SONORLESS SAUERSCNEN END AT 13-9, MORRISON PACE satellite victories

By Daniel V. D'Agostino

Led by Louie Morrison's shooting, rebounding, and play-making, the Albany State Great Dane basketball team ended the season on a happy note by winning its last two games of the season. The victories came in a thrilling 72-71 overtime victory over Robert on March 2 in an away contest and an 85-62 decision over Colgate in another away contest last Saturday night. Morrison finished the season with a 13-9 record with no zeroes on the final sheet.

In the Robert contest, horns while tallying with only 19 seconds left, was fouled and made five free throws to give the Danes the victory.

The game was tied at the half, but with 4.3 seconds left, Mike Doody scored two of his 20 points to give the Danes a two-point lead. With 13 seconds left, the Colonials' final effort was blocked by a low-passing Mike Doody.

In the Colgate contest, the Danes were led by Larry Marcus, who had 19. Marcus chipped in 15 points in the second half, including a game-high 11 rebounds. The Danes won the game 85-62.

The Danes will play again Saturday, March 18, in a trip to the University of New York at Albany to play the University of Rochester.

Residents of Albany Lack Pride Necessary To Prevent Degeneration

In many cases the people are unaware of what they call their town. These people have never been educated in the town or the city they live in. They are unaware of what is going on in the town or the city and they do not know what their town or city is about.

There is a movement parallel to this. This movement is trying to educate the people about what is going on in the town or the city. The people in the town or the city are being educated about what is going on in the town or the city.
