Ike' Emerges Victorious in State's Straw Vote

Survey Continues GOP Tradition

Survey conducted in connection with the annual Straw Vote in New York State indicated that Dwight D. Eisenhower will be re-elected President next November. LP. Senator, Al Smith, will be the Democratic candidate. The Brewer-Smith matchup was 41 to 40 in favor of Mr. Smith, the survey showed. The survey was conducted by the William R. Johnston Company for the New York World-Telegram and Sun. The survey was conducted among 525 likely voters in the state of New York.

Egyptian King, Washington Mubarak, during a recent visit to the United States, has been quoted as saying, "Ike is my hero." Mr. Mubarak is a strong supporter of Mr. Eisenhower's policies and has been vocal in his support of the American President. His statement is expected to be a boost to Mr. Eisenhower's chances in the upcoming election.

Students Choose Twenty Seniors For Who's Who

Twelve Sigma Lambda Sigma have been selected as Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, according to Dr. Robert T. Tisdale, who is the Dean of the College. The who's who are: mixes, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152.

Greeks Release Weekend Plans, Name Pledge

The Soph skit is called "Tangled Legs," the top office of the land. The skit revolves around the theme of predicting the future of the body after the big dance, the main event of the weekend. The Soph skit will be performed on Saturday night at the Commuter's Club, and will be followed by the Junior skit, "Kings Will Spell Out Hillbilly Legs." The Junior skit is a serious drama of a son's reactions to the changes in the world, as interpreted by his father, Tu Pu, Chinese poet of the eighth century. The Soph skit is a humorous look at the same changes, as interpreted by a young Dutch girl, "The World's Current Ideologies Interpreted," by William J. Greening.

Wise Move

Attention Student Council members ... do you really want to see your ideaubly bold and prudently wise move of the week? Take a look at it and then see your questions are assembled. They stand dialectically.

If we're going to get on a television set, we want a good out of one of them, but we'd like to keep our staid and sedate problem. We want good problem, not just, but it is necessary to go to each institution. I think we want one of the best out of a dozen of them, just to give you an idea of a dozen of them, just to give you an idea of what has been done in dealing with any particular.

Quality, But

Student Council made a wise choice last Wednesday night. The idea of a television screening of current movies, an idea that had been broached in the Student Council a couple of weeks ago, was received with enthusiasm. Everyone, with one exception, fell in. The only exception was a member of Student Council who felt that television was a "waste of time" and that the time could be better spent "learning" about the community. The other members of Student Council were of the opinion that television, like all other forms of media, has its place in our lives and that it is important to be aware of what is going on in the world around us.

National Student Association is comprised of some 300 colleges and universities throughout the United States. It is recognized by the national and international authorities, as the voice of the American student. Basically, its purpose is one of adding ideas and efforts to facilitate the solution of problems common to all college, and of extending an influential voice to the student body of a prominent college having a particular problem. Certainly, NSA works toward solving the college code of conduct, and those of the like, and through conferences on the national, regional, and local level.

Wednesday night Council was privileged to hear from the Secretary of the Student Senate of University of California, Berkeley, who spoke on the matter of television. The Secretary of the Student Senate of University of California, Berkeley, who spoke on the matter of television, was invited to address the Council by the Student Council of CMU. He told us that the Student Council of University of California, Berkeley, had voted unanimously to recommend the use of television in the curriculum of the University. The Secretary of the Student Senate of University of California, Berkeley, stated that television was an excellent tool for teaching and that it had been used successfully at the University of California, Berkeley, in the teaching of history, literature, and science. He also mentioned that television had been used to great effect in the teaching of foreign languages. The Secretary of the Student Senate of University of California, Berkeley, ended his talk by thanking the Council for inviting him to address them. He said that he was happy to be able to share his ideas with the Council and that he hoped that the Council would find them useful.

Athletics, Its Place?

By GEORGE C. SMITH

What is your plan, if any, for athletics? I think we should have athletics at CMU. Athletics is a way of life, and we should have it here. CMU has a great tradition of excellence in athletics, and we should continue that tradition.

Athletics should be a part of the college education experience. Athletics can help students develop the skills of teamwork, leadership, and sportsmanship. Athletics can also provide a source of pride and a sense of belonging to the CMU community.

We should also make sure that athletics are accessible to all students. Athletics should not be exclusive to the wealthy or the academically gifted. Athletics should be available to all students, regardless of their ability or background.

Athletics should be well-funded and properly administered. Athletics should have the resources necessary to compete at a high level. Athletics should also be accountable to the students and the CMU community.

I believe that CMU should continue to be a leader in athletics. CMU should be known for its high-quality athletics program. CMU should be a place where students can have fun while also competing at the highest level.

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfelds. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day.
45% of the group have smoked Chesterfield contintually from one to three years for an average of 10 years or more.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough evaluation, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The exam-ation covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough exam-
ation of every member of the group, stated:
"It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects ex-samined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
