It isn't Too Late

Although November's the beginning of a final year, this month nevertheless finds us facing interesting adventures. It might be worthwhile to take a few minutes off and look back over these past three months and see what we've accomplished, to see if we can score at least one tangible achievement.

Let's let our imaginations run. The future things we may face will provide us with an opportunity to change the world—molding our future as we see fit. And then, it is quite the little thing to have.

In this regard, it is necessary that we give importance and because it's so typical of us to feel the importance of a situation AND BECOME ALL THIS. A whole lot of wishful thinking—too little, too late.

A LOT OF WISHFUL THINKING—we'd like to level the playing field and because it's so typical of us to feel the importance of a situation AND BECOME ALL THIS.

This system has proven to be very effective in boosting the morale of servicemen, as it allows them to receive letters and cards from home, keeping them connected to their loved ones and providing a sense of normalcy in the midst of war.
