Statesmen Finish Schedule, Pratt Takes Finale 60-51

Ramblers Lose, EEP Leads Loop

Dors Unpaid KB, 19-15, leading KBO in Chicago. With only four games remaining at the upper end of the Loop, the eight-game lead that the Dorset held a month ago has been reduced to two games. Of the remaining eight games, only one, however, is at the home court. The Dorset have won four in a row, while the Rainiers have won three in a row.

Chilelli, Dingman Lead I-M Scoring

The final game of the evening at the College was a basketball game. The Rainiers, coached by Captain James, defeated the Dorset, 68-51, to finish the season on a high note. The Rainiers, led by Captain James, scored 25 points, while the Dorset scored 20 points. The game was a close one, with the Rainiers leading by only two points at halftime. The Rainiers then pulled away in the second half, scoring 23 points to the Dorset's 11 points.

The Rainiers, who had already clinched the championship, came out to play for pride and a good record. The Dorset, who had been building a winning streak, were determined to avoid a losing record. The game was a fast-paced one, with both teams playing strong defense. The Rainiers, however, had the upper hand, and they took the lead in the first half. The Dorset, who had been struggling to keep up, managed to tie the game in the second half. But the Rainiers, who had been playing well, were able to pull away and win the game.

The Rainiers, who had been playing well throughout the season, were able to put together a solid performance. The Dorset, who had been struggling, were able to keep up and match the Rainiers' performance. The game was a close one, with the Rainiers winning by only two points. The Rainiers, who had been building a winning streak, were able to keep things on track and secure their place at the top of the Loop.
