing—Manicuring

MRS. LEE

207 Ontario St.

Albany, N. Y.

Phone West 288 J

486 Broadway 9-11 No. Pearl St.
KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Delta was at home last Sunday afternoon to her faculty members. We welcome as pledge members Misses Crane, Garmany Abad '19 and Marion Baker '20.

Miss Esther K. Raftorty, assistant professor of music at the college, has received a official telegram from Washington stating that her brother, Donald Raftorty of Sherburne, was killed in action on November 3. Miss Raftorty was among the first young men of Sherburne to enlist after war was declared. The "News" extends sincere sympathy.

SOCIAL EVENT PLANNED

Continued from Page 1

Entertainment will consist of a large and dancing. O'Neill's orchestra will furnish music.

The chairman of the various committees are: Invitation, Elizabeth Gardner; dressing, Jessie Gifford; food, Mrs. T. V. Gardner; management, Sally Roody.

G. A. A. FROLIC

Continued from Page 1

The smiles become broader and broader. In its initial performance the G. A. A. Circus produced a show that left the three judges—Mrs. Bailey and Bailey tremble for their reputations. The most striking feature of the evening was an Egyptian dance, beautifully interpreted by Miss Card, and two vocal selections, exceptionally well rendered by Miss Bennett, Ellen Doherty, President of the G. A. A., and the Misses McCauley.

INTERESTING LECTURE

Continued from Page 1

Dr. Brubacher first introduced Regent Alexander, who has charge of the ambassador's program while here. The Regent then explained briefly how the French nation has sent these distinguished men to be distributed from coast to coast and placed at the disposal of the various universities. The list of honors and distinguished offices which Professor Reinach has held, for a long time, among them being several editorships of noted magazines of ancient and modern times.

Professor Reinach said in part: "All who have heard of the horror caused by the Germans in the cities and towns of France and Belgium, and the loss of national happiness in America is high; and no sympathy, no pity will ever be too little. The message of the Hun and the Vandal has gone through Europe, and the Hun’s and Vandal’s history have been much criticized against civilization and art. We would seem as if that quotation, ‘A dream of joy forever’ has been lost to the German mind.

There have been heard about are outbursts of the untrained soldier, but are the results of systematic planning on the part of those in charge." Professor Reinach proved this point by reading extracts from a German magazine, in which the writer declares that the French army made either go forward and destroy in Germany, or fall back into the barren wilderness in which they had deliberately made of France.

"We of France have an important duty—to know how large was the artistic and historic worth of our relics. Some of these are lost forever; only a few will be of use in the future, which shall arise out of bleeding shattered France," Thus Professor Reinach stated the firm hope of his fellow countrymen and then went on to tell of three specific treasures of France: The Castle of COURTY, the Town Hall of ARRAS, and the Cathedral of Rheims.

"The Castle of COUCY belonged in period to the Middle Ages and was an excellent example of military structures as brought in by the Crusaders from Palestine. Its lofty tower was the highest of its period—and now it is a heap of stones. Germany strove not only to conquer France," said Professor Reinach, "but to mutilate and destroy in order to show that the veneration and admiration of all hands should be taken from her.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. It is a matter of great interest to everyone. To France," said Professor Reinach, "but to mutilate and destroy in order to show that the veneration and admiration of all hands should be taken from her.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. It is a matter of great interest to everyone.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. It is a matter of great interest to everyone.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it. It is a matter of great interest to everyone.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it.

"The town hall of ARRAS, a beautiful structure with its dignified arches, windows and stately halls, is an example of the period when civic spirit was prominent in the free towns of the Middle Ages. This structure, too, is crushed and broken; only here and there a skeleton wall remains."

Concerning the Cathedral of Rheims, Professor Reinach said that he had not the time to enlarge upon it.