Lewis to Handle Publicity As Assistant to President; Replaces Dr. Carrino

This year has found many changes in our Administrative Office. One of the many people who has taken over new offices this year is Mr. James M. Lewis. He has been transferred from the English Department, where he has taught since 1958, to the Administrative Department where he is serving as Assistant to the President.

RKO Cleaners and Tailors

"A Little Finer - A Little More Careful"

ALL SOUTH CAMPUS STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE RKO CLEANERS AND TAILORS "Semi-Annual Open Day" on Wednesday, September 30th, from 9 A.M. to 12 P.M. This event will feature a special offer on dry cleaning and alterations, as well as demonstrations of the latest cleaning techniques. Attendees will have the opportunity to sample the services of RKO Cleaners and Tailors, who have been in operation since 1920, and to learn about the latest trends in dry cleaning and alterations. This is a great opportunity to find the best services for your needs and improve your appearance at the same time.
To Owe or Not 2.0

We are continually astounded by the "Flapper Period" attitudes that abound on this campus, particularly on the women's side. The prevailing idea that a "good time" should and must be had regardless of the price is a prime illustration of this attitude.

What is the basic reason for attending college? To obtain an education. So argue most of you! The rub comes in trying to determine how inclusive or exclusive that term education is. Although many of us interpret the term liberally to mean practically the board of Regents and society in general, we seem to have fixed upon the notion that education should have its prime focus upon the academic areas. Their interpretation does not exclude meeting and associating with new people outside of the classroom. Social experience and experiment are part of the college environment.

But we do have people who insist that the academic area should not be the primary focus. They press, or at least they try to in print, an emphasis on the social aspects of education to the exclusion of all others. If a man manages to gain an education and to stay there one semester (by no means an easy margin), he should be permitted the privilege of gaining a fraternity. Does joining a fraternity increase a person's standing in the world? Quite likely; but his motivation may increase, what happens to his opportuni­ty? An active fraternity member can answer that one.

Who experiences difficulties with his studies certainly cannot be foolish enough to believe that membership in a fraternity is going to really alleviate his difficulties in any way. With a little thought it can be realized that if the student can make up his mind that he will explain his position, the invitation will be extended again most sincerely. And the two reportedly mentioned able academic ground.

But back to the word "owe". If anyone thinks of a "owe" is, when he has a probationary status, he becomes a liability to his fraternity because he can fail at any time. He is not and should not be able to contribute much time and energy as he could if he were not straying under an extra study burden.

A real challenge and a measurement of satisfactory performance set by this college. Why then should the college, or any fraternity, be satisfied with less than this minimum? It is not open to debate that he explains his position, the invitation will be extended again most sincerely. And the two reportedly mentioned able academic ground.

East African student told of first college impressions. She said that the first thing she noticed was the cold weather. She said that she had never been to the United States before and that she was surprised to find that the people were so different. She said that she had never seen so many people before and that she was surprised to see so many different types of clothing. She said that she was also surprised to see so many different types of cars.

Freshmen: Think Before You Sign

The plot condensed into such a short time and so many events, it is surprising that the film is as well made as it is. The acting is good and the photography is excellent. However, the film is not as good as it could be. The story is weak and the ending is unsatisfactory. The film is not as good as it could be.

Spinning the Sports Wheel
by Bill Colgan
What are you going to do this weekend? Well, after participating in the usual Friday night extra-curricular activities, why not make the big effort and try extracting yourselves from bed to tomorrow's guaranteed-tennis tournament? Between State and Geneseo stands have been provided for those who will find standing difficult.

We have only one little reason for making this play—tomorrow just happens to be your soccer team's home opener. So, if you happen to love the neighborhood, or something like that, drop in. The door is always open.

The What We Did Now, we would like to relate a tale of wit and courage. Hardly two weeks ago, a cherry, rare—fresh from the 7-Eleven tree, all eager to write sports. He innocently went off to interview Coach Munsey. Little did he know... Well he made his interview and penned his story, "Wondering what you're going to do this weekend?"

Softball equipment, archery sets, medium and heavy weights for the tennis racquets ranging from the lightest to the heaviest, with large numbers of Cortland bikes available. These bikes are well gauged by a lack of smoothness, and tents, and a small amount of track equipment. Wednesday marked the opening of the freshman soccer season—a season which has shown some promise. The team will not win every game, but each game will show to some extent how much the price proved to be the price of the year.

As with any freshman team, this will eventually be bemoaned by a lack of experience among the players, some of whom play alongside each other. However, the team that wins by the end of the season will have the edge on the competition. The freshman soccer team on behalf of Coach Dick Wallman, Howard Haff, Marv Bacon will be the entered Harriers for State at Le Moyne. The eight man of the traveling squad, Paul Hohnin, will be assigned as an alternate.

Home Pulls Long Muscle
Paul Hornus, number one man, has pulled a long muscle and possibly broken a small bone in his knee. If X-rays prove this true it will mean the end for the entire season. As Mr. Munsey put it, "This isn't, if we hope him, definitely fed, but we've got good man to fill back in." Shipping into Hornus' shoes for at least two months, Bill Sill is one of the returning turnarounds and has been doing very well in practice despite his fatness.

Rally Tonight to Open Home Varsity Soccer Season!
State Meets Geneseo Booters Tomorrow Afternoon

State's soccer team will play its first home game of the year tomorrow on the College Playing Field against an unknown Geneseo squad. The Pedes opened their season at Adelphi last Saturday with a 3-2 victory, but Geneseo has not played this season. Tomorrow's contest will also mark the first of the season for both teams, as the Pedes are playing this year.

To build enthusiasm for tomorrow's game, a pep rally will be held at 7:30 p.m. on the College Field tonight. The rally will feature the traditional bands, and one of Coach Garce's a capella groups, "The Answer," will entertain.
