State vs. Cortland

Cortland Normal School's baseball team will invade Albany Saturday, for the second game on the varsity baseball outdoor schedule. The game will be played at 3 o'clock, at Ridgefield Park, according to Harry W. Rude, 25, manager.

Cortland was defeated by State in basketball this season, but is reported to have an unusually strong baseball team, and a strong football is anticipated for the Purple and Gold.

Graham is expected to start on the mound for State, with Lebo and Johnson behind him. The opening game was played by Edwin Van Kleeck.

State's mothers are unanimous in their praise of State's activities in work and play.

ICEBOUND MAY 30

"Icebound," Davis' drama of New England life, will be staged on May 30 at the Vicarage Institute, under the auspices of the Dramatic and Art Association. Work on the play, which has been completed, is now in progress. The play will be directed by Miss Sarah W. Goff, and is now holding regular rehearsals. The play is sponsored by Edwin Van Kleeck.
Several Leaves Of Absence Granted

Dr. Brubacher will address the association of training school teachers of New York City at the Hotel Astoria in a few weeks. He will speak on the subject of teacher training programs to an audience of men and women who have charge of teacher training for the city of New York. President Brubacher has also been asked to speak at several high school commencements next month.

Dr. Harold W. Thompson of the English faculty has been granted a year's leave of absence to study English literature. It has been announced by President A. R. Brubacher.

Dr. Thompson will sail for Europe on July 4 with Dr. George A. White, assistant state commissioner of education. He will study in the University of Edinburgh and then return to complete the year with studies at Harvard.

Dr. Brubacher also announced that Miss Eunice Rice, also of the English department, whose engagement has been announced, has resigned. Her resignation will be effective July 4. It is expected that three other members of the faculty will announce their resignations later.

Miss Elizabeth H. Morris, assistant professor of Psychology, will be given a leave of absence for the first term of next year. Miss Morris will spend the semester in completing residence work necessary for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at Columbia University, New York. She will return to the college staff in February.

T. Frederick Clandy, college student director and organist of St. Paul's Episcopal Church has been rejected by the Terminus, a connected organization of the college. He is to be present at the organ at St. Thomas. His resignation will be effective July 4.

St. Thomas has one of the finest organs in the world, and its organist is a noted player. Miss Morris is a member of the leaders of his guild in this country. The music from St. Thomas Church is broadcast every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from station WNYC.

During his absence from St. Paul's, Miss Cronin will be played by William E. F. Rubel, organist of the Memorial Baptist Church.

GREENBERG AMONG CAST IN WGY PRODUCTIONS

Rosanne Greenberg, '26, leading woman of the WGY production, has been cast as Anna Rutledge, when an experiment in radio production of historical drama was made Friday evening by the WGY players. They presented "The Spirit of Minerva," a four-episode play written by Professors Harold W. Greenberg of San Quentin, and Leo Rabinowicz.

Professor Greenberg is an instructor in English at Central High School in the city of New York. In this play he has introduced the life of Lincoln, the whole story of the war and the fate of the nation, which the early love of the great actor had on his life. He has also in his mind the continuity of thought and action.

VANDALISM AT STATE

Vandalism, alias college spirit, sense of humor, or pop, is prevalent at State. The late tampering with Minerva, and the condition of class rooms indicate vandalism. Such acts are not condoned, and they are disorderly and destructive. It may be a display of sportsmanship to laugh at the figure, but it is not correct to throw objects at the actor of the moment. As for the actor of the moment, he has a pathetic lack of a sense of what is fitting, what is common decency. The most effective way to aid such persons to acquire such a sense is for us to ignore their acts when committed; to stop them if we have the opportunity. Our college spirit should be of such a caliber as to make disorderly acts not only disorderly, but also destructive of the college. The college is a play in itself, though there is a continuity of thought and action.

After the program, the girls had a strawberry festival in the rotunda. Each class had its own booth. The rotunda was decorated with class colors. The junior and senior bannors were displayed. Strings of Japanese lanterns crossed and recrossed the rotunda, lending a festive air. Melanie Grant and Bertha Zajan, sophomores, furnished the bannors.

A., general chairman; Lorena Shaffer, secretary; Lorena Shaffer, treasurer; Helen Elliott, advertising manager; Sophia Rogers, reporter; Julia Fay, photographer; and Beatrice Wright, business manager. Frosh Lose Idol; Search Closed Sat.

College authorities may interfere in the underclass rivalry between sophomores and freshmen, as a result of the refusal of those classes to work out an agreement. The Freshman class, under the leadership of Margaret M. O'Connor, was elected president of the class, and of the Music Association. Minnie E. Greenway was elected editor-in-chief of the "Pilgrim's Progress." The Music Association is to meet on Friday at the Atrium for the benefit of the Dormitory Fund.

LAST ISSUE OF NEWS JUNE 1
The annual "big issue" of the State College News, which is the only other issue to be published this year, will come out about June 1, or a little before. Copies will be sent to high schools in New York State, in accordance with a plan adopted about eight years ago. The issue will be much larger than the usual size. Space is given to the usual stories of the week; and a large number of pictures, showing college organizations, activities, and buildings, are published. A resume of the year's events, a description of the college courses, notes on the student activities, athletic stories, and names of officers of college clubs and classes for next year are published.

BIOLOGY AND CANTERBURY CLUBS ARE ACTIVE
On Wednesday afternoon, May 6, the Biology Club went to the peat bog on the Schenectady road. This proved to be one of the most interesting trips of the season, although most of the members waded in icy cold water. Many rare plants were found there. The members who attended were Dr. Douglas, Ruth Gollner, Mary Hitchcock, Mildred Strong, Ethel Williams, Christie Bartholomew, Madeline Vetich, Margaret Hageman, Mildred Wilson, Harold Ferguson, Harold Perry, John Sturms, Robert Hubbard, and Reginald Dixon.

Canterbury Club will have a hike out the Country Club road Saturday afternoon, May 6. They will leave St. Andrew's parish house at four o'clock. A bacon bat will be the feature of the day. The Canterbury Corporate Communion and breakfast for May will be held Sunday, May 17. At 8 o'clock. As this is the last one of the season, although most of the members waded in icy cold water. Many rare plants were found there. The members who attended were Dr. Douglas, Ruth Gollner, Mary Hitchcock, Mildred Strong, Ethel Williams, Christie Bartholomew, Madeline Vetich, Margaret Hageman, Mildred Wilson, Harold Ferguson, Harold Perry, John Sturms, Robert Hubbard, and Reginald Dixon.

At student assembly, last Friday, Dr. Brubacher discussed in detail the two phases of the Residence Hall Drive. There is the campaign which is being carried on among the students of the unter-graduate body; and there is the campaign which is being promoted among the citizens of Albany.

"The city has its eyes upon us," he said, "and what we do in the city will do." As a result of Dr. Brubacher's talk and the efforts of the Dormitory class, all classes are crowding the 100 per cent margin in the signing of Dormitory pledges.
