Christmas Carol Concert
in Auditorium

There will be a Christmas Carol Concert on Tuesday evening, December 19, at eight o'clock, in the College Auditorium. A community singing under the leadership of the faculty will be the main feature of the evening. The choir will be the nucleus in full force to give interest, volume and style. The choir will also give a Christmas cantata, "Christ-Carols." The choir is unusually large this year and is composed of many full voices. As a conclusion to the program, Dr. Thompson will lead a carol singing. There will be a full attendance of students in the evening of the nineteenth. Christmas Carol books may be procured, after arriving, for five cents and is invited to come and enjoy himself.

UNION Defeats State in First Game of Season
SCORE IS 34 - 10
HORNUNG AND JUCKETT

State was defeated by Union in the first basketball game of the season at Union last Saturday night. By a display of superior teamwork and accuracy in shooting the Garnet five finally lost at the end of a 34-10 game at the final whistle.

Hornung started the scoring within the first minute of play when Palmer putted one from the fifteen foot line. The Garnet kept the ball in their own territory for several minutes before State could get possession. After time Union broke the defense of the Purple and Gold for a score. NICHTMAN and BELLINGER both scored in this period. At the end of ten minutes playing the score stood 9-9 in favor of Union.

Ed. Shurley was the first to score for State. When he dropped in a free shot after a personal foul by Simonin at the second minute of the second period. Union managed to retain a safe margin as Nachtman, Bellinger, Pulpy and Simmons scored fairly easily. After time the Garnet also tallied a long shot from the field 10-9. The game remained in this condition until the last minute of the game when a jumper by Nachtman and a free shot by pulpy gave State a victory of 19-0 in favor of Union. Shurley made a perfect record with five free shots.

A Christmas Carol Concert will be held in the College Auditorium, Thursday evening, December 14, in Crystal Hall a concert for the benefit of the Fund for the Relief of Men of Letters of Russia. The artist who will entertain are Anna Meetschik, Contralto, Theatre Club, New York; Maria Junghans, Metropolitan Opera, New York; Grand Opera, Petrograd; Genia Fonservee, State Conservatory, Paris; Leokadia Klementovich, Pianist, Director Grand Opera, Moscow; and Charles Hesper, at the piano. Chemistry Club to Celebrate

The Tenth Anniversary Celebration of the Chemistry Club will be held Friday evening, December fifteenth.

The committee which has charge of this event is composed of many full voices. The club members and many alumni will hold a banquet in the college cafeteria. Dean Anna E. Pierce, '20, Mr. Chester Wood, '14, and Miss Muriel Daggett, '24, Miss Gladys Logan, '23, president of the club, will be toast mistress. After the banquet a vaudeville show will be given by the Roxy Club, which has been in existence for a long time.

QUARTERLY NOTES
Material for the January issue of the Quarterly must be in by December 15. It is the policy of the Quarterly to publish a special number. The society meeting will be held on the evening of the nineteenth. Christmas Carol books may be procured, after arriving, for five cents and is invited to come and enjoy himself.

On Saturday, December 16, State's varsity basketball team played, in its first game of the season, against the Albany Alumni of the college. The alumni team will be composed of J. H. Frey and Casuba, '21 as forwards, Lobell, '20 and Sutherland, '19 as backs, and Fitzgerald, '19 as holder of the pivot position. All of these men were former members of the men's team. Billie Hehrman, '24 and Florence Craddock, '24 have the forward duties. Hildebrand, '20, Lobell, '24 will jump center, and Eddie Vines, '24, and Henry, '25 are in line as possible substitutes.

Since these games are for the benefit of our Dormitory Fund, student tickets will not be accepted at the door. Admission to the game will be thirty-five cents. After the game there will be a dance with music by the orchestra. Student tax tickets will be accepted for admission to the dance. Those who do not have student tax tickets will be charged fifteen cents each.
