A week ago today a challenge was hurled into a group of students. The challenge to the Class of '44 to assume with responsibility and in a spirit of leadership the goals and tasks of the world.

To work as a unit, to the above objective, to make the world a better place to live in, and for us, the responsibility of the Class of '44, is a responsibilities that belong to every individual and to every nation.

We have been given a tremendous burden, to be carried by the Class of '44. It is a heritage that we are given to us.

The tentatively fixed budget is a sum total of all the expenses of the State College News for the fiscal year 1944-1945. The figures are based upon the present information available and are subject to change at any time.

The following is a breakdown of the budget:
