Include Auction, Dance To Aid Campus Campaign

(Continued from Page 1) College men, faculty, staff, "in the dormitories, fraternities, and the houses," are to participate in a "coordinated effort to get an early start on the Annual Campaign for DOLLARS." The sororities and the co-eds plan to "rally at 8 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 18, near theSorority House, where the group will be served refreshments and then tour the campus from house to house, "consoling the students for taking holidays during the half term break, and collect DOLLARS for the Annual Campaign." The theme for the evening will be "Take a Shilling, Buy a Smile." The proceeds will be used to support the Student Council, the International Student Organizations, and the Ethnic Organizations.

The Student Council has announced that the annual fund drive will begin on November 22, with a "Kick-Off Party" scheduled for that date. The party will be held at the Student Council House, located on the campus.

The Student Council has set a goal of raising $10,000 for the campaign. The funds will be used to support the Student Council, the International Student Organizations, and the Ethnic Organizations.

College Debaters To Face Vermont

When the Champlain College Debating team ran up to the first round of the National League, they expected to face only the nucleus of the national team in their round this winter. The Vermont team, however, proved to be the 'A' nucleus of the national team. The Champlain Debaters scored a hard fought 10-8 decision over the Vermont squad.

The Champlain Debaters are as follows: Mr. Robert R. Andrews, Mr. Charles H. Gruneisen, and Mr. John E. Landis. The Vermont Debaters are: Mr. William A. Galbraith, Mr. John C. H. Blaise, and Mr. Harry W. Titus. The Champlain Debate team is at present at the University of Vermont, where it will take part in a 3 game series with the 'A' nucleus of the national team.

The Vermont Debaters, under the coaching of Mr. George G. Burt, are considered to be the second highest team in the country. The Champlain Debaters, under the coaching of Mr. Edward E. Blaine, are the highest rated team in the state of New York.

The Champlain Debate team is expected to return to the University of Vermont sometime next week to complete the series with the national nucleus.
