History Group Offers Award

The New York State Historical Association is planning to hold a statewide history contest for a third annual competition in which college students from New York State may be submitted. Any student, or college or senior, may compete in this contest, in which the winner will receive a $500 prize.

Students are invited to write on any phase of New York State's history: political, social, cultural, economic, industrial, military, or geographical, or on any phase of the lives of New York State's statesmen, heroes, or stateswomen, or on any phase of the history of any institution, or of any community, town, or village, in the State. The contest is open to any student, or college or senior, who in the opinion of the judges has the best paper.

Entries should be submitted to the New York State Historical Association, 86, Fourth Avenue, New York City, before March 1, 1953. The contest will be open to students in any high school or college in New York State.

The contest will be open to students in any high school or college in New York State.

Marines Land On State Campus To Recruit Eligible College Men

The Marines have landed on the State College campus to make a recruiting drive toward enrollment of “ideal student” material for their service. The Marines are trying to interest students in the Marine Corps, and are working with the University to secure students for the Corps.

Finance Board Holds Hearings On Budgets

The Student Board of Finance and Budget has held its first hearing on the budget for the 1953-54 academic year. The budget includes an increase of $5,300,000 over the previous year’s budget, and is designed to meet the needs of the students for the coming year.

Campus organizations will be notified of the budget hearings, according to Joseph Dolan, President of the Student Board. The hearings will be held on Monday and Tuesday, March 4 and 5, at 2:30, and will be open to the public.

SA To Discuss Insignia Change, Recorder Motion

As Student Council meeting Wednesdays, this motion to change the insignia on the student council was also approved.

The assembly agenda includes discussion on the student council motion and debate on amending the student council bylaws. Sections of the bylaws, such as services and organizations, will be revised to meet the needs of the students.
