JARGON

By MINNE WARWAK

A GONE GIANT COMMANDER

Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech was on July 26, 1945, in his home at Warm Springs, Ga. It is the last speech he made after he was wounded in a hunting accident. His words were full of hope and realism. "I hope that this war will end the last war," he said. "And I hope that the world will come to know that only a great man could have been as close to the common people as Franklin Delano Roosevelt was."

WAR FRIENDS

"By SHIRLEY PAXSON"

The last of May and the first of June, our class had something extra. Our girlfriends and boyfriends, with all their finery, came to us and moved into the dormitory. They could talk to us and joke with us. We could all enjoy the same things together. We had a lot of fun and it was a wonderful time."

Delegates Report
On Conference
At Russell Sage

Northeastern Colleges
Send Representatives
To Leadership Meeting

To discuss methods of leadership, representatives from the colleges of Northeastern Pennsylvania gathered at Russell Sage College in Troy, N.Y., on April 11. The conference was organized by the Alliance of Northeastern College Women, with President John A. K. Baker of the College of the Albright Institute serving as chairman. The attendees included representatives from the colleges of the region, who discussed issues such as campus governance, faculty professional development, and student welfare. Following the meeting, the delegates were scheduled to travel to the College of the Albright Institute for a tour of its facilities. The conference concluded with a dinner at the college's dining hall, where attendees were able to enjoy the company of their colleagues and exchange ideas. The event was a success, with attendees returning home inspired to bring new ideas and approaches to their own institutions. The Alliance of Northeastern College Women is an organization dedicated to promoting leadership within the region's higher education institutions.

Committee Frames Major Changes In Constitution
Student Council Gain

Several important changes have been made to the constitution of the State student council. The first of these is the addition of a line that requires a two-thirds majority vote for any amendment of the constitution. This will make it more difficult to make changes in the constitution, but it will also make the constitution more stable and consistent. The second change is the addition of a section that requires a vote of the student council to be held before any change in the constitution can be made.

WAA Reports Varied Program

The women's activities organization has been working hard to plan a program for the upcoming spring semester. They have scheduled many fun and educational events, including a series of guest speakers, a film series, and a number of social activities.

Have You Decided How To Vote?

In the upcoming presidential election, there are three main candidates: the first is the incumbent president, the second is the challenger, and the third is a third party candidate. The incumbent president has been serving for the past four years and has the advantage of experience.

The challenger has been running for the past two years and has shown potential for change. The third party candidate is a newcomer to the race and has promised to bring new ideas to the table. It is important to research the candidates and their platforms before deciding how to vote.

Military Training Topic of Debate
In Lounge Today

The debate topic for today's military training debate is "Should the United States maintain a permanent military force?" The debate will be held in the lounge at 2:30 p.m. and is open to all students.

Final Nominees Listed For Voting

Students Will Select Class, College Officers

The final nominees for the student council elections have been released. The candidates include members of the freshman, junior, and senior classes, as well as members of the academic and athletic departments. The election will take place on November 8th, and the results will be announced on November 9th.

La moda Americana...Have a Coca-Cola

This advertisement promotes Coca-Cola as a popular beverage in America. The text mentions the "la moda Americana" or American style, and encourages people to enjoy Coca-Cola. The advertisement also includes a picture of a Coca-Cola bottle.

Religious Organizations Release Week's Plans

This advertisement announces the plans for the religious organizations week. The event will be held on November 10th, and will feature a variety of activities, including keynote speakers, musical performances, and a variety of workshops.

Sororities Elect Incoming Leaders

The sorority has elected new leaders for the upcoming academic year. The new leaders include a president, vice-president, and treasurer. The elections were held during the sorority's business meeting, and the results were announced on November 9th.

Peace Corps

The Peace Corps is a volunteer organization that sends volunteers to developing countries to work on various projects. The advertisement promotes the Peace Corps as a great opportunity for personal growth and global understanding.

Softball League Set Up By Class; Practice Today

State's baseball league has been set up by the Class of 1948. The class has organized a softball league and is holding tryouts for new players.

Have you heard about Joyce, fourth inning? Bolles was safe on a fielder's choice and scored when Hansen's throw was ruled a wild pitch. Weber was safe on a fielder's choice, but was forced by Sullivan's groundout to second.

State was held scoreless in the first four innings. Bolles was safe on an error at second, but was forced by Sullivan's ground-out.

State is now 5-2 on the season. The next game is against the Gamma Kappa team, which is 5-1 on the season.
