To the Editor:

The picture and scenic conditions accompanying the page 400 dollar bill, are the result of a series of actions taken by the 20th Century Fox studio to promote the release of their latest movie, "A Dream." The movie features the talents of leading actors and actresses, and includes a sequence set in a picturesque location. The studio has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the depiction of this location, and has taken into account the historical and cultural significance of the area.

The Editor responds:

Thank you for your detailed response. We appreciate the efforts made by the studio to ensure the accuracy of their depiction. The depiction of the location does indeed reflect the scenic beauty of the area. It is clear that much attention has been given to the details of the scene.

Sincerely yours,

How Bad Are You?

One of the cradles of this paper for the last year has been to find support for the decision of the last average meeting to drop Associated Women's candidates. The Wednesday before Christmas vacation, after Senate has passed an amendment to that, I accomplished that by this advice, the norm of the A. A. voted on the same subject. The motion was defeated amending the bill, the two-thirds vote necessary for passage was not reached.

All the facts present us with a number of facts about the Senate and A. A. First, Senate waited too long to pass the amendment. It would have had a net number of the system brought before Senate and defeated. Future times and amendment are a certain indication that unless the average was defeated or changed the candidates for President would have been elected by Senate at last notice. The advocates of 'let us give our new Constitution a fair trial' quickly changed them when it was as if it last year that qualification would be abolished.

And then the members of Student Association favored us. The defeat of the amendment can provide another opportunity. For a but a student that is supposed to represent himself in the interest of the Senate. The Senate voted the amendment unanimous name of one who was the sick, close, but a mile as good as a mile in our book. The Senate has recognized a practical disregard of the quelling an average of A. A. candidate, the rest of it, the student body obviously hasn't. Obviously it is the lack of confidence A. A. has to Senate. Considering that it A. willingness gave us enough power to this small governmental group, it doesn't seem that this proposal, as strongly supported by people, presumably in the know, was defeated by those few worthless endowed. If not strange, it is at best incongruous.

But the problem still remains as to who can and will run for Student Association, and how the result of the election will be. We are as anxious to see the ramifications of this amendment's defeat.

Look Here, Gang!

Before we leave thisvy-covered college there are a few questions which answers the student:

Will reserve Council give some report on the progress they have made so far on the premise of the students' recreation rights?

What score formula will be the new A. President if there is an advisory body to recommend? How efficiently without people thinking it is an attempt to usurp Student Association policy similar or the like voted on by the getting members to attend meetings?

Will the New Year be free of New Forms?

What will happen to teaching over closed-circuit television?

By how many points will we beat Siena tomorrow night?

Why couldn't we have a few days vacation between winter and spring?

Doddle Warburton ever find Amelia Bloomer?

Aren't you glad this is my last issue?

"What, what, what did the bell mean?" whispered Charlotte. "I think it was in front of me, but now it's behind me."

"The bell rings again!" cried Sarah. "What does it mean?"

"I don't know," said John. "But let's find out."

All In The Game:

Siena Showdown Saturday

After the past week's game, attention around State College is again directed toward one key, Beat Hams. Beat Hams especially high this season, coming off a 45-4 loss victory by the Petas and in view of the capabilities of the present slate against...

Starting Five

Such success will be counted heavily on their returners from last season when they faced the Indians at the Army amid tonight. Starting on the herbs will be Gary Holway, a halfback who has scored two touchdowns, Johnson, high scorer on the Utra victory on Rudder should again be a strong factor as will be the rebounding of Don Cohen which has been consistent as far this season.

According to the reports the team played one of its best games against Utah, running especially well on the last brown. Whether these tactics will be successful against Ohio is another story.

Siena Strong

The present Siena squad is also estimated to be somewhat stronger than that of last year. The height and re-onducing advantage which accorded the Peds last season has been reduced and the opinion is reported to have dashed a zone defense which may alter matters in itself.
