No amount of praise is too much for the work of Miss Futterer in producing "The Yellow Jacket" last Friday evening in the Albany High School auditorium. Besides directing the entire play, she was compelled at the last minute to interpret the leading character herself. Several persons had attempted this part, but no one capable sufficiently, so that one secured was not more suitable than the whole cast than had been evidenced before. Everyone has highly commended the beautiful stage pictures brought about by the magnificent costumes, elaborate stage properties and lighting effects. Much of the material was scored through the influence of Miss MacFarlane. Several members of the Fassett players aided in the make-up of the characters. After the play an informal party, which many "cats" were enjoyed by the members of the cast, ushers, and others who assisted in the production.

Now that we have dealt with the play as a whole, it is only fitting that we treat with each member of the cast separately, and give to them the personal recognition due to them. The biggest and pleasantest surprise of the evening was the appearance of Miss Agnes Futterer as the hero, Wu Hpo Gil, of the play. Her interpretation of the character was cleverly done. One thing that made Miss Futterer's acting delightful was due to the fact that she brought out the poetry of the lines and got over to her audience. Another member of the cast whose acting was exceptionally fine was Miss Laura MacFarlane. Everyone enjoyed listening to her lines, for her voice is so clear and musical. Lawrence Hill was the property man. From the moment he announced the opening of the play on the Chinese gong he had the audience interested and amused. His was surely a case where "actions speak louder than words." Mr. Hill was ably assisted by two assistant property men, Henry Lacey and Ralph Baker.

Lawrence MacAlmon acted the part of Wu Shi Yin, the pompous governor of the province, very admirably. He is undoubtedly one of the most amusing characters, and the result will be printed by the students.

The proposed constitution of the Student Board of Finance was read as a whole, and then re-read, except Article II, which was read separately. Articles I and II, concerning the membership of the board, were adopted as read. However, when Article III, concerning the meetings of the board, was read, there was much discussion. The proposed membership of the board was as follows:

Article III.—Membership.

Section 1. The board shall be composed of seven members, no one of whom shall be person who has voting power in any board drawing financial support from the student body. Five students, two to be elected from each of the upper classes. This was changed to read as follows:

Section one was tabled. Three faculty members elected by the students. This other sections were voted on in a special assembly this morning, and the results will be announced in next issue of the "News".

SUMMER SESSION

Summer Students to Hold Community Sing Every Monday Night Under Direction of Russell Carter

Among the recreational activities planned for the summer students at the State College for Teachers arc community sings which will take place every Monday evening at 8 o'clock and will be conducted by Russell Carter, director of the Albany Community Chorus. Special social features will be arranged for each play night during the summer season, which will open Monday, July 7. Prof. Harold W. Thomas will direct the organ recitals in the first Presbyterian church, Sunday afternoons, July 9, 16, 23, 30 and August 6, for the benefit of the students.

The administrative officers who will have charge of the summer season are: President A. B. Brunacher, Dean Harlan H. Horner, Clarissa J. Zimbel, financial secretary; Miss Alice L. Jewett, registrar, and M. E. Mary E. Cob, librarian. Russell Carter will direct the group. They will be on sale this week at the Y. W. table, so watch out for them!

CARD POSTS FOR SALE

There were a few souvenir postcards left from those on sale at the benefit of Miss Alice L. Jewett, last week. They will be on sale this week at the Y. W. table, so watch out for them!

The Student Body of the New York State College for Teachers, at Albany, New York.

THE NEWS
Vol. III May 29, 1919 No. 28

Don't spoil our record now, quite apropos just now. For once State College pep. Nothing has slackers. When it's impossible to do once started we won't need further suggestions were made, and a genuine interest in and a knowledge of were so glad to hear. At any rate, in the constitution of the Board of Finance, Friday morning in the proposed week's issue. Students actually got themselves on the results of the two lists of students published in last week's issue. Students actually got excited over something proposed later. After a most delightful opportunity to present the house with anything the subject was "Cuba." The talk was illustrated by lantern slides, showing picturesque streets lined with houses various "Spanish flags" (including green, blue, and yellow), and giving glimpses of the beautiful harbor of Havana guarded by its ancient fortress. Next year the club will be led by the following officers: President, Ethel Hane, '20; Vice-President, Elsie A. W. Hanbury, '20; Secretary, Ellen C. Donahue, '20; Treasurer, Katherine Collier, '21; Reporter, Ethel Hans, '20.

GO TO IT

We were delighted to see the interest displayed in assembly last Friday morning. It is a proper test of the proposition of the Board of Finance, and we are glad to see the initiative that is developing. It was the disposal of future money belonging to students we were voting upon. Perhaps this was the incentive for the "free speech" we were so glad to hear. At any rate, opinions were voiced, valuable suggestions were made, and a genuine interest in the knowledge of what was going on was evidenced.

The Pi Gamma seniors who are teaching in Milne High School this semester were at home to their friends on Thursday evening, May 20, from 4:00 to 5:00.

KEEP IT UP

Who said we wouldn't be glad when the next two weeks are over? Exams, this year, bring up rather formidable. Pros, seem to think they let us off pretty early first semester, so will repeat their efforts to flunk us all this time. We aren't worrying though; we trust to divine providence and last minute cramming to pull us through. That rainy weather has made us appreciate our little handy form of entertainment, and quite apropos just now. For once we don't have the right to say: Let's dig in and finish up with true Scotch spirit; we'll probably fail during this unusual year. Don't spoil our record now.

MUSIC CLUB

The results of Music club elections, May 26, are as follows:
President, Sarah Roody, '20; Vice-president, Alice E. Freyant, '20; Secretary-treasurer, Louise Pearson, '22.

G.A.A. PICNIC

Those of us who were looking forward to Saturday's picnic were naturally excited. For once State College pep! Nothing has slackers. When it's impossible to do once started we won't need further suggestions were made, and a genuine interest in and a knowledge of were so glad to hear. At any rate, in the constitution of the Board of Finance, Friday morning in the proposed week's issue. Students actually got themselves on the results of the two lists of students published in last week's issue. Students actually got excited over something proposed in a Friday morning assembly! It was the disposal of future money belonging to students we were voting upon. Perhaps this was the incentive for the "free speech" we were so glad to hear. At any rate, opinions were voiced, valuable suggestions were made, and a genuine interest in the knowledge of what was going on was evidenced. It's rather late in the year, perhaps, to encourage a continuation of this sort of thing. Next year, however, we've once started we won't need further moral direction. It's as if it should be students interested in student affairs.

FOURTH EDITION

The editors of the "News" have as their object the raising of the price of the subscription to $2.00. This will be effective as of the date of this announcement. A representative from each of the students graduated from the Home Economics Department will speak. These alumnae are eating out of various fields of work, their talks will be not only interesting to older alumnae but very beneficial to younger classes. It is hoped that a large number of the alumni will take advantage of this opportunity.

The Junior and Senior Cookery classes, under the direction of Miss Marie Buechler, have been holding observation trips to the General Electric Works in Schenectady, Thursday and Friday. The cafeteria there is a model of efficiency, over a thousand employees being served in ten minutes.

During the Educational Congress a number of people visited the House, and the house has been the scene of several social functions. Among the visitors were Miss Laura King, '18, spent the week-end of May 16, at the Hamilton College; Miss E. P. Garrison has accepted a position in America, N. Y., as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walker.

Kappa Nu Mouse, Saturday, May 21.

DELTA OMEGA

Florence Stubbs, '21, and a guest at the Chi Phi House, Colgate, for the Junior week-end.

Jeffrey B. Shaffer, '19, spent the week-end in Scotia as the guest of Leonard Walker, '20.

Delta entertained in honor of the alumni with a party at the House last Saturday evening. The guests were given by Alida P. Clubley, '21, and Mrs. Walker.

Cordelia Haight has accepted a position in Roslyn, N. Y.

DELTA OMEGA

Florence Stubbs, '21, and a guest at the Chi Phi House, Colgate, for the Junior week-end.

Jeffrey B. Shaffer, '19, spent the week-end in Scotia as the guest of Leonard Walker, '20.

Delta entertained in honor of the alumni with a party at the House last Saturday evening. The guests were given by Alida P. Clubley, '21, and Mrs. Walker.

Kappa Nu Fraternity

Theta is glad to welcome the link, the Western Reserve University, to the Kappa Nu Fraternity.

Brothers: Rosenberg, '19, and Robinson, '19, of Union college, upon their receiving the Phi Beta Kappa Key, were designated as Psi Key respectively.

Returning negro soldier to Library: "Well, old gal, if you all don't watch out, you gonna right about face."

Bringing up chilluns.

The part of the old philosopher and scholar, Dr. Hooker, was taken by Kenneth Holben, who did some good work. Last, but not least, comes Bev Susey Gang (Joseph Lasker), Lasker has taken part is almost every play given by the Dramatics club in the last three years and his acting has a high rating. The character he undero, to be personally was a hard one, but he succeeded in making the “purrveyor of hearts” a living person.

The success of this play, as has been said, was due to Miss Peters whose untiring efforts were amply rewarded in the best and biggest dramatic presentation ever given in State College.

SUMMER SESSION

Russell Carter, Miss Emma K. Pitts, Lormont, Hodge, Miss Corbo, L. Le Hard, Miss Thaddeus E. Miller, Miss Lela Warken Olson, Miss Laura Bost, Miss Ruth G. Moen and Miss Helen A. Sprout. Other faculty members are: Harriette Horner, director; C. A. Woodard, professor of biology, Dr. Ernst, L. Schoening, Professor Alice A. Walker, Professor A. W. Ridley, Professor Richardson R. Kirkland, Professor Marion S. Van Lew, Professor George M. York, Assistant Professor J. Floyd Simard, Assistant Professor George M. Connell, Assistant Professor Harold O. Thompson, Assistant Professor Charlotte Lock, Dr. Arthur W. Bell, Clarence Halley, Miss Esther K. Rafferty, Miss Agnes E. Futterer, Arthur C. Matlowy and Amonde Simonin.

SMILES

The Dishpan is Bigger.

Teacher: “Sometimes we keep on studying them in water-glass. How else could we store them?”

Small boy, after much consideration: “Maybe in a dishpan!”

Hopeless

Student—“There must be some mistake in my exam marking, don’t think I deserve an absolute zero.”

Professor—“Neither do I; but it is the lowest mark I am allowed to give.”

Safety First

“Mandy, what’s your baby doing over in that big piece of wood? etc, don’t you all know depo’ child’ll choke on it?”

Dinah, do you see de string tied round de pole?”

Depends on de pole’s the child’s too. If de pole’s big enough, he’ll de pole out. Ah reckon you’all don’t learn nothin’ bout bringin’ up chilluns.
