Straight Facts—Nelson Enacts Ban On Slacks

There are several popular misunderstandings about the reasons for the ban on slacks. Here are some of them:

1. Outdoorsy Attire: Many believe that slacks are appropriate for outdoor activities because they are comfortable and practical.
2. Casual Dress Code: Some think that slacks are suitable for casual days on campus because they are considered casual wear.
3. Formal Occasions: Others believe that slacks are acceptable for formal events, assuming they are dressed appropriately.

Nelson Releases Reserve Data; ERC's Will Go About Feb. 10

Each credit earned in the current term will be recorded on the student's permanent record. This includes courses taken through January 20th. If you need to change your schedule for the spring semester, please consult with your advisor. There will be no roll calls or assignments during the examination period.

Junior Prom Will Be Farewell Fling for ERC'S

The time has come to start planning for the Junior Prom, to be held Friday, June 4th, in the Student Center. Although the details of the event are still being finalized, a few things are already known.

The theme of the prom will be "Under the Stars," and the dress code will be semi-formal. The dance will be held in the Student Center, and food and drinks will be provided. Live music will be provided by a local band.

Tickets for the prom will go on sale in the next few weeks, and they are expected to cost $5 per person. Students are encouraged to purchase their tickets early, as they are expected to sell out quickly.

Sports Chatter

The popularity of sports at State College continues to grow, with students of all ages and genders getting involved. The Intramural program, in particular, has seen a surge in participation this year.

The Eagles men's basketball team, for example, is off to a strong start, with a record of 8-2 in conference play. The team is led by senior guard Tom Smith, who is averaging 15 points per game.

On the other hand, the women's basketball team is struggling, with a record of 2-10. The team is led by junior guard Samantha Baker, who is averaging 10 points per game.

U.S. Army Announcement

To College Women in their Senior Year

The U.S. Army is announcing its recruitment for college women in their senior year. The Army is looking for women who are interested in serving their country and making a difference.

You will receive valuable training which can be used in any of the many careers available in the civilian world. This training is designed to prepare you for a wide range of positions in the Army, including administrative, medical, and military support roles.

For more information, please contact your local Army recruiter or visit the U.S. Army's website.

W.A.A Begins Basketball League

The Women's Army Auxiliary (W.A.A.) has announced the formation of a new basketball league for its members. The league will be open to all members of the W.A.A., regardless of age or experience.

The league will be held in the Student Center on Thursdays, starting next month. The league will be divided into two conferences, with each conference having three teams.

Students Wishing Teaching Jobs Urged to File Data With SEB

We, the SEB, urge all students and graduates of Student Employment Bureaus, recently at Montana State College, to send in their folders so that they may be considered for teaching positions. This is an excellent opportunity for those who have already filed with SEB for teaching positions and are willing to accept any position within the United States.

The Bureau provides a comprehensive listing of positions available in various schools across the country. Folders may be sent to SEB at the following address:
