The baseball game between Union and State College on Saturday April 21, resulted in a defeat for State’s nine, the score being 17-2.

The game opened with Union at the bat. The first man knocked a single but the second man bunted out. The next to bat was Cornell, who knocked the ball for a three bagger and brought in a score for Union. At the close of the first inning two of Union’s men had crossed the plate.

During the second inning Union did not score. A double by Casvanut and Smith put out two of the University men. Anderson and Smith scored for State and made the game tie at the end of the second inning, the score being 2-2.

In the third inning Union scored four runs. The feature of this inning was a home run knocked by Meyer. State’s only chance at the ball was a one base hit by Stahlman. In the fourth inning Oaten was put in the pitchers box, but Union continued to pile up scores. Ruth Twirled the ball for State in the last inning and Union succeeded in getting only one hit.

The game was called at the end of the sixth inning with a score of 17-2 in favor of the Union nine. On April 26, State’s nine will make its appearance in Burlington, where it will play the Vermont nine. This is the second time of State’s biggest games of the baseball season.

The poignant question in every Sophomore's heart is, "Where? How much? Some, have been out of classes. If they are in, or out, which will they continue to admit their presence? Others consider the comfort of taking the place of work, or that is disarming if not convincing, or treat their many individual lives, whose mothers still have a certain amount of string tied to them, with a cold and bored disdain.

Others have picked out the melody they have judged themselves worthy of and are impatiently watching the principal offering said amount to support the concert.

It seems so funny how, outwardly at least, these people, trained to be teachers, consider the character of the service they are to give in their classes, or in a job. It isn't, "Will I be able to take my place in the community? Will there be a work for me there?" Or, "Will I be the type of teacher for the community?" But it is more, "How much salary? I know what I want! How many classes will I have to teach?"

Of course we don't think these teachers should go out as martyrs to the cause of their profession or any such thing. But if the job is one which is going to give you encouragement which is going to help you become the better kind of teacher, why think about salary or location of salary if you are to do they matter in the long run of things when students look up to you, and you reach out to help them find the truth of things?

REPLY TO COLLEGE SPIRIT

"BARBARISM"

As we read the articles under Student Comment in the News issue of April 29th, we wonder where the member or members who produced and attempted to put before the students of State such a misnecchial version of what actually happened in our assembly, really were at the time.

Is it really granted that the Froshmen serve much praise and commendatory encouragement for their initial appearance before the audience and which was afterwards called "barbarism"? However, we do not believe that such an instance or such success excuses the better half of the Frosh from the appearance of their ideas or proposals or such a statement. This thing which is going to give you experience which is going to help you become a better kind of teacher and which is going to give you a certain amount of string tied to you, with a cold and bored disdain.

It is very evident that certain members of the student body forget that they are not at assembly on Friday is required by the college such duties. This does not mean merely and not attendance until the determination has been taken. It means attendance at the whole assembly. Yet many persons each Friday walk boldly out of the auditorium at their first opportunity.

Even if college rule did not require that a person remain for the entire period, courtesy to the people who attend such periods is highly desirable. Yet many persons each Friday walk boldly out of the auditorium at their first opportunity.

On Friday, 5th May is going to be a gym. Frolic. Everyone who comes out is promised a good time! It is a good opportunity to try some of the things that will take place on Moving Day. Those who have had practice for these events during the year in physical ed., but the junior and seniors haven't had such opportunities. Come out on May 5th and then get in trim.
SPANISH CARNIVAL

The Spanish Carnival will be presented by the Spanish Club on Friday, May 4. Professor Brundage is assisting the officers in making its efforts to make this affair just as successful as it has been in former years.

The Carnival will start with an entertainment in the auditorium. The orchestra will give a number of selections, the quartette will sing, and the Spanish dances will be presented. Another number of the program is a Spanish solo.

After the entertainment, the guests will eat the traditional tapas. This will be greeted by the Queen, chosen last week by popular vote. Balloons, flowers, serpentines, confetti and ice cream are all part of the decorations of the Spanish booths.

But the event of the evening!

One of our talented faculty members have arranged to put on a bull fight. Genuine Spanish costumes have been provided, and in every possible way it will be given an opportunity to vote for the two popularly elected members of the Spanish Club.

WOMEN'S CHORUS ENTERTAINS

In student assembly Friday, April 20, Dr. Thompson treated the students to another "song fest." This particular "fest" was Scotch and so was appropriately opened by "Annie Laurie." The choir then sang a song about a little love song called "Highland Laddie." Mayhelle Jacobson, '23 charmed the students with "John Anderson Is My Keenest Man," We'll Meet Again. By way of a little change the chorus rendered an English folk song "Twenty-eight, Eighteen" about a rich, but unsatisfactory young man's vain attempts to win a young lassie who desired only "at least a home." This was followed by a Scotch war-time song of "The Bawled Princes Charlie" arranged by Mr. Candlyn, and sung then for the first time. The program closed with notable stunts on the part of the student body to muster even a few of the Scotch words of "Auld Lang Syne.

May Wood read the list of junior eligible. Freshmen and Sophomores will be posted on the bulletin board, and in a few days, these boys and girls will be given an opportunity to vote for the two popularly elected members of the Scottish Club.
