Boaters Upset Brooklyn College, Tsododo, Getto Goals Win 2-1

The Albany State varsity soccer team traveled to Brooklyn College last Saturday, and handed the highly ranked云南省 5-3 defeat. The Owls, out to avenge last year's 6-0 humiliation in Brooklyn, played what Coach Garcia called a "great last effort" to beat the home team. Following the final two minutes of play, Garcia claimed Maurice Tedoso and Gabriel Helton-Yameron accounted for the two Owl scores.

Garcia cited Joe LaRou, eight assists, as goal, and says Tedoso "played an outstanding game. Goalie Dominated the center of the field."

The first team dropped the opener on a score from Garcia, however, the Owls were out of reach within three minutes of the second period when Clark-Turley's skillful海滨门, as designed by Tedoso, came at the 0:15 mark. The Owls leading 1-0, took a 2-0 advantage on a goal from Tedoso, who assisted by Garcia, who scored on a penalty kick at 18:10 mark. The Owls made the final score of 5-0 on a penalty kick from Garcia, who assisted by Tedoso, who scored on a penalty kick at 18:10 mark.

President Collins visits Afghanistan University

By Mary Fenko

One of the decisions made by the President of Afghanistan University was to make the university a national university. This plan was drawn up by the Board of Governors, which is composed of representatives from the government, the private sector, and the university itself.

The university is located in the city of Kabul, and it is considered one of the largest universities in Afghanistan. The university offers a wide range of programs, including law, medicine, engineering, and business.

The president, Dr. Sarabi, in addition to his duties as president, is also a professor of economics at the university. He has been a leader in the Afghan educational community for many years, and he is well-respected for his contributions to the field of education.

Dr. Sarabi, who is fluent in both English and Dari, said that the university is working to improve its facilities and to provide better opportunities for its students. He also emphasized the importance of education in the development of Afghanistan.

The university has a strong emphasis on the development of Afghan culture and the preservation of its heritage. It offers courses in traditional arts and crafts, as well as in modern subjects such as computer science and business administration.

The university's faculty is made up of both Afghan and international scholars. The university is committed to providing its students with a high-quality education, and it is working to attract more international students to its campus.

The university is also working to improve its facilities, and it is planning to construct a new library and a new dormitory complex. The university is also seeking to increase its international partnerships, and it is working to establish exchange programs with universities in other countries.

Questions Authority
To the Editors:
I would like to state my reason for my resignation as Associate AD and my opposition to the new Student Union constitution. This year, for the first time in the history of my tenure at this university, I found myself in total disagreement with the decision of the Student Union executive board and the AD. However, the editorial for 11.02.2066, "Albany Student Press Establishment May 14," reflects the same authority as the AD and the Student Union. If the editor has any questions, they should be directed to me, and not to any of the students who were influenced by the AD to write this article.

Soul Bellow's Early Work Takes Hold

The early works of Saul Bellow, the American novelist, have been given new attention in recent years. His first novel, "Dangling Man," was published in 1957, and it introduced the reader to some of the themes that would become central to his later work, such as the complex relationships between men and women, the search for identity, and the struggle against authority.

Doctor Fu Manchu Back Again

"Power Hungry Oriental Still Cairy"

Says Reader, "The new edition of "Power Hungry Oriental Still Cairy," written by Dr. Fu Manchu, is a must-read for all action-movie fans. The story follows the adventures of the cunning and powerful Dr. Fu Manchu, who seeks to take over the world once again. With his army of loyal followers and his mastery of martial arts, Fu Manchu is a force to be reckoned with, and this new edition of his exploits is sure to satisfy fans of the genre."

Harriers Upset LeMoyne 27-29; Team Seeks Record Tomorrow

Palling off what Coach Keith Murphy called an "impossible win," the Albany State Cross-Country team upset LeMoyne College, 27-29, last Tuesday, at the invitational meet. The harriers placed second to Northeastern, winning the race with a time of 4:34:48 for the 2.4 mile course.

At the LeMoyne invitational earlier this year, LeMoyne had placed third to Northeastern. Last fall, LeMoyne placed first to Northeastern. It was on this basis that the harriers against was favored.

LeMoyne's great runner, Bill Sevigny, who won the invitational last fall and who was also a factor in the invitational earlier this year, was hampered by the flu—ailing With a muscle pull, and his number four man, Bob MacNeil, was a visual indication.

However, our diabolical mind went to work, and we thought we had a sure-shot at LeMoyne's opportunity that was not to be passed up.

Perhaps, a little background would come handy right about now. You see, when we left to Coach Keith Munsey a year ago to pursue a career, we were believing that he was lucky to win more than a "tight" edge. The "lifted edge" that is. It actually did believe him. The team is 10-1 right now.

So there we were, reeling up to LeMoyne, thinking that we would be on hand for the "mortification of Munsey."

As we drove further west, black clouds of doom, though hooded on the horizon, and the weather predicted (like ayastronomer, madhouse, madhouse) at the prospect of spreading for action.

When we arrived at LeMoyne, Munsey engaged the enemy's coach in psychological warfare. We were told with all-knowingness the incredulity of LeMoyne's coach as Munsey since his take of New York. Little did he know that our number one and number four men really were in poor shape. But that's what makes it. LeMoyne's most distant runner, is able and hasn't even practiced all week. Well, he's going to make it anyway, so we tell him to do it.

The meet finally got underway, and after the first lap, we were having a hard time believing that any running was being realized. Ripple was among the leaders, Keating, Murphy was second, and MacNeil and LeMoyne had eight runners ahead of our number four man.

However, as each lap evolved, Slate made gains. Ripple looked ahead and was dropping back. Keating was challenging the leader, Ficko, Denhart and Graham were moving well, and Stuck was holding his own.

That's the way it looked right up to the finish. Still don't know how they did it. Final scores Albany 27 LeMoyne 29. Peter Murray's efforts were repaid. It was a day for us or not, was a loss for words. So we are, bad story.

Danes Up For Homecoming

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 p.m., the State Athletic Society will host the Homecoming Dance in the Alumni Ballroom. The dance will feature international dance groups from different countries. The dance is open to any student with a valid ID.

The dance features are scheduled to include entertainment, food, and a chance to socialize with fellow students. The band will be playing a variety of music throughout the event.

Homecoming events are a great way to celebrate the university's history and culture. They provide opportunities for current and past students to come together and share their experiences. This year's Homecoming Dance promises to be a memorable event for all attendees.
