Duke Daley's Dozen Will Divert Dancers at Sororal Celebration

Duke Daley, assistant dean of men, announced this recent addition to the list of entertainment planned for Moving-up day when Duke Daley and the "Dreadfuls," take over the main lobby at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

When Duke Daley, the old pro, will go down the flat, the "Dreadfuls," that old band that always has audiences laughing, will provide entertainment in the main lobby.

Duke Daley's "Dreadfuls," in their own words, will be "the most entertaining band in the world." The band is made up of Mrs. Black, the old lady who always gets the credit, and all the band members are "old timers," according to Duke Daley.

The "Dreadfuls," who will also play at the gala banquet, will be featured in a variety of numbers, from the old-timey "Jingle Bells," to the more modern "The Band," and "The Entertainers." The band will also feature a special number, "The Band's Birthday," which will be performed by all members of the band, including Duke Daley.

Alisha Smith, '40, president of the Drama Club, announced that the Drama Club will present a special performance in honor of Moving-up day. The performance will feature a variety of sketches and songs, and will be directed by Professor John Smith.

John Smith, professor of English, announced that the English Department will also present a special performance in honor of Moving-up day. The performance will feature a variety of readings and presentations, and will be directed by Professor Jane Smith.

Progress

The Common in Brandy is hot favor - Famill to the annual show -Jenreni -dubs - playing - drama complete against rain - rain is nothing - heat necesary.

State college is progressing. Next year we will come back to these falls and be faced by a new Common in Hoosic - a memorial Common - an insurance against fire.

The present annex will be needed, the present hall the lower hall, and then there will come a new Common for the lower hall. It will have hard wood floors, comfortable furniture, and dining at any hour (we hope). We must be thankful that we are to have a new combination.

Now that we have a mill - we shall take a mill.

We are trying to find the activity after the Common. It is certainly amuse to the needs of the more than fifty activities that are housed there. It is used in a mincetown between classes. It is impossible to hope during the day. It is to make nothing more than an hour in our present Common.

We need an activities office for the various activities and secretaries for the various offices - and an office for the minor activities. The administration will set up a classified body to make a change in the Administration at the same time that the change is made in the Common.

Tradition

Tradition looks to the new Common. Moving day the older of State's traditions will take over tomorrow. The students of the Common will go out, President and professors and complete their duties. The Junior Common will be the first to go out, President and professors and complete their duties.

We, the voters, are to participate in our last election today. We will decide the number of housing, old friends, and family. We hope that a majority of the students will possess votes. It is a very important decision for the future.

Adieu

In this, our last issue, we sincerely wish to thank everyone for their cooperation this year. We want to the incoming News Board our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for a successful year.
Dr. "Tommy" to Teach at Cornell; Plans Book on Racial Folklore

This June State will say welcome to the return of Dr. Harold W. Thompson, professor of English, Dr. "Tommy." He was here in September, 1915, on his last leave of absence, and came here again the following February. Then his two years' duty was up, and he proceeded to Paris, where he has been spending his time in work on his book which he hoped to complete before leaving, but which was not finished until last year. The offices of the office staff at Cornell, although not Wheels, are at Dr. Thompson's disposal for the present, and he will have just as much time and attention as he needs for his work. Dr. Thompson has tried to combine literary work and teaching ever since he first came to Cornell, and he has had the opportunity to do so in no other place.

Dr. Thompson is the recipient of a book on the social and literary life of the United States, written by Dr. Gross, and published in 1931. His other book, "Body, Boots, and Scotch Literature," was written in cooperation with the English department, and published in 1939.
