Absence Rules Undergo Change From Last Year
Honor Students Obtain Special Considerations

Colleges are considering changes in their college rules and regulations. The student council has approved the following changes, which will take effect in the fall:

1. The daily report will be sent to the Record Office, in the Student Union.
2. The student council has approved the following changes:
   a. The rule regarding the use of lockers will be revised to allow the use of lockers for all students.
   b. The rule regarding the use of the library will be revised to allow the use of lockers for all students.

Annual All-College Reception Will Extend Welcome To Frosh

Collins Reports Faculty Increase; Twenty-One Join College Staff

The following are the new faculty members who have joined the college staff:

- Dr. Violet O. Collins, Department of Education
- Dr. D. Elton Nelson, Department of Business Administration
- Dr. Charles H. Hamblen, Jr., Instructor, English
- Dr. Louis Vion, Department of Biology
- Dr. bananas Smith, Manager, Department of Music

New regulations regarding absences for undergraduates who were on the faculty of the college include:

1. The faculty will report on the student council's findings, any absenteeism, and any other matters.
2. The faculty will report any student who is absent for any reason.
3. The faculty will report on the student council's findings, any absenteeism, and any other matters.

Cafeteria Prices To Remain Same

The upper section of the library will be located in the main hall of the Student Union. Cafeteria Prices will open at 8:45 a.m., begin serving at 9 a.m., and close at 2 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. The cafeteria will be open on Saturday and Sunday.

Focus On Future

The largest freshman class in the history of the college will meet with the traditional freshman class on the first day of classes. The college faculty will be present to welcome the students and answer any questions they may have.

Cobbs Releases Library Rules

Information concerning the use of libraries and reading materials in the Student Union will be announced. These rules are not interchangeable. Information must be used in the library as must refer to the faculty of the college.

Cobbs Releases Job Procedure

Any freshmen who desire information must file a request for the use of books and magazines. They may be obtained from the Student Council.

Sports, Fashion Show, Faculty Skit Highlight Frosh Camp Recreation

The annual All-College Reception will extend welcome to the freshmen. The reception will take place on Saturday, October 4, at 8 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Annual All-College Reception Will Extend Welcome To Frosh

Big-4 Numbers Will Highlight Evening's Show

The annual All-College Reception will be held Saturday evening. The event will feature the Big-4, a popular collegiate show. The Big-4 will perform a medley of songs and dances to entertain the guests.

Legends Frosh Class Enrolls At State

The largest freshman class in the history of the college will enroll at the annual All-College Reception. The reception will take place on Saturday, October 4, at 8 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Clerks Assign Student Locker

Lockers are assigned to students who have not yet received assignments. The locks are placed on the lockers to prevent unauthorized access. The lockers are placed on the lockers to prevent unauthorized access.

Arranges For Allment Of Student Tax Tickets

Student tax tickets are available for all students who have not yet received assignments. Students can obtain the tickets from the Student Council.

State College News

Albany, New York, Friday, September 19, 1952

VOL. XXXII No. 9

STATE COLLEGE NEWS
SEPTEMBER 1952

TO MAY 1953
To Be Continued

Each year's seniors return to college, finding themselves governed by a new vitality and freshness of activity, which often marks the beginning of a truly outstanding freshman class. This year's class is no exception. You, the Class of '56, is an unusually large and enthusiastic group, with a strong sense of responsibility and a devotion to work and play. This is the year to make the most of your opportunities, and to take advantage of every chance that comes your way. You are the first group to matriculate under the new absence system which goes into effect this year. You will undoubtedly find yourself looking down to you for the new uniform beanies—will they carry different names? And, how about your new friends? Are they as hard pressed for the low priced rooms as were the former tenants.

Next year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new American Art. The Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, is sponsoring its 38th parallel musical play. The play will be held Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Memorial Union. The play is called "A Thousand Eyes." The play was written by Thai Tha, and the music was composed by Thai Tha and Van Ileflln. The play is about the lives of Thai Tha and Van Ileflln, and their adventures in the East and the West.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department Displays Modern Italian Art. The department displays Modern Italian Art with a new and unique collection. The collection includes works by such famous Italian artists as Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. The collection is located in the University Museum, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department of Modern Languages and Philology. The department offers a large selection of courses in modern languages and philology, including courses in French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Conservatory of Music. The conservatory offers courses in music theory, composition, and performance. The conservatory is located in the Department of Music, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new American Art. The Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, is sponsoring its 38th parallel musical play. The play will be held Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Memorial Union. The play is called "A Thousand Eyes." The play was written by Thai Tha, and the music was composed by Thai Tha and Van Ileflln. The play is about the lives of Thai Tha and Van Ileflln, and their adventures in the East and the West.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department Displays Modern Italian Art. The department displays Modern Italian Art with a new and unique collection. The collection includes works by such famous Italian artists as Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. The collection is located in the University Museum, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department of Modern Languages and Philology. The department offers a large selection of courses in modern languages and philology, including courses in French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Conservatory of Music. The conservatory offers courses in music theory, composition, and performance. The conservatory is located in the Department of Music, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new American Art. The Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, is sponsoring its 38th parallel musical play. The play will be held Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Memorial Union. The play is called "A Thousand Eyes." The play was written by Thai Tha, and the music was composed by Thai Tha and Van Ileflln. The play is about the lives of Thai Tha and Van Ileflln, and their adventures in the East and the West.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department Displays Modern Italian Art. The department displays Modern Italian Art with a new and unique collection. The collection includes works by such famous Italian artists as Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. The collection is located in the University Museum, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department of Modern Languages and Philology. The department offers a large selection of courses in modern languages and philology, including courses in French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Conservatory of Music. The conservatory offers courses in music theory, composition, and performance. The conservatory is located in the Department of Music, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new American Art. The Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, is sponsoring its 38th parallel musical play. The play will be held Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Memorial Union. The play is called "A Thousand Eyes." The play was written by Thai Tha, and the music was composed by Thai Tha and Van Ileflln. The play is about the lives of Thai Tha and Van Ileflln, and their adventures in the East and the West.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department Displays Modern Italian Art. The department displays Modern Italian Art with a new and unique collection. The collection includes works by such famous Italian artists as Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. The collection is located in the University Museum, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department of Modern Languages and Philology. The department offers a large selection of courses in modern languages and philology, including courses in French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Conservatory of Music. The conservatory offers courses in music theory, composition, and performance. The conservatory is located in the Department of Music, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new American Art. The Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, is sponsoring its 38th parallel musical play. The play will be held Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Memorial Union. The play is called "A Thousand Eyes." The play was written by Thai Tha, and the music was composed by Thai Tha and Van Ileflln. The play is about the lives of Thai Tha and Van Ileflln, and their adventures in the East and the West.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department Displays Modern Italian Art. The department displays Modern Italian Art with a new and unique collection. The collection includes works by such famous Italian artists as Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. The collection is located in the University Museum, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Department of Modern Languages and Philology. The department offers a large selection of courses in modern languages and philology, including courses in French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.

This year, the Class of '56 will be looking down to you for the new Conservatory of Music. The conservatory offers courses in music theory, composition, and performance. The conservatory is located in the Department of Music, and is open to the public on weekdays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.
Spanish Students To Present Skit

An original skit by Spanish students will be presented by the copaid cast of the Student Union. Acceptable subjects for the skit are to be selected from the following: "The Reign of King Arthur," "El Peso de la Colmena," or "La Batalla de las Espadas." The writing of the skit will be done by the students themselves, and the skit will be reharsed and presented at the request of the Student Union.

Spanish Students

As ABC's II

by ABE BLATTMAN

As ABC's II, the students of Spanish are planning to present a skit to the campus. The skit will be performed at the request of the Student Union. The subtitle of the skit is "The Reigned of King Arthur," "El Peso de la Colmena," or "La Batalla de las Espadas." The writing of the skit will be done by the students themselves, and the skit will be reh-
arsed and presented at the request
of the Student Union.

Spanish Students

Student Union Board Rules

1. Student Union meetings will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday nights in the Student Union Room.

2. All completed books of the Student Union will be kept in the Student Union Room.

3. The Student Union Room will be open to all members of the Student Union.

4. The Student Union Room will be used for Student Union
meetings only.

5. The Student Union Room will be open to all members of the Student Union.

6. The Student Union Room will
be used for Student Union
meetings only.

7. The Student Union Room will be open to all members of the Student Union.

8. The Student Union Room will be used for Student Union
meetings only.

9. The Student Union Room will be open to all members of the Student Union.

10. The Student Union Room will be used for Student Union
meetings only.

Spanish Students

Test CAMELS for 30 days

for Mildness and Flavor

CAMELS are America's most popular cigarettes. To find out why,
take them as your steady smoke.
Smoke only CAMELS for thirty days.
See how rich and flavorful they are.
How cud they suit you as your steady smoke?

CAMELS are America's most popular cigarettes. To find out why,
take them as your steady smoke.
Smoke only CAMELS for thirty days.
See how rich and flavorful they are.
How cud they suit you as your steady smoke?
Students Register During October For Fall Balloting

Information concerningregistration for the coming term is now available. The deadline for registering is October 11th. Full-time students must register for at least 12 credits.

Registration forms are available at the Registrar's Office. Forms will be accepted until October 11th. Interested students should contact the Registrar's Office for details.

\[\text{continued on page 5, column 1}\]

\[\text{end of article}\]