Baseball Season Opens Today;   Weeks Slated to Pitch at Siena Friday afternoon at three o'clock, State opens its 1964 baseball season with an away game against the Siena Indians. Despite reports to the contrary, the Lumber-ville Club field will be ready for the game, weather permitting. To take care of the round duties in this initial contest, Coach Burtinage has chosen a three-man reliever staff, according to Kimball. Ray Weeks, Roy's three victories last year accounted for half the Pod win and he is counted on for an even better performance this year.

The starting infield includes co-captain Dick Ockertl at the plate and first base. Rounding out the diamond will be Mike Pod, John Burtinage at shortstop and either Pop Pizzutto or Joe Mantua at

Mr. Frank C. Moore,
Rivalry Death Inevitable

Somewhere the twenty-one lines that make up this obituary sit as a terrible threat strike as long a tradition. As Rivalry. But perhaps it is best to let it go as a memory of itself, instead of bringing it back onto a campus which has inherited its own. We are not yet born to the death of Rivalry—if, of course, it has a death. It is coming ever since the decision to expand into a University was made.

Rivalry succumbed to natural causes. It was definitely out of place and impossible entirely even in the ever-expanding community. The undergraduate lived in a world of its own and was in most cases disappeared into the past few years. If there is anything to be learned from the death of Rivalry, it is that things can change tremendously in the past two years. We can but hope that as we achieve full university status, in fact as well as in name, that these new values will not be allowed to move more and more into the structure of the school.
