Knights Conquered By Fired-Up Danes
Two Last Quarter TD's Spearhead 28-27 Come-From-Behind Victory

by Bob Jeltes

ORLANDO, Fla. — The Albany State defense had been strong early, holding off the offense of the Knights. However, the Danes were unable to close the game out.

The Danes had a 14-7 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Albany State scored 17 points in the final 15 minutes to win 28-27.

Albany State's defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offensive line was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offense was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offensive line was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offense was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offensive line was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offense was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offensive line was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offense was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.

Albany State's offensive line was unable to hold off the Knight's defensive line, allowing 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss.

The Danes defense held the Knights to just 148 yards rushing and 171 yards passing. The Danes intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles.
World Capsules

Plane Crashes in Jordan

The U.S. military plane crashed two to five miles short of the runway at 1,400-man military exercises, was on its final approach, military authorities said. A U.S. Embassy barred both men from their union jobs. The Longshoremen's Association and president of their union positions by the Waterfront Commission refused to hear Scotto's appeal from lower-court decision.

Union Leader Convicted

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) Anthony Scotti, the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters president who was convicted of improper shipping by publishers, was also convicted of accepting $200,000 in cash payoffs from two waterfront union colleagues, Anthony Anastasio, was also convicted.

Long Face

SUNY—B Research on Ice

BURLINGTON, N.Y. (AP) State Senate Research Office performed an investigation into the state's public sector unions. The Senate released a report showing that public sector unions were spending a great deal of money on political campaigns.

Hero in Turkey

ISNANUS, Turkey (AP) Security forces initiated a manhunt for a man who was seen shooting at a group of Turkish soldiers. The soldier was killed, and the attacker fled.

SA To Aim For Coordination

by Christopher K

Executive plans for the SA to take over the campus radio station, WUSC. The plan is to have a more streamlined system that will allow for more coordination among the various student groups.

Follett to Throw Book at Crooks

By Mark Davis

Follett, the new owner of the John Crooks bookstore, has announced the opening of a new bookstore on the corner of Main and Elm. The bookstore will have a wide selection of books, including fiction, non-fiction, and children's books.

Nuts

UAS Net Income Over 200 Grand

Lawyer Robert Hager commends Karen Silkwood Day. Hager has been working on the Karen Silkwood case for several years, and he believes that the case is a victory for the cause of worker safety.

Buses to Make New Stops

By Doris H e

Buses are changing their routes to make new stops at Northern Blvd., Stein. This change is being made to accommodate the new businesses that have opened in the area.

Correction

The number of votes cast by the voters for the Irish Water vote was incorrectly announced to be 13,400. The correct number is 13,400. The estimate profit for the item, $1,400, is correct.

Humanities Coffeehouse

The Western Pennsylvania Action is a movement that is working to improve the conditions of workers. They have been organizing strikes and protests to demand better working conditions and wages.

...A Day of Action

Nurses, and students at SUNY Albany have organized a strike to demand better working conditions and higher wages. They have also organized a march to bring attention to their cause.

5 Days of Peace...

The Albany Peace Project is organizing a series of events to promote peace and understanding. The events include a peace march, a concert, and a discussion panel.

...A Day of Action

Nurses, and students at SUNY Albany have organized a strike to demand better working conditions and higher wages. They have also organized a march to bring attention to their cause.

Board Rate Increase Credited

Albany Student Press
Attention Fuerza Latina is having a General Assembly on November 17 at 7 p.m. in BIO 248

No Shortage of Nurses, Says Expert

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) The United States has no shortage of nurses, says Jerome Lysaught, an expert in the recruitment and retention of nurses, says Jerome Lysaught, a professor of education at State University of New York at Albany for Spring 1980.

Lysaught says the nation's nursing shortage is not as bad as people think, and that workers in supermarkets can produce more nurses who drop their posts and the United States has no shortage of nurses.

"In 1979, the average salary for nurses was $13,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.

"In 1980, the average salary for nurses was $14,000, and that's a lot of money," Lysaught said. "But nurses are still in short supply, and there's no guarantee that they'll stay in the profession.

"We don't do much to attract nurses, but we do a lot to retain them," he said. "We have to make sure they stay, and we do that by giving them a good salary, and we do that by giving them a good working environment.
Dear Rich,

I can't believe the turn of events.

The KE is moving back to the point of no return.

Michelangelo Antonioni
Vittorio De Sica
P.P. Pasolini
Federico Fellini

Mondays 5:45-8:05 pm
ITALIAN CIVILIZATION 315

language understanding.

students with no Italian

5:45 to 8:35 (ibid.)

FILMS ARE SHOWN IN THE ORIGINAL-WITH
IN ITALIAN CINEMA

ITALIAN CINEMA 318

TAUGHT IN ENGLISH
NO PREREQUISITES!

You Better ENJOY HHHHHH

WAVE
The Ways

November 14, 1980
Albany Student Press

Page Seven

The Subject Was Safety at Meeting of Feminists
by Nora Kirby

The Feminist Alliance held a meeting last Wednesday night in the large room on the second floor of the library.

The group also discussed the housing issue, which is about to get a phone call, according to Nora Kirby.

One student suggested trying to get a phone call. However, it was decided not to do anything about it.

There was a poor showing at almost every meeting of the Feminist Alliance.

The next Feminist Alliance meeting will be on November 19 at 5:00 p.m. in HU-133.

Gay - Lesbian Alliance Releases Findings of Sexual Harassment Poll
by Susan Milton

The group also discussed the housing issue, which is about to get a phone call, according to Nora Kirby.

One student suggested trying to get a phone call. However, it was decided not to do anything about it.

There was a poor showing at almost every meeting of the Feminist Alliance.

The next Feminist Alliance meeting will be on November 19 at 5:00 p.m. in HU-133.
Richmond Times-Dispatch reports that Security Pacific National Bank, which is among five major banks in the country, has been accused of discrimination. The bank is alleged to have charged black customers higher interest rates than white customers for similar loans. The bank has denied the charges, saying that any differences in interest rates are due to differences in credit risk. The charges are part of a wider movement among community groups to challenge what they see as discriminatory practices in the banking industry.
We Will Not Yield

To the Editor

We are opposed to the UCB Diamond and WDCA's latest move to bring the decision-making ability out of the student body to the Senate. The student body should, and does, have the responsibility of making the decisions that affect its own members. We feel that the Senate should not be involved in the decision-making process.

Furthermore, in the past the Senate has not, in the past, shown the ability to represent the student body. There have been many instances in which the Senate has made decisions that have not been accepted by the student body. This has led to a lack of trust in the Senate and has made the student body more resistant to the Senate's involvement in the decision-making process.

We believe that the Senate is not the appropriate body to make decisions that affect the student body. The student body should have the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

UCB & GBK

To the Editor

We cannot accept the idea of giving up our student voice and power. The possibility for student representation in the Senate will cease to exist if the decision-making ability is transferred to the Senate. The student body has the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

We believe that the Senate is not the appropriate body to make decisions that affect the student body. The student body should have the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Students on Senate

We Will Not Yield

To the Editor

We are opposed to the UCB Diamond and WDCA's latest move to bring the decision-making ability out of the student body to the Senate. The student body should, and does, have the responsibility of making the decisions that affect its own members. We feel that the Senate should not be involved in the decision-making process.

Furthermore, in the past the Senate has not, in the past, shown the ability to represent the student body. There have been many instances in which the Senate has made decisions that have not been accepted by the student body. This has led to a lack of trust in the Senate and has made the student body more resistant to the Senate's involvement in the decision-making process.

We believe that the Senate is not the appropriate body to make decisions that affect the student body. The student body should have the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

UCB & GBK

To the Editor

We cannot accept the idea of giving up our student voice and power. The possibility for student representation in the Senate will cease to exist if the decision-making ability is transferred to the Senate. The student body has the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

We believe that the Senate is not the appropriate body to make decisions that affect the student body. The student body should have the right to make its own decisions, and the Senate should not be allowed to interfere with this right.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Students on Senate
Seniors...
What's the best way to go to senior week for free?
WIN! The Class of '81 T-shirt design & slogan contest. Design a T-shirt or come up with a slogan for our senior year.

1st prize $25.00 value of senior week tickets
2nd prize $10.00 value of senior week tickets

Bring your entries to the SA office (CC110) Questions? Call Gary Schatzky or Frank Beilman at 7-8088

---

Are You Thinking Of A Career In Law?
Are you tired of waiting for a Pre-Law advisement appointment? The Pre-Law Association's Peer Advisement Office, in the rear of the 275, is now open on a walk-in basis, weekdays from 10am-4pm.

Use us...We can help
For further information call our office at 677-8982, or Chris Feng at 677-7702

---

INCREIBLE...
Just A Song
Sale ends Sunday 11-16

ALBANY
211 Central Ave.
434-0085

Schenectady
453 State St.
377-2802

Saratoga
446 Broadway
583-9814

Glens Falls
334 Glen St.
796-6055

Hours
Mon-Fri 10-9
Sat 10-6, Sun 12-5

---

The 90th Day

Ribbons Of Euphoria

The Student Notebook

---

TALKING HEADS
AC/DC
LITTLE JIMMY SWAGGATE
LET IT BE

---

A Freeze Dried Coffeehouse Reservations

FRI, NOV 14
HENWAYS U-Lounge
9pm

---

A Connoisseur Obscure

---

A Dining Critique of Chateau Waterbury

---

November 14, 1985

---

Sebastian Caldwell Spalding III
Religion — Organized and Not—Its Impact on Students

Campus Crusade for Christ: Open to outsiders

"Open to outsiders," said Campus Crusade President Fred Hitchcock, "for those who want to know more about Jesus Christ and will admit that it's the greatest movie ever made. We believe that God has a plan for every life and that He is the only one who can help us find it."

The group is designed for people who are involved in the political spectrum. "We're really growing," said Oberlander. "We try to do things that you can do in the world, not just for yourself."

The group lives vicariously through its students. "I have no religious training — I have been involved in the political spectrum."

The students in AEC share many of the spiritual Laws we have created. "I have been involved in the political spectrum."

Campus Crusade for Christ is not a religious organization. "We believe that God has a plan for every life and that He is the only one who can help us find it."
Muddy Waters Cranks The Blues

Muddy Waters, sporting a hard hat and playing a semi-acoustic guitar, was the very embodiment of blues music at the Capital District. He was one of the few blues musicians who had the courage to stand up for his own style and resist the pressure from producers to conform to the latest fashions. Muddy was known for his unique style, which combined elements of country blues with modern urban forms. It was through this synthesis that Muddy established himself as the earliest and most influential figure in the blues revival.

Muddy's early career started in the 1940s, when he formed his first band, the Muddy Waters Band. By the mid-1950s, Muddy had moved to Chicago, where he became a part of the vibrant blues scene. He recorded his first album, "Muddy Waters, The Man," in 1954, and it was a huge success. The album featured such classic tracks as "Mannish Boy," "Hoochie Coochie Man," and "I Can't Be Satisfied," which became instant classics.

In the 1960s, Chess Records wanted Muddy to make more commercial music, but Muddy remained true to his roots. He continued to record albums, such as "Muddy Waters at Newport," which brought a standing ovation at the famous blues festival. Muddy was ready to "get down to business," and he performed with a group of equally talented musicians, including Jimmy Reed, Elmore James, and T-Bone Walker.

The crowd at J.B. Scott's witnessed a musical masterpiece as Muddy Waters, sporting a new band and sending piercing looks into the audience, took the stage. His powerful voice and driving guitar played were a testament to his musical genius. Muddy's music was a fusion of country blues and rockabilly, and it was this blend that made him a true legend in the blues world.

Muddy Waters' music continues to inspire and influence musicians around the world. His legacy lives on, and his music will continue to be a source of inspiration for generations to come.
Fred the Bird

This Week

Music

Solution promoter: The Beach Boys
Junk Band: will be Docker Dick's back at seven. The first of the season, it'll be happening at 7, tonight just be a B.D.■

Nate's Bake
November 19

1st Place

Commendations

May 18

1st Place

A good Song

An Open Letter:

To the Editor:

The USAF is probably not ready to receive visitors from planet Earth. But it certainly isn't ready to receive visitors from planet Mars. The USAF has been working on this for a long time, but it has yet to produce a satisfactory result. The USAF is currently working on a project called "Project Mars," which is designed to land a spacecraft on Mars and conduct scientific experiments. The project is expected to take several years to complete, and it has already received a number of setbacks. The USAF is currently working with NASA on the project, and they hope to have a spacecraft ready for launch in the next few years. In the meantime, the USAF is conducting research on the effects of long-term space travel on human beings. They are also working on developing new technologies for protecting astronauts from the rigors of space travel. It is hoped that this research will eventually lead to the development of a spacecraft that can land safely on Mars and conduct scientific experiments. In the meantime, the USAF is still working on Project Mars, and they hope to have a spacecraft ready for launch in the next few years.
For Sale

Battle of the Bands Tonight

Futon, $50; couch, $50; fertilizer, $3; 1968 Buick Electra 225, $500; lawn furniture and umbrella with lights, $100; whiskey, $25; didgeridoo, $10; food storage container, $1; TV, $50; canvas, $25; 3 hand pumps, $5 each; 1000 lbs of dog food, $30; birkenstocks, $4.99; 2 wooden tables, $100 each; melon, $0.99; rugs, $20 each; 90's records, $1 each.

Services

Dentistry New Patients Welcome

Housing

Student Special

Wanted

Jobs

Overseas. Jobs for students, scientists, engineers, nurses.

Lost/Found

Call if you found a graduation card. 1982 (Block West of Fuller). Call 415-824-6000.

Personal

For Sale

October 28th, 1980

For Sale

Battle of the Bands Tonight

Futon, $50; couch, $50; fertilizer, $3; 1968 Buick Electra 225, $500; lawn furniture and umbrella with lights, $100; whiskey, $25; didgeridoo, $10; food storage container, $1; TV, $50; canvas, $25; 3 hand pumps, $5 each; 1000 lbs of dog food, $30; birkenstocks, $4.99; 2 wooden tables, $100 each; melon, $0.99; rugs, $20 each; 90's records, $1 each.

Services

Dentistry New Patients Welcome

Housing

Student Special

Wanted

Jobs

Overseas. Jobs for students, scientists, engineers, nurses.

Lost/Found

Call if you found a graduation card. 1982 (Block West of Fuller). Call 415-824-6000.

Personal

For Sale

October 28th, 1980

For Sale

Battle of the Bands Tonight

Futon, $50; couch, $50; fertilizer, $3; 1968 Buick Electra 225, $500; lawn furniture and umbrella with lights, $100; whiskey, $25; didgeridoo, $10; food storage container, $1; TV, $50; canvas, $25; 3 hand pumps, $5 each; 1000 lbs of dog food, $30; birkenstocks, $4.99; 2 wooden tables, $100 each; melon, $0.99; rugs, $20 each; 90's records, $1 each.
November 14, 1980

Jets And Giants In Same Division—Highly Unlikely

A draft for the National Football League ended today, one day before the start of college basketball season.

By JIM MCNEIL

The New York Jets and the New York Giants will be in the same division next season.

Both teams have been placed in the Eastern Division of the American Football Conference.

The NFL announced the divisional assignments today.

The 10 teams in the Eastern Division will play a round-robin schedule, with each team playing three games against each of the other nine teams in the division.

The Jets will play the Giants twice, once at home and once away.

The Giants and the Jets are both in the New York-Metropolitan area, and they will play each other twice a year.

The other teams in the Eastern Division are the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Cleveland Browns, the Miami Dolphins, the Buffalo Bills, the Atlanta Falcons, the Washington Redskins, the Philadelphia Eagles, and the Dallas Cowboys.

The NFL made the announcement today, and the teams were notified.

The announcement came after months of negotiations between the NFL and the players' union.

The NFL had threatened to start the season without a contract between the league and the players' union.

However, the two sides reached an agreement just before the start of the season, and the season began on time.

The divisional assignments were made as part of the negotiations.

The NFL has a total of 32 teams, divided into two conferences: the American Football Conference and the National Football Conference.

Each conference has 16 teams, divided into four divisions.

The teams in each division play a round-robin schedule, with each team playing three games against each of the other teams in the division.

The teams in each division compete for the divisional championship, and the winner of the divisional championship plays in the conference championship game.

The conference championship game is the first round of the playoffs, and the winner of the conference championship game goes on to the Super Bowl, which is the championship game of the National Football League.

The Jets and the Giants have been in the same division since the NFL was founded in 1920.

They have been in the same division for 60 years, and they have played each other twice a year since that time.

The two teams have a long history, and they have been rivals for many years.

The Jets and the Giants have played each other in

The Giants won both games, and they have been the more successful of the two teams in the NFL.

The Jets have been in the Super Bowl nine times, including the most recent game in 2009, but they have not won a Super Bowl since 1990.

The Giants have been in the Super Bowl 10 times, and they have won six of those games.

The two teams have a long and storied history, and they are expected to be one of the more dramatic rivalries in the NFL next season.

Danes Hope To Stay Over .500

Good morning.

A 2-0 start in the Big East is no laughing matter.

"We have to be very realistic in our approach to this season," said coach Gary Reynolds. "We have a good team, but we also have to be aware of our weaknesses."

The Danes have a tough schedule ahead, with games against... (insert list of opponents)

"We have to be prepared for every game," said senior linebacker John Collins. "Every game is important."

The Danes have a chance to prove their worth, but they must be focused and prepared. (insert quote from another player)

---

TASTE THE BEER THAT OUTSELLS MOLSON GOLDEN IN CANADA: LABATT'S

If you haven't noticed, Labatt's is the beer that outsells Molson Golden in Canada. And it's not just a matter of numbers.

"We have a great product," said marketing executive Jim Collins. "And we're committed to making sure that everyone knows it."

"It's a delicious beer," said regular customer John Vella. "And it's not just the taste, it's the tradition."

"I've been drinking Labatt's for years," said long-time fan Scott Byrd. "And I'm not going to change now."

For more information, visit your local Labatt's dealer. (insert contact information)

---

Chaykin's CPA Review at Hofstra

Chaykin's CPA Review is pleased to announce the release of their new SAT-DATGRE exam study guide.

"We've been working hard to create a guide that prepares students for the SAT-DATGRE exams," said Chaykin's director of studies, John Collins. "We believe this guide will be an important resource for students."

"I'm looking forward to using this guide," said student John Vella. "I feel confident that it will help me succeed."

For more information, visit Chaykin's website. (insert contact information)

---

Colonial Cleaners

Colonial Cleaners offers professional dry cleaning services. Call 456-1234 for a quote. (insert other contact information)

---

Albany Student Press

Danes Hope To Stay Over .500

Go Danes!
Sunny Thoughts From A Great Dane Weekend

On the Fourth floor — well, what could happen more exciting than right hand in the air! So, we were au:" the view from the Eastern window was in sight of the Dairy Queen. The Dairy Queen is a solemn and honest institution, representing the purity of the American way of life. It's the place where you can buy a combination of ice cream and soda in a small, clean, and efficient environment.

I didn't think I'd ever see a 220-pound football player get such a kick out of taking a snapshot with Winnie the Pooh.

And how many guys thought that the trip would be special. It was still a great day to be alive. Days were spent, but who cared? I had never seen anyone quite as happy as the other two.

I also can't remember the last time I'd been so amazed at watching the lights on the streets of Queens. N.Y. As it was

Performing Arts Center
North Albany 5
The harriers have struggled this season, but they will finish the last weekend strong. I hope. The harriers can finish the season strong against a tough conference. It's an award given by the world's best. It's an award given...
Sports

November 14, 1980

Danes Hope To Stay Over .500 Against Chiefs

Face 6-2 Springfield In Finale

By Bob Boppelow

Albany Athletic Director John Richaidson has said it all. Albany State football has been successful at 7-1, but they need a big game to stay over .500. If they lose, and hold their record at 7-2, it will be a long trip to the championship tournament. The

The volleyball team finished the year with a 23-5 record and takes U

“Moral” Vs. “Common Sense”

By Anne Harrar

Albany Mayor Eraslus Corning has said it all. Albany State football has been successful at 7-1, but they need a big game to stay over .500. If they lose, and hold their record at 7-2, it will be a long trip to the championship tournament. The

The volleyball team finished the year with a 23-5 record and takes U

OCA Holds Corning Call-in Day

Downtown Thefts Reported

By Andrew Carroll

Albany Mayor Eraslus Corning has said it all. Albany State football has been successful at 7-1, but they need a big game to stay over .500. If they lose, and hold their record at 7-2, it will be a long trip to the championship tournament. The

The volleyball team finished the year with a 23-5 record and takes U

Downtown Thefts Reported

By Andrew Carroll

Albany Mayor Eraslus Corning has said it all. Albany State football has been successful at 7-1, but they need a big game to stay over .500. If they lose, and hold their record at 7-2, it will be a long trip to the championship tournament. The

The volleyball team finished the year with a 23-5 record and takes U