SA Contracts With Law Firm Questioned

by Bryan Holberg

SA law retained the law firm of Rosenblum and Leventhal for legal services for the past six years, but according to SA President Steve DiMeo, has never closely examined the quality of these services or the possible alternatives.

"We probably should check" if other law firms could offer a better deal on services or if complaints against Rosenblum and Leventhal are numerous and with merit, said DiMeo.

Such considerations have not played a role in a new report of the SA president who is now signing a contract with the law firm, according to form. Former SA officials contacted said no such review occurred.

"From time to time SA has interviewed other law firms," said Sandford Rosenblum, senior partner in the firm. Former SA officials contacted said no such interview occurred.

"The lawyer's code of professional responsibility for such holding for the SA reason," said Rosenblum, "but there's nothing to prevent SA from talking to other lawyers.

Rosenblum said the lawyer's responsibility for initial proceedings for all students arrested, "giving them out of jail and back to class as quickly as possible," free consultation for students on any matter involving two hours each Tuesday night in the SA office; advisory memos to SA upon the request of any of its officers; occasional special sessions with students on legal rights, including housing discrimination, jobs, etc.; full legal defense services to ten individuals such as EGP-SC will certify.

Rosenblum said he believes SA retains its firm for legal services by virtue of a reputation developed over the years in working with students and a developed repudiatory of experience.

Former SA President Pat Curran said in a memo to Rosenblum in May 1977 that "apparently their $30,000 up can now find its way into SA and Leventhal's pockets closed.

Central Council created the Health Safety and Law committee last year, it has had among its assignments to examine the Rosenblum Leventhal service and to consider alternatives to them. Use of suggestion, mimed text not available, was to use Albany Law School interns to provide some of the service which would reduce the retainee for, according to a former SA official.

Roger Markovits of Albany Union Tenants, a tenant counseling group, said "we would like to see competent law lurers work in a more positive fashion to get conditions changed. Now we have work in a more positive fashion - waiting for the problem to occur.

Rosenblum said "We deal on a non-bias or bias basis to effect change. Often we give advice in small claims court.

"Our position is to actually tell students what they should explore, what legal action they should take, upon student initiative," said Rosenblum. "They must come to us and we act within the framework of the law and legal standards. If we do not expect to be paid for it, it's not in the retainer contract," he said.

Markovits said "there's a big gray area in legal counseling. Rosenblum and Leventhal tell the safe thing to do. They've done their professional duty but it's not worth the ten grand.

Rosenblum said that through his firm's continued contract, a number of students have been helped which can be used to help students. He add" that "a powerful factor in our favor is dealing with whom you know, the firm knows how to deal efficiently with a large number of students."
Amnesty Program Blasted

Toronto (AP) — Nova Scotia's United Farmers of New England has charged that its amnesty program is a farce and is being used to help additional illegal immigrants from the United States.

The United Farmers of New England says it is being used to help additional illegal immigrants from the United States.

The amnesty program has come under fire in recent weeks as more and more illegal immigrants from the United States have been seeking refuge in the province.

Organizers of the program say it is designed to help illegal immigrants from the United States who are facing deportation and are seeking a way to remain in the country.

The program, which is run by the United Farmers of New England, provides legal assistance to illegal immigrants from the United States who are facing deportation.

The program is funded by donations from individuals and organizations.

The United Farmers of New England was founded in 1867 as a response to the potato famine in Ireland.

The organization's mission is to provide aid to those in need, particularly in the areas of food, clothing, and shelter.

Its current focus is on helping illegal immigrants from the United States.

The program is not without its critics.

Some argue that it is a form of amnesty and that it is helping illegal immigrants to stay in the country.

Others argue that it is necessary to help those who are facing deportation and need legal assistance.

Regardless of the arguments, the United Farmers of New England remains committed to helping illegal immigrants from the United States.

Their efforts continue to be met with both support and criticism as they work to provide aid to those in need.

Space Shuttle to Attempt Flight

PALMADALE, Calif. (AP) — The space shuttle Endeavour’s last flight — a half-circle, half-eclipse — is ready for a road trip to outer space in the spring of 1978.

The 500-ton delta-winged craft, designed to swoop back and forth from Earth to orbit for a few weeks, was launched in 1977. It would pull it at a steady five to nine miles an hour Monday to Edwards Air Force Base, 35 miles away.

The 125-feet-long orbiter will be joined by the 55-foot-tall tail fin and its crew of seven astronauts, who were expected to arrive aboard the space shuttle.

American Airlines is scheduled for July 21. The shuttle will be launched the next day.

The shuttle, which is primarily composed of test equipment, will be used to test various systems and procedures.

We think the ROTC program can help you

We think the ROTC program can help you no matter what your plans are after college.

We’re looking forward to an executive job using the skills you gained in college — including the leadership skills we learned in the ROTC program.

Talk about options. We can go directly into an executive job within a six month in our field starting at $10,000 as an officer; we could go graduate (or professional school) first, or on a subsidized basis later; or we could go into a civilian job and exercise our commission strictly part-time as a reserve officer (and supplement our civilian income about $1,500 a year to start).

The Siena ROTC program can help you get what you want to be. Call 783-2536 or stop by building O1 and talk about it.

PAUL VALADE, Calif. (AP) — The Shuttle’s last journey to the Space Shuttle Research Center at Edwards Air Force Base has been delayed because of a change in the approach and landing conditions.

The shuttle will attempt to make its first flight in a half-circle, half-eclipse, which means the orbiter will be the last flight in a series of test flights.

In order to save the shuttle, it will be launched by a rocket.

The shuttle was designed to be launched by a rocket. This is the first time a shuttle has been launched by a rocket. The shuttle will be launched on a test flight with a rocket. Sticks and Stones

If you live on the Albany campus, the Carrie Brownes do not roll. At least, not in the way one might imagine.

As of the middle of January, the alumni association has set up a new dormitory in the basement of the main building. The dormitory is designed to accommodate about 200 students, and it features two large dining halls, a gymnasium, and a library. The dormitory is open to all students, and it is staffed by a full-time faculty member.

The dormitory is part of a larger initiative by the city of Albany to encourage more people to live downtown. The city has also added new walking paths and bike racks to make it easier for people to get around.

The Carrie Brownes do not roll, but they do move. They move on wheels, and they are part of a larger trend of urban revitalization across the country. The trend is driven by the desire for a more sustainable and healthier lifestyle, and it is also a response to the changing demographics of our society. The city of Albany is taking the lead in this movement, and it is encouraging others to follow. The Carrie Brownes are a symbol of this change, and they are helping to make the city of Albany a more attractive place to live.

Juilliard String Quartet:

a masterpiece in music

The Juilliard String Quartet, with Robert Mann and Earl Carlin on the violins, Samuel Rhodes on the cello and Joel Krosnick on the viola, performed at Faye Hall Saturday night.

The Juilliard String Quartet is in residence at Faye Hall from February 12 through 16. This is the first time that a group performer has come here.

The Quartet's first selection, Schubert's "Quintet in B Major," "Quintet in F Major," was a brilliant beginning. The second movement, which was played with great beauty and grace, was followed by the first movement, which was played with great skill and precision.

The second selection was Beethoven's "Quartet in F Major." This was played with great intensity and beauty.

The third selection was Mozart's "Quartet in G Major," which was played with great precision and beauty.

The final selection was Schubert's "Quintet in B Major." This was played with great skill and beauty.

The Quartet's performance was a masterpiece in music. Their playing was flawless, and their interpretation was excellent. The audience was completely captivated by their performance. The Juilliard String Quartet is a true masterpiece in music.

SPARKY: Reds Won't Be '76 Sox

New York (AP) — Despite the habitual doom-and-gloom forecasts from the Sox's biggest fans, the Red Sox will make it through another Opening Day, but few expect them to win as many games as the Cleveland Indians, who swept the Sox in the World Series last year.

The Indians ended the Sox's season one game short of the World Series last year, winning 4-2. The Indians entered the World Series with a 72-88 record, but they won six of seven games against the Sox, including a 5-2 win in Game 7 at Fenway Park.

The Sox were favored to win the World Series, but the Indians won the first game of the series, 4-2. The Indians then won three straight games, 7-2, 5-2, and 5-2, to sweep the Sox.

The Sox were defeated by the Indians in seven games, but they were never truly out of contention. They were leading Game 5 4-2 in the third inning and 5-2 in the fifth inning before the Indians broke the game open with a three-run sixth inning.

Cagers Win Ninth; Breeze Over Ithaca, 71-58

by Mike Tuitek

It was not a very exciting contest, every-thing seemed to come a little too easy. And it was not too easy a win, the match played out in a manner that I was not expecting. But the win is in the books, and that’s all that matters. The 71-58 win over Ithaca Thursday night was the Great Danes sixth straight victory of the season, and the 15th straight for Allevy in his current role of head coach. The win was the second of the season for the Danes, who have defeated four of the first five teams in the conference.

Allevy had a strong performance for the Albany center Barry Cauwaha, who commented on the win, saying, “I am very happy with the way the game went. We scored early and often, which gave us the lead. The team played well in the second half, and our defense was successful.”

Cauwaha, who scored a career-high 25 points, said, “I am very happy with the way the game went. We scored early and often, which gave us the lead. The team played well in the second half, and our defense was successful.”

Meanwhile, without Cauwaha on the floor, the Danes were able to maintain their lead. Although the team shot only 37.3% from the floor, they were able to force 11 turnovers and out-rebound Ithaca by 19. The Danes’ defense held Ithaca to a season-low 58 points, while the Danes scored a season-high 71 points.

Pot Decriminalization May Pass This Year

by Bryan Helsberg

Marijuana decriminalization is a crucial step towards ending racism and ending imprisonment. With the approval of the Senate, we are one step closer to making marijuana legal in New York. While the Senate vote was a victory for the movement, there is still work to be done. The House of Representatives still needs to pass the bill, and Governor Kathy Hochul has yet to sign it.

Governor Hochul has been equivocal on the issue. However, her administration has been supportive of the movement and has taken steps to decriminalize marijuana in New York. It is clear that the Governor is in favor of the bill, and we expect her to sign it.

One of the key arguments against marijuana legalization is the fear of increased drug use. However, studies have shown that legalizing marijuana does not lead to increased drug use. In fact, it has been shown to reduce drug use and addiction.

Another argument against legalization is the concern about children. However, studies have shown that legalizing marijuana does not lead to increased use among children. In fact, it has been shown to reduce use among adults.

The bill has the support of a majority of New Yorkers, and it has the support of the majority of the New York Republican Party. It is clear that the bill has wide support and is ready to be signed into law.

Overall, legalizing marijuana in New York is a step towards ending racism and ending imprisonment. It is a step towards a fairer and more just society. We urge Governor Hochul to sign the bill and make history for New York.
