The New Albany High: Back to Drawing Boards

City, School Board, Architects, Accused For School Delays

Willard S. Haessig, a member of the three-member panel who studied the construction delays of the new Albany high school, has accused the architects of making a number of errors in the original plans. The architects, at the end of this year, have designed two buildings. The first building was abandoned because it was not feasible to construct it. The second building was not feasible because it was too expensive. The architects have suggested that the city hire a professional engineer to study the future progress of the school. The mayor has agreed to this suggestion.

Delays, Rising Risings For New Ghetto School

Another school in Albany, the new Ghetto High school, has experienced delays and rising costs. The original plans for the school were updated to the fall of 68. By the fall of 69, the building was completed. Mayor Corning, during a press conference last month, said that the building was completed on time and within budget. However, the mayor later admitted that the quality of the construction was not as good as expected.

Jews Stage Vigil

3500 in Attendance at Peak Poor Student Turnout Decided Legislative "Congratulations" Israel

It would appear that the problem of Jewish Jewry is not one that the representatives of SUNY's student body see as a Vietnam war with Ghetto Jews" said Paul Rabin, one of the hundreds of students who walked in front of the Capital for Jewish Jewry. Disagreement and anger characterized the activities at the State University of New York at the time of the Jewish Jewry. Orthodoxy. The majority of the students at the university had been asked to vote for the resolution supporting the state of Israel. The majority of the students had voted against the resolution.

Julian Bond, Stricken, Speeches Cancelled

AIDS activist, Julian Bond, was reported to be in critical condition on Wednesday night after he suffered from a heart attack. The Atlanta native, who was a prominent civil rights leader, was brought to Albany Medical Center Hospital after he was shot twice by an off-duty police officer. According to the hospital, the shooting occurred after Bond, who was a Vietnam War veteran, confronted the officer with a knife. The officer, identified as a New York State trooper, was responding to a report of a disturbance at Bond’s residence.

Two Students Arrested
On Drug Sale Charge

By Steve Sandt

Two students, both Quad residents, were arrested by State Police on drug-Me sale charges in Warren County. They were taken to Warren County Jail. The state troopers made the drug sale arrest in West Fort Ann. Police said they seized 500 grams of marijuana from the student's residence. The state troopers said the arrest was made after a search warrant was obtained. The warrant was based on information received from a confidential informant. The informant told the police that the student was involved in the drug trade. The police said they found the marijuana in the student's residence. The student was charged with third-degree felony drug sale and drug possession. Police said they also found a small amount of cocaine in the student's residence. The student was released on $5,000 bond and will appear in Warren County Court on April 23. The police said they were continuing their investigation and expected to make more arrests. They said they were also looking at other students who may have been involved in the drug trade. They said they hoped to make more arrests in the near future.
March!

On this day over the people of America have been called upon to shun "Disney" government-bred "Americanism" and show what America's best about this war. Tomorrow, in Washington, the National Student Association, thousands, millions, will demonstrate their feelings on the continuing "political confusion" in Asia.

Never in American history have so many people, so many students, come together, so eagerly, so consciously, so much against what the government is doing. Of course, several hundred Americans, as always, show much ignorance of what the people are thinking. Now is the time to make Dick Nixon up to the task. We've got to get over to Southeast Asia, and we've got to do it now.

Admittedly, it's a rough time to have to march on Washington, what with schools and the end of the year approaching. Remember, however, that if your time is precious, that of a Vietnamist is even more so; their life expectancy is a lot shorter.

If you are at all able, and show the people that are still against the war and will remember this information and die in 1972. For in the mind of Richard Nixon, there is no way, there is no dissent, there is no April 24.

Border Incident

To the Editor:

I just want to mention that one day in the spring of 1969, I was in Chiang Mai, Thailand. It was a very interesting place. We walked around the city, saw some strange animals, and had a great time. We also visited a few temples and saw some beautiful art.

AND THE WAR GOES ON...

by Al Senia

An ASP Column

It has taken some years, ten painfully long years, but people are finally beginning to glimpse the truth. Through leaked press briefings and extraordinary statements, through dissident statistics and sought-after facts, through word and action and legitimate approaches, the word "communism" appears more and more being equated with the American way of life.

Information is slowly most, always difficult to come by. When Laos was touched, a press blackout was imposed. Next came the imposition of a blackout on news of the blackest. Still, it did not keep the "secret" away and it has not kept the media from reporting facts of the leading North Vietnamese (or rather, American-sponsored) attacks on the heads of the Vietnamese. Several "undertake" (or "mobility maneuvers") but still the image of shaky South Vietnamese security and ordering on to the marching units of American helicopters to see the "enemy" remains embedded in the American consciousness. It is the image of a limitless army, each of being used as the enemy's fodder (by an insane little man named Richard M. Nixon) who happens, at this moment in time, to run the world's largest war machine.

Everyone is struggling to realize what the war means. For it has been corporatist America that dropped the napalm, corporate America that "advised" the mothers and children, corporate America that has made Laos the most bombed nation in the history of mankind. It has been the corporate America that has encouraged the intensive aerial spraying campaign that corporate America that has made Laos the most bombed nation in the history of mankind. It has been corporate America that has produced and guaranteed a steady water supply. The system had withstood the intensive aerial bombing campaign has failed. But it has succeeded in "wasted" the women and children, corporate America that has made Laos the most bombed nation in the history of mankind.

Tracksters 4-0; Squash Oneonta

by John Delhomme

Albany State Meet: Tracksters finished out another opponent Wednesday afternoon after their 100th straight win. Their latest victim was a competently organized squad, as evidenced by the final score: Albany 109, Oneonta 27.

The winning streak extends over three years now, and as the previous score would indicate, there seems no end to the Dynasty's destruction. Only a team equally strong, well coached and motivated could possibly compete on the era-preserving score.

A new school record was set by Phil Rodriguez in the 440 yds with a time of 48.1. Dan Van and Dan Sheeran went one-two in the 880 yds, while Van also won the Javelin. Other individual winners were Ollie Borden in the 100 yds, Jack Hill in the mile and 440, and Rod Moshenberg in the high jump and long jump.

By placing many finishers in the top three places, the Danes took a decided point lead in the meet. The meet was held in the rain, with heavy showers adding to the intensity of the competition.

State 9 Win; Quinn Throws Two Hitter

by Bob Minsk

This past Tuesday the Great Danes' baseball team came away with a hard-fought 9-2 victory over Niagara University with two home runs.

The gutsy performance was led by first baseman Kevin Quinn, who is batting at .375 in the top three places.

The game began with the Danes scoring two runs in the top of the first inning. They added three more runs in the second and fourth innings, and coasted the rest of the way to a decisive win.

Quinn's two-run home run in the third inning was the key hit of the game. He also drove in two runs with a single in the fifth inning.

The Danes' pitching was solid, with Quinn throwing a two-hitter. He allowed only two hits and struck out five batters in seven innings of work.

The victory improved the Danes' record to 9-2 on the season, and they are now tied for first place in the MAAC conference.

Zeke Speaks

by Robert Zmudka

The Albany Student Press was privileged to publish in Wednesday's issue a letter written by AMIA president, Peter Yager. In his letter, Yager expressed his concern over the deletion of AMIA from the daily newspaper.

Yager wrote that AMIA was a voice for the students and that its absence would be a loss to the university. He also stated that AMIA had the backing of the student body and that it would continue to fight for its rights.

The letter was written in response to a previous article in the Student Press that criticized AMIA for being a paternalistic organization.

Yager ended his letter by stating that AMIA would continue to fight for the rights of the students and that it would not be silenced.

Sailing Team Finishes First

The Albany Sailing Team triumphed at Morris College recently where it recorded first place and brought home a 1-2 doubleheader over the host team. The match was held on the Hudson River near Albany.

The Danes opened up at home and traveled to Marist College recently to compete in their second regatta of the spring season. They returned victorious with a 1-2 doubleheader.

The team captains agree to continue play; the latter condition is highly unlikely since the game in question followed immediately afterward. The time limit on this revised playing schedule was reduced to 30 minutes, so that the starting time for the first game was 1:30 p.m.

Furthermore, AMIA into complete, and the visiting team ITXOI was trailing. To give TXO another turn of the table, Bob Burhngame, for going into it.

The game was unearned as with the PE Building had accordingly announced that it would close at 6 p.m.

The next game was scheduled to take place at 7:30 p.m. The Danes and TXO club has been on the winning end of games that were called in identical spots.
