STAFFORD, CANDIDATE FOR QUEEN, DESIRES TO BE COLLEGE DEAN

By Roscoe Lamb

The four candidates for Queen of the Spanish Carnival, each of whom represents a class of the college, are in the running at the time of this writing. Of the four classes which are necessary for such a candidacy—two are being held, and two must be held, and one will be held. The candidates are Ruth Kelley, 28; Anne Stafford, 28; Helen Harper, 28; and Helen Henders, 28.

Ruth Kelley, the candidate from the junior class, is representative of Phi Gamma Delta, and is in the running. During her four years in college, she was chosen as the class president of a number of organizations in which she took an active part both as one of the "principal" persons and as director. A female student is a member of the National Society. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Sigma sorority, is a member of the Student Body, and is a member of the Student Council, and is a member of the Student Government Association. My ambition, and Miss Stafford with Miss Kelley, is to be a Dean of State, and Miss Hare, is to be a Dean of State.

The other candidates in the running are: Elizabeth Williams, 28; Dorothy Gale, 28; and Dorothy Stoddard, 28. Elizabeth Williams is a member of the Delta Gamma, and has the reputation of being a very clever girl. Dorothy Gale is a member of the Delta Delta Delta, and has the reputation of being a very clever girl. Dorothy Stoddard is a member of the Delta Zeta, and has the reputation of being a very clever girl.

The candidate from the senior class is the candidate from the sophomore class, and is in the running. She is in the running for the Presidency, which is the most important office in the college. She is a member of the Student Government Association, and has the reputation of being a very clever girl.

FRESNO ROME, Katharine, teacher of English at the University of California, and in charge of the experimental study of education, is in the running. She has the reputation of being a very clever girl.

Don Box, 28, student at the University of California, and in charge of the experimental study of education, is in the running. He has the reputation of being a very clever girl.
