During the experimental week, it can be said that the facilities of the library are essential for research purposes. The absence of proper reference materials forces the students to seek information elsewhere, which is time-consuming and inefficient. The library remains brightly lighted nearly every night, and it is unsafe in case of a bombing attack.

It can be said that a library whose blackout precautions, and in this case, the proper translation of bulletins, is taken seriously is a valuable asset to the college.

The world is locked in a war, and the future is in a little different light. The present status of domesticated animals, the phenomena of chemical reactions, and the application of practical and tolerant views on the proposed amendment, we sent over, the probability of any gang on the country. Secretary Stimson, expressing his opposition to the proposed amendment, would have to be voted for in order to ban beer and liquor from the reservation. "I've got to do a bit of cokes now and then, but remember that when you are with one of these fellows, you must be proud to be seen wearing one,—but if flowers are about it, too. But that's the way it usually is. . . ."

KDR Scores Over Dam B For Second Win At Fane Suffer Losses To Potter and SLS. Shocks Gain First Victory By Defeating Rammers

The Trojans defeated the Dam B Rammers, 7-6, in the second game of the week. Dam B was led by a strong defense, but Potter's quarterback, George Gray, led the Trojans to victory. The Trojans showed their strength in the second half of the game, scoring two touchdowns. The Dam B defense was unable to stop Potter's offense, which led to their loss. The Trojans will continue their season with a game against the SLS team in the coming weeks.
