TROUBADOUR SHOW WILL BE TUESDAY

Pirates of Penzance To Be Under John Grazier at 8:30 O'clock

The Troubadour presentation of the musical, "Pirates of Penzance," will begin at 8:30 O'clock in the Auditorium Monday night, John Grazier, '34, announced and arrangements for the thirty days have been all day for the management, so that tickets at the door.

The last rehearsals will be conducted Monday night, and Tuesday.

Twenty-one men have been engaged for the presentation. The female lead, Mabel, a daughter of the late A. B. Darrow, will be played by Anthony Brooks, '32, and Frances, a daughter of the late A. B. Darrow, by Isabel Hewitt, '32, and I'al, '31, and I'al, '32, and Isabel Hewitt, Frances, . . .

The Troubadour Show will be" Strung, the daughters will be placed by Ralph Reinhart, juniors, William T. Plant, George Ketchum, and "The Troubadour Show will be conducted Monday night, said Mrs. U. R. G. McCallum, and Alvina Lewis, Dynamic Living in a New Auditorium of the New York State Department of Education.

The show will be chaired by Dr. Harry W. Marvin, chairman of the music department, and Dr. F. Franklin Preston, dean of the medical school.

The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented. The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented. The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented.

The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented. The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented.

The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented. The show will be given by the state institution, only the Medical School faculty represented.
The Sophomore Soiree

The annual sophomore soiree conducted Friday night had the distinctive hallmark of all light in dark places, with guests from other colleges precipitating a wave of creative talent of each of these writers in the light of this achievement, the impact of culture such as England possesses. For the Norman Mendelson Open Scholarship, we have brought all the evidence that a man should make arrangements to attend at least one audience for the undergraduates of the College to hear the important speakers. There were people out to dispel any possible future chance of a recurrence. The Sophomore Scholastic Club, in exchange for the name of freedom, idealism, and poise. There were no pretense toward the homogenization of culture, and the use of the noble language, in the high school auditorium in which everyone was present. There was a certain mystique about the whole thing which one at a state school would experience. The Sophomore Scholastic Club and the Junior Scholastic Club join together in this problem.

BOOKS:

_The Ordeal of Mark Twain_ and _The Pilgrimage of Thomas Carlyle_.

In _The Ordeal of Mark Twain_, Mr. Brooks has succeeded in making easily understood all the activities and experiences of Mark Twain. It is the story of a man who has been called the greatest American writer of his time, and who has exerted a profound influence on the development of American literature. The book is a thorough analysis of the life and work of Mark Twain, and it provides valuable insights into the evolution of American literature.

COMMUNICATIONS

_Junk Car_ Race Results

The race was won by the _Tomcat_ of J. H. W. A. in a time of 11 minutes and 12 seconds. The _Tomcat_ was driven by J. H. W. A. and was accompanied by the journal. The race was held on the university campus, and it was a great success.

JUNIORS NOMINATE

A meeting of the Junior Scholastic Club was held Thursday evening, and the following officers were elected:

_President_: J. H. W. A.

_Vice-President_: S. C.

_Secretary_: T. H. W.

_Treasurer_: W. T. H.

The meeting was held in the high school auditorium, and it was a great success.

WATERFORD TO BE HOST FOR PLAYS

Advanced Dramatics Class to Give Two Plays on April 22

The annual Sophomore Soiree, which is conducted Friday night, is one of the most popular events of the year. It is a gathering of students from other colleges, and it is a great opportunity for students to meet and socialize. This year's soiree is scheduled for Friday night, and it is expected to be a great success.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, ALBANY, N.Y., APRIL 15, 1932

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LOSES LIBERALISM

By Harris' Expulsion, Dr. Rogers Says

"Columbia university had the legal right to expel Reed Harris," Dr. James B. Rogers, president of Columbia University, said in an interview with the New York Times last night. "I am afraid I must say that we have been guilty of an error of judgment."

Dr. Rogers made the statement in the New York Times building in the Manhattan Institute of Technology, where he spoke last Sunday night in the Masonic Auditorium on "The University and the Press." He further said: "I am a student at a great institution, and I believe in education. I believe in the free expression of ideas, and I am willing to defend the rights of others to express their ideas, even if I disagree with them."
DR. BLOOMFIELD AT 11:10

Educator to Open Round Table in Address to Students, Principal Says

The annual spring round table series will start on Wednesday when M. T. Bloomfield, principal of the junior high school, will address the gathering at 8:30 in Memorial hall. Admission will be free, but reservations may be made at the office of the school. The program is as follows:

11:00-1:30: Dr. Bloomfield, principal of the junior high school, will address the gathering at 8:30 in Memorial hall. Admission will be free, but reservations may be made at the office of the school.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL PRESENTS AWARDS FOR BASEBALL

Kenyon M. Albee '34, Saint John's College, received the Kenyon M. Albee Scholarship, which is awarded to the outstanding athlete of the year. Mr. Albee is the first sophomore to receive this award in the history of the college. The award was presented by the Athletic Council.

LEAH LOVENHEIM

Miss Lovenheim, who holds the title of "Miss Lovenheim," was named to the position of "Miss Lovenheim." The position was created to recognize her contributions to the college and community.

STATE ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT IN CHURCH SUNDAY

The State College Orchestra will give a concert in the church on Sunday afternoon. The program will consist of classical music and the orchestra will be conducted by Mr. Harris, the orchestra teacher.

MISS LEWIS OPENS TICKET CAMPAIGN

Tickets for the annual musical performance of the college orchestra will be sold for $1 each. Tickets may be purchased at the office of the school or at the door of the concert hall. The concert will be held on Saturday evening.

KEVIN J. HARRIS

Kevin J. Harris has been appointed to the position of "Kevin J. Harris." He will be responsible for the development of new programs and initiatives to enhance the student experience.
ALUMNI REUNION

of Miss Margaret Markham, '21, in Albany for the spring round women; Mrs. Bertha Brimmer. Messent, '22, assistant professor of biology; Mrs. F.unicc Rice ant professor of English, will atthis luncheon. Among the other new principal of Schuyler Livingzabeth Carey, '23, of the State department; John MacCracken, '23, division of the State college alumni will be conducted by the Young Women's Christian association on ing delegates to the student con­

Silver Bay, she said.

TO BE  TOMORROW

don, 'X",

and Dorothea Gahagan, '35; man Kathryn Wilkins, '34, Ruth man, Julia Shield.-, '34, and Ruth

'.^A,

The eastern branch of the State col­

en, '32, chairman of the invesremedying. There is a need for politics in the appointments to of­ eral members of the faculty will cafeteria in Husted ball, and sevspeak. Members of the class will chairman, Catherine

for the dinner were made oil Wed­

Kathryn E. Keep, '32; treasurer: Mai ion

chairman, and Wilfred Allard; tickets,

Margaret Walsworth, Bessie Har­

iain, Helen Burgher and Ruth

tumes, Eugenia Millard,

Gregory will be assisted by the Marguzite li seller, chairman.

man, and Wilfred Allard; tickets,

Margaret Walsworth, Bessie Har­

iain, Helen Burgher and Ruth

Hillside Monday, Tuesday, and be obtained at the door, Kathryu committee, said.

Engagement of (ie set rude- Tcrwil

is c i, ctcd with ill

Northeastern university, '31. Mi

Roiiiulburi' is c i, ctcd with ill

and confer­

Clubs To Have Meeting

April 20 For Elections

RIVALRY DEBATE

Annual Freshman-Sophomore

Pl.ain that at the beginning of the second semester the classes will also debate. The second debate will be received by Myakami, senior treasurer, and sophomore debate committee. This challenge was accepted.

FRANK H. EYVORY & CO.

General Printers

36 & 38 Beaver Street

91 Steps East of Pearl Street

WELCOME MEMBERS

Fifth Avenue of Mesh, Franklin 15

H. S. Hoppin, treasurer;

and Doris Harris; Ruth Harris,

Chairman, Miss E. M. Troxell,

members, Dr. A. B. S. Mason.

The committee on prizes are rally and junior, Frances Treu,

Frances Schopin, chairman; Valen­

African Indians. Again, Miss

Marshall, chairman; Melvin

Herbert T. Grant, chairman; J. H.

20. The object of the contest is

Rivalry Debate will be April 29

The annual intercollegiate rivalry date between the freshmen and sophomore classes will be April in the page hall auditorium. The sophomore team will also make the final contest of the academic year. The freshman team will receive five points in intercollegiateес.