What a shock the whole world had, when they heard that the Three Kings had been planning for their trip to the Little Town of Bethlehem. No one could have seen the Three Kings' iq's, and yet they had planned their trip for years. This is the story of the Three Kings, and how they came to visit the Little Town of Bethlehem.

Food for Thought

The Three Kings had been planning for their trip to the Little Town of Bethlehem for years. They had been thinking about what they would do when they got there, and how they would make sure that they had a good time. They had been thinking about what they would eat, and how they would make sure that they had enough to eat. They had been thinking about what they would do with the time they had, and how they would make sure that they had enough time to do everything they wanted to do.
