Dane Booters Win Opener, 2-1 Victory Over Brooklyn

by DAVE NISH

BRUCKLGN — First half goal by junior right center Ginger Hultbom-Tim and shiublle left Guy Jarvis-Turner powered the Albany State cosmos to a 2-1 victory over Brooklyn College on Saturday. The win gives the Joe Garcia coached team a 1-0 start to their 1967 season, and a shot at the championship of the New York State Conference.

The Cosmos started quickly with a point blank chance on the Brooklyn goalie's first save. The Cosmos then went into a defensive mode, waiting for the first chance. When it came in the 23rd minute of the first half, Ginger Hultbom-Tim took advantage of the situation and put the ball past the goalie to give the Cosmos a 1-0 lead over Brooklyn.

In the second half, the Cosmos continued to dominate the game. However, Brooklyn was not going to lie down and let the Cosmos have it all their own way. The Blues came out with a lot of spirit and energy, and started to put some pressure on the Cosmos. Despite this pressure, the Cosmos held on to their lead and eventually went on to win the game, 2-1.

HOW TO PLAN YOUR ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING

To plan your engagement and wedding, start by figuring out your budget. Then, make a list of all the things you want to include in your wedding day, from the venue to the food to the attire. Finally, start planning the details, such as the invitations and the guest list, and make sure to leave plenty of time for each task.
Notes from the Movement

Peter P. Price, Editor, ALBANY LIBERATOR

As a result of the awesome power of television and print media, the anti-war movement has been subjected to a thorough examination by the press. The attempts of such media to interpret the true meaning of the movement have been roundly criticized by us. There is no substitute for a personal involvement with the struggle and the personal understanding that comes from it. The above statement is a part of the personal understanding that comes from a personal involvement with the struggle. The personal understanding that comes from a personal involvement with the struggle is a part of the personal understanding that comes from a personal involvement with the struggle.

Aunt Fanny's Garage

...Where It's At

by Marty Goldberg

Aunt Fanny's Garage is the indispensable since of Albany's best. It all began when a small group of turned on people living in Albany decided one cool January afternoon that Albany needed a head shop. They campaigned to the state's narcotics board of directors, and then they won. The question then was: what were the operating conditions? Should the store be under a canopy or a tent? Should it be open in a secret location in the woods? In the end, this Albany sect decided on a store.

Located deep in the heart of Albany's hippest commercial district, AF&G's is nestled on the North Lake District corner across from the Casino Bar and Grill. This is where you'll find it. Outside on a mild afternoon, there's a doowhip and a doorbell that's always clicking. Two cigarette papers are always stacked. If you knock, a door will open, and you'll be met with a smile and the smell of soft music. Inside, you'll find a variety of items that are designed to enhance your experience. From incense and flutes to pipes and spectacles, there's something for everyone. The worst thing about business? Owners state they have to fight the compulsion not to give anything away. Man.

Speaking of traveling, no trip is complete without stuff to blow your mind. Groovy crystals which you look through and the visual stimulation, but it's enough. A few flashing colored lights on the ceiling provide the only illumination, but it's enough. O.K., so you're there. Outside there's a couple of long-haired teeny-boppers from Albany High. The store front window is full of the latest arrivals, and you can see the excitement in their eyes. Inside, the store is packed, and you can hear the music. The worst thing about business? Owners state they have to fight the compulsion not to give anything away. Man.

The worst thing about business? Owners state they have to fight the compulsion not to give anything away. Man. But worth it. Aunt Fanny's Garages the Improbable name of Albany's best, and they have a billion different kinds of Incense (all over priced), but worth it if you dig Incense.

Ath. Advisory Board Meets, Seeks New AAB Members

The 1967-1968 edition of Athletic Advisory Board held its first meeting of the year on Thursday, October 5, 1967. New members from Central Council included Pat Mohanna and Jim Klein and speaker Jim Window were introduced to the other members of the Board. There is still one junior position open and anyone interested in serving on the Board should fill out an application form in the Student Association Office by Tuesday, Oct. 10. Applicants will go through a screening process Wednesday, Oct. 11. The new member to be chosen that night. The Board meets Thursdays at 12:10 and anyone applying must have the period free. The Board also needs a junior to fill in for the three-quarter years in place of the current senior members who are student teaching. Anyone interested can fill out an application form or contact Don Oppedisano at the Student Association Office.

At present there are two faculty members serving on the Board. Dr. Werner asked for the possibility of increasing the number of faculty members to five due to the fact that many faculty are unable to attend due to outside commitments. The members thought that this would be very advantageous and names of possible members were passed on by Dr. Thomas.

Roy Leads X-Country Sweep, Albany Takes Top 10 Places

The Albany State Vikings led their sweep of the season with an impressive 15-run victory over Pittsfield, concluding the event at the Great Danes captured the first ten places in the meet. This victory was the second time that they have recorded a shutout against their opponents. Coach Roy was extremely happy with the team, yet he expressed some disappointment that his runners could not have bettered their previous years.

For instance, last year the first goal, goal posts were installed in the end zones of the League I field. This season, however, few changes have taken place in the league. The Phys Ed staff has been asked if they should be supplied for each League I football game. The answer has been no.

An investigation of the umpire's duties revealed that the official should be aided by officials hired by the league and be paid more than a dollar a game.

A rule has been added which will enable the AMIA to move the goal posts. The head of the league, a faculty member, has the request. The idea is to make the field longer.
