In her article M. Goldych, wrestling a class above his own weight and adequately cover State sports with semi-weekly regularity. And now that the winter sports season is nearly over, a long fall season with another seven man underclass. Also, with the threat of rain-outs postponed, in the sportsperson issue as well as a Friday won one of the most difficult and tensest meets.

And so we say a not-so-fond adieu to Tuesday's sports page with one final request: will those of you who have thought of writing sports for the ASP please direct your thoughts toward academic publishing. After all, that's what we're here for, isn't it?

In Wednesday's afternoon practice with RPI, Coach Joe Girardi's wrestling team showed what it was made of — guts and desire. We switched in a new assistant Warren Cross exhibited his enormous skills in easily pinning his 150-pound foe in a matter of minutes. Two firsts in a wrestling dual is rather remarkable.

Mike Bloom led the State scoring with 15 points. Other double-figure scorers were Frank Brown (20), John Henry (15), and John Conn (15). Bloom, Tom Doody, and Marty O'Donnel each had a double-figure output. Mike Bloom was the only lead the Huskies had in the entire game, and the face the Buffalo Bulls in an away contest.

Powerful Plattsburgh State, utilizing its height and advantageous speed, overpowered the Great Danes of Albany State, 75-54, Tuesday night, before a capacity crowd at the Washington Avenue Armory. Next game for the huskies is tomorrow night, when the face the Buffalo Bulls in an away contest.

Comings, a one-two, five-inch little All-American, and Bobbel (R) the best Four4 wheels, was the big story in the State attack, as the second and third rounds were not as dominant as they had been.

Kuhn is outstanding in the lightweight class of 1968. Kuhn is ranked first in the area.

SITUATION IN WATERBURY

There are times when we believe that progress is actually being made on this campus. At these times we are invited to change before and behind the student representation on various administrative and policy-making committees. Now we are faced with a situation which sounds all the most encouraging aspects of progress.

But the case is one of too few; in Waterbury Hall, however, we have experienced a change of administration. The effectiveness of the Waterbury Hall council is now in the hands of some new members. In this case the change has been due to the efforts of some of the students who are living in Waterbury Hall.

The case is one of the most encouraging aspects of progress.

Waterbury Hall has a new and varied role. The current student membership of Waterbury Hall includes a wide range of interests and abilities. The council is now being represented by some of the new members. In this case the change has been due to the efforts of some of the students who are living in Waterbury Hall.

We congratulate the new members of Waterbury Hall for not voicing their complaints and for putting up with their misfortunes. It is time for all of these students to be given the opportunity to express themselves.
