Library Extends Hours For

Coming Finals Week

The library is extending its hours during the upcoming exam period, in order to accommodate the needs of students preparing for their exams.

Monday: 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Tuesday: 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Wednesday: 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Thursday: 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Friday: 8 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Saturday: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.
Sunday: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

These extended hours are in place from December 10 through December 22, in order to provide a comfortable study environment for students.

Policy Changed on S.A. Tax Waivers

The Student Assembly (S.A.) has revised its policy on tax waivers. The new policy changes, effective from the 1978-1979 academic year, include:
- Students must provide evidence of payment to the S.A. Office before they can receive a waiver.
- The waiver covers only tuition and fees, not room and board.

The changes are expected to ensure fairness and transparency in the waiver process.

National

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford defended his administration's energy policies and acknowledged the nation's economic problems, saying they were "broadly recognized and recognized as such by the American people."

In a speech to the nation, President Ford said, "We are determined to respond to the challenges we face, but we must do so with a realistic understanding of the problems we face."

The president's remarks came as the nation continues to grapple with the energy crisis, which has led to high inflation and rising prices.

Coastal Committee: Financial Aid Revision Proposed

The Coastal Committee has proposed a revision to the financial aid policies, to provide greater assistance to students in need.

The proposed changes include:
- Increasing grants and loans available to students
- Creating a new scholarship program for students with exceptional financial need
- streamlining the application process

The committee's proposal is expected to be discussed in the next meeting of the Student Senate.

Referendum Favors Impeachment

The results of the referendum on impeachment of the president were announced today. The motion to impeach the president received overwhelming support, with over 90% of the vote in favor.

The referendum was held to gauge public opinion on the president's actions and to determine whether impeachment proceedings should be initiated.

Pot Seized On Dutch

Customs agents in Amsterdam seized a large consignment of hashish and marijuana on a ship from Southeast Asia. The seizure, the largest in recent years, is estimated to be worth over $10 million.

The customs officials said they intercepted the shipment after obtaining a tip from an anonymous source.

The seizure is the latest in a series of drug seizures in the Netherlands, which has become a major transit point for drugs from Southeast Asia.

The Food Service Advisory Committee, which has already approved the installation of the computer system, "providing that it is used to maintain the present food contract rates down. Reduced overhead costs and keeping pace with eating trends, and, of course, a little bit of fun and games, were the reasons why the computer was manufactured by IBM, as designed to perform 16 cheque runs. Instead of the present hand-written method, the computer would automatically note the card's number, and its computer extension, the chef can enter the number of diners it served, a more accurate method.

The plan, approved by the F.S.A. and by the Faculty Board of Directors, is funded according to the number of meals it served, a more efficient billing and funding procedures. The Food Service Advisory Committee three weeks ago to investigate the growing division between Black and Puerto Rican students at SUNY. After that, the F.S.A. budget should be increased because it should be able to spend any money that is available for the investigation.

Albany Budget Passed
- Unanimously, of Course

by Glenn van Nostand
The public hearing room on the second floor of City Hall was very crowded. There were more than 50 spectators, while News reports of Albany's bond refunding last Monday morning. They were there to urge the Common Council to not approve the proposed municipal bond offerings, which would total $140 million.

Cooke asked them.

"Are you going to be wooden-headed marionettes?" Theresa Cooke asked the aldermen.

"I wonder if the budget was a broad-aunched, or if it was a broad-aunched, or if it was a broad-aunched, or if it was a broad-aunched, or if it was a broad-aunched, or if it was a broad-aunched, or if The 42-pbnt project is still only a hassle—ten years after the Constitution of Idaho went into effect, the laws that allowed the project to be built were still being debated. According to the environmentalists, the project would have a devastating impact on the surrounding area with acid rains and other environmental problems. The project would also require the construction of a new nuclear power plant, which would have to be built in the Eastern US report. The plant would be fed by coal from the Eastern US, and the coal would be strip mined in the Plains area. The plant would also use vast amounts of water, which would deplete the water resources in the surrounding area. The plant would also produce vast amounts of fly ash, which would be a major source of pollution. The plant would also have a serious impact on the safety of the surrounding area, as a catastrophic event could result in a massive release of radioactive materials into the environment. The project would also have a significant economic impact, as it would require a large investment in new infrastructure and would create hundreds of new jobs. The project would also have a significant impact on the local community, as it would be built near a large population center. The project would also have a significant impact on the surrounding area, as it would require the construction of new roads and infrastructure. The project would also have a significant impact on the environment, as it would contribute to climate change and other environmental problems.

Trial On Tenure

To the Editor:

The Albany budget allows $2,100 per year for the maintenance of each police car. No sane person would keep a car if it cost that much. The Albany police department has 126 cars, and the city of Albany's size. Syracuse, a city 76 times larger than Albany has only a $45 million budget, and Syracuse runs a zoo. An unreasonable budget was the city's only sin.

I found a remarkably similar teaching to finding someone whose signature on the records of the college is either illegible or nonexistent. Indeed, most people have not looked into the records of any college. The stories I heard are on record were never attended to by any professor. They were just passed in one desk to another until the person who was asked to record it was too busy.

Against a backlog of questions could be answered. They voted for the the maintenance of the police cars. It was what one would expect from a political initiate some reforms. But we were wrong. When I read the Albany budget, I thought it was part of a Manhattan phone book. With such listings as: "Labor, $450,000" and "Education, $1.5 million." I saw the possibility of the Mad Mad Man who's been through it, buying some through reasonable faith, could not see it. But I saw the price marked on a public, hand the address and telephone.

Tenure Atrophies

By W.R. Friedman

The Editor

It seems to me that once upon a time, the faculty at SUNYA was known for its tenure system, and the feeling that they would never lose their jobs. However, it seems that the system has been tarnished by the administrative decisions of our upper management.

The tenure system is a method of protecting the academic freedom of faculty members. It is designed to allow professors to conduct research and teach without fear of losing their jobs. However, recent decisions have led to concerns about the effectiveness of the system.

One of the issues is the administrative decisions that are made. The university administration has been criticized for making decisions that are not in the best interest of the faculty. This has led to concerns about the tenure system being used to control the faculty.

Another issue is the fact that the tenure system is not enforced consistently. Some faculty members have been denied tenure while others have been granted it. This has led to concerns about the fairness of the system.

The tenure system is an important part of the academic community, and it is important that it be protected. However, it is also important that the system be reviewed and improved to ensure that it is effective and fair.

Jewish Culture, presuming of course, they wish to use it. The following is a tale of the Hobbiton, whereupon it would be Hobbiton, there lived a young fellow named Bilbo Baggins. His home was a small, cozy cottage in the woods. He was a hobbit, a small, peaceful creature who enjoyed the simple pleasures of life. Bilbo had lived in Hobbiton for many years, and he was content with his life. However, he knew that someday he would have to leave his home and go on a journey.

One day, Bilbo was sitting outside his cottage, enjoying the peaceful sounds of nature. He was thinking about his life and how much he loved it. Suddenly, he noticed a group of hobbits coming towards him. They were carrying large bags and bundles, and they seemed to be heading towards Hobbiton. Bilbo was curious, so he asked them what they were doing.

"We're going on a journey," they replied. "It's called the Great Journey, and we're going to find a treasure.

Bilbo was intrigued, and he decided to join them. Together, they set out on a journey that would change their lives.

The journey was long and treacherous, but they persevered. They faced many challenges and克服ed many obstacles. However, the most difficult part of the journey was learning to work together as a team. Bilbo had to learn how to trust others and to rely on them.

Finally, after many months of travel, they arrived at their destination. They found a large, shiny chest filled with gold. Bilbo was amazed, and he realized that this was the treasure they had been searching for.

"We've found it!" he exclaimed. "This is the treasure we were looking for.

The other hobbits were delighted, and they started to divide the gold among themselves. However, Bilbo knew that this was not the right thing to do. He realized that the only true treasure was the experience of the journey and the bond between the hobbits.

"We should keep the gold for ourselves," he said. "It's not fair to take it from each other.

The other hobbits agreed, and they decided to keep the gold. However, they also decided to return to Hobbiton and share their story with their friends and family. They knew that others would be inspired by their journey, and they wanted to spread the message of unity and friendship.

So, Bilbo and the hobbits set out on a journey to share their story. They traveled to all parts of Middle-earth, telling the story of the Great Journey and the power of friendship. And so, the story of Bilbo Baggins and the Great Journey lived on, inspiring others to follow in his footsteps.

The Hobbiton Hobbits are back again, after the long-awaited release of "The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey". The film was a huge success, and it has renewed interest in the beloved book and its characters.

In honour of this new chapter in the Hobbit saga, the Albany Student Press is proud to present a special edition of "Of Thee We Sing". This edition features a new story about the Hobbiton hobbits, as they continue their journey and face new challenges.

Enjoy this special edition of "Of Thee We Sing" and join us on a journey of adventure and friendship.

Football Predictions

by Bob Bondiello

The Albany football team will be facing a strong team this Saturday when they travel to Williams College. The Bills have been on a winning streak, with only one loss this season. The game will be a tough one, but the Eagles are confident in their abilities.

Williams College

As for the Eagles, they are coming off a win against Union College last Saturday. Their defense was solid, holding the Dutchmen to just 1 point. The Eagles will need to replicate that performance against Williams.

Game Analysis

The key to this game will be the Eagles' ability to control the ball. If they can keep the ball and run up the score, they have a good chance of winning. On the other hand, if the Bills can get the ball in the hands of their high-scoring offense, it could be a different story.

Overall, this game will be a good test for both teams. The Eagles will have to prove they can play at the same level as the Bills, while the Bills will need to show they can maintain their winning streak.

Bedford Reflects on Soccer Season

Bedford Reflects on Soccer Season

by Kenneth Sabin

Although the season has come to an end, the Bedford soccer team still has a lot to look forward to. The team made it to the Sectional Round, which is a testament to their hard work and dedication.

The team's biggest achievement was the Sectional Round win against Saratoga Springs. It was a tough game, but the Eagles were able to pull through thanks to some great performances from the players.

Looking to the Future

The Eagles are excited about the future. With some new players added to the team, they believe they can take it further next season. The goal is to make it to the State Championship.

Bedford's young team proved that they are a force to be reckoned with. With some more experience, they could be a team to watch in the upcoming seasons.
Smith & Miller Spark Danes to Narrow Win

by Bruce Maggi

Bruce Miller's watch followed him into the closing minutes plus some one point margin. Miller's 22 points in the second half sparked the Albany team headed by assistant in revise History Tuesday night against Cortland College.

The Danes faced two different games. The first half was one of two official contests against the Danes who went 2-10 from the field. Miller, who finished with 22 points, was the star of the game. His first half was important in the way coach Bill Williams.

The defense proved to be very effective in the fourth quarter when the offense went right down to the wire. Bill Miller, along with Smith and Harry Johnson. The Danes had difficulty getting the ball into the paint. Miller's clutch followup on the line set the tone for the Danes offense and defense. Miller's clutch followed up with 34 seconds to go. He held the ball for a critical one and one situation. Miller's clutch followup on the line set the tone for the Danes offense and defense.
