FRESHMAN QUINTET TRIMS RENSELDER

Varsity Holds Signal Practice, Preparing for Jamaica Teachers

FIRST GAME DECEMBER 5

The freshman basketball team Saturday night November 14, trimmed the Rensselaer High School quintet in the college gym, 14-12. It was the yearlings’ first game on home grounds, and they set the pace throughout the contest. Carr, versatile player of the freshs, was the individual star. His basket, in the last minute of play, won the game for the crib, and he scored on four other occasions making ten of the fourteen points for the young team. The senior class showed great weakness on the free throw line, missing twelve out of twelve. The ability of the high school boys in locating the basket on free tries kept them within striking distance till the final whistle.

First Game December 5

Monsieur Beaucaire

Presented by the Dramatics Club, Miss Futterer, instructor of dramatics, the cast of the play included students of a single line of its performance at the Vincentian Institute.

The play which has been selected is a comedy, “The Shoemaker That Danced,” by Anna Hempstsel, Branch, turntable for which was Wednesday night, November 16, starring Miss Futterer, “Dame Fere,” by Stanly Houdslien, director, player which succeeded ably afternoon, and “Tickled Time,” a farce by Susan Gaglee and Gearty Cram Cock.

FIRST GAME DECEMBER 5

The following committees have been organized: Homer, Louisa Cahn, chairman; Ruth Fennel, Helen Kranzler, Evelyn Hulbert, Marilyn Street, Marjorie Gilson, Edith Sutter, Marion Valisky, Margaret Sonley, Margaret Manley, Francis Mullin. Advertising, Bertha Zajam, chairman, Imme St. Sheu, Helen Dornan, Ruth Lemer, Helen Kline, Helen Hughey, Charles Rowan, chairmen; Helen Anson, Claude Carter, Helen Anson, chairmen.

Nine of the twelve members of Mykonianus, who were among those interviewed, chose the junior year as the one they prefer.

The chief reason given for the popularity of the junior year was that, by the year, the student has come to a real understanding of college life. As Mary Pathian said, “I like the junior year best. I think, because one is such an integral part of college activity in general. One knows the ropes, and his friendship with both seniors and juniors. Prom and Moving Day have a real educational value, and it is a main principle of Mr. S. P. Futterer’s argument that the end of college life is not rear enough to overshadow any joys one may experience and the beginning is forever behoov to be forgotten if it has behind any failures or disappointments.”
SENIORS LIKE THIRD YEAR IN COLLEGE BEST

In a few months the seniors will be teaching "on their own" what they have been taught. We wonder how they will handle it. Let's ask. See. There are three blunders they must not get to positions in the state schools. These blinks ask for almost everything under educational professional and academic career. Assistance will be Mrs. Clifford A. Woodard, Miss Minnie A. Perine, Miss Jane F. Fetterly, Miss Minnie Scott, Miss Hazel Ronesey, Miss Sophia Cohen, Miss Julia Davenport, Miss Mabel Fleming, Miss Ann Reikl and Miss Florence E. Whistle. The choice of subjects for special study selected by the chapter is as follows. One group for international relations and a second for child study. At this meeting Miss Marion Miller, assistant director of the Child Study Association of America will be addressing the group. There will be a social hour after which the child study group will be organized. All women graduates of State College are urged to attend the meeting and join the association at the close of this meeting.

BOOK-ENDS

CHRISTINA ALBERTA'S FATHER

By H. G. WELLS

Mr. Wells has written another thesis novel in his latest book, "Christina Alberta's Father." He has taken a topic of interest in the story of Sargon, the king of the Sumerian people, and the adventures of little Mr. Preemby, the explorer, which he has made the basis for this novel. The book is written in a simple and clear style, and the story is full of interest and excitement. It is a fine piece of detective work, and the characters are well drawn. The book is highly recommended for all readers.

FRENCH CLUB PLANS TO PRESENT PLAYS

The regular meeting of the French club was held Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Wells, president, in the club room. The meeting was for business purposes and members of the committee were present. Miss Mildred Hohman, chairman of the French club, announced the selection of the program for the meeting, and the committee took up the subject of the French department, concerning the selection of plays to be presented by the French students. The French department decided on the selection of three plays, which were to be presented by the French students. The three plays selected were "Le Comte de Monte Cristo," "La Dame aux Camelias," and "La Traviata." The students were enthusiastic about the selection and expressed their desire to perform the plays to the best of their ability.

NEW EXCUSE SYSTEM WORKING ADAPTABLELY, BRUBACHER SAYS

The new and much more stringent attendance rules which were put in effect this year are working "unsuitably well" and only a negligible proportion of the students show any desire to violate either the spirit or the letter of the rules, Dr. Brubacher, president, announced today.

Dr. Brubacher said the present excuse system which banishes all "exc" rules makes attendance at all classes obligatory except for unusual reasons, is based on the proposition that the attendance office takes the student's word for the reason of his absence. The per cent of those who do not attend classes has been cut very low, he said, and there is nothing to indicate that the rule is not working adequately.

STATE ALUMNI BRANCH ELECTS CABINET

The annual election of officers of the Eastern Branch Alumni association of the New York State College for Teachers was held recently, following a dinner in the cafeteria. The following members were chosen for the coming year: president, Miss Emily Belden, of Troy; vice-president, Miss Francis Francis; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, State College; corresponding secretary, Miss Anne O'Connell, Albany High School.

The retiring officers are: president, Miss Mary Wing, of Albany; vice-president, Mrs. Archibald Kighmey, of State College; recording secretary, Miss Mary Richborough, Saratoga Springs; business manager, Dr. Malcolm Harris, pastor of the Lutheran church, addressed the meeting. The talks was concluded with ideals and interests of teaching. Dr. T. Frederick Hendricks, music director of the college, was in charge of the music program.

MEMORAH HAS BANQUET

Menorah held its initiation banquet today in the cafeteria. In attendance were the faculty member, given an address of welcome to the freshmen. Stories given by the students were read by the following captains: Lorena Marcus, Mollie Totten, Morris Anspach and Bertha Bowers.

UNDERCLASSMEN LEAD
IN PAYING PROMPTLY

The appointed days for the collection of the student tax have passed, and the finance board reports that about twenty seven per cent of the students have not yet paid. The sophomores lead with eighty-one per cent; while the freshmen are a close second with eighty per cent of the members of the class handling tax tickets. The juniors are seventy-three per cent paid, and the seniors are lowest, sixty-six per cent of the members having paid. This is about on a par with the collections in earlier years.

Additional days will be set aside by the finance board for collection of the remaining tax.
