Hail and Farewell

It is the end, and it is the beginning. Paradoxical as these words may be, they have a certain significance these days, when peaks come to a close, and others begin.

This world's labors are the harvest of the year, yet it is the first settled its entirety by the harvest. It has been

No Survey Exams For SS Students

There will be no examinations for academic courses at the close of the current semester. This change has been made in order to facilitate student participation in the coming fall semester of the United States armed service. It is hoped that more students will be able to attend the fall semester as a result of this decision.

Newman to Induct Officers Sunday

Newman Hall will hold its annual induction of officers Sunday afternoon. Officers for the coming year will be chosen and installed at this event.

Seniors, Sentenced to Life, View Happy Past and Hopeful Future

Graduation will bring the end to college life for many students. However, this does not mean the end of their educational journey. They will continue their studies in various fields.

A. S. Martin Reuse Song

"A. S. Martin Reuse Song" is a popular song about the utilization of resources. It encourages people to reuse and save for the future.

STATE LINKSMEN LOSE BY STRIKE

With high winds and driving rain greatly hampering play, the under-Dart State College squad could not match the着装（着装の）form, and the linksmen of State lost to Berk, City State, 2-6, in a return match played on the links of the 18th green of the Atlantic Municipal Golf Course.

Kiley, putting in a valiant bat back time, took the helm, tying his matching "B" with "C." They, flyer, moved into the lead two holes later with a double for two, but lost his advantage when Purcell parred the 14th and lopped the entire 15th with the shortest birdie of the match. This put the course for the rest of the match in a tie headline, spilling the match into a three-match period.

In the earlier engagements, Dave Griffin led little difficulties with the Bermann, depositing of the Bermener for 3 and 1, and Bob Seifcrt moved out 4, and John Ricker moved out 4, and 1, after having held only for the first nine holes. Griffin garnered three match points and Pickard two and one-half. Dave Griffin, with 8 to 7, and Peter Peavey and Alan Kerkes in 7.

STATE TENNIS TEAM TO FACE CORTLAND

Tomorrow State’s tennis squad will go to Cortland Normal on their home court in the final match for this season. Captain Rump Ramee is a member of the team, as are A. R. Mendenhall and M. R. Mendenhall.

The council has announced that a Freshman Ping-Pong Tournament will be held by Kappa Beta, Gene Guarino, for Sigma Tau, Bill Marsland, representing Kappa Delta, and Nathan R. Jacobs, for Sigma Lambda, have been named for the All-League team.

"It's not fair to leave the outcome in balance between this University and other competitors. In a repeat performance, College House won a 26-10 victory behind the hitting and pitching of O. R. Seifcrt.

The Ramblers, though not exactly pre-occupied with tennis must be commended for their play. They have presented few players or plays of this caliber, but have shown their potential.
