Niagara Wins Thrilling Game

State College Leads up to Final Minute

Score 20 : 18

On Monday night, January 8th, the State College basketball team suffered a defeat at the hands of Niagara University by the score of 18 to 20 in one of the hardest fought games ever seen in Albany.

The game was an exhibition of clever fighting machine-like teamwork, and fighting determination to win, on the part of both teams.

The opposing "five," will live long in the memories of the lovers of the sport.

Never before was such a brilliant spectacle enacted on the high school court. Throughout the struggle of the game, a single dull moment. The spectators, of which it seemed nearly seven hundred were present, were thrilled by the brilliant work on both sides.

The gymnasium was literally packed; no ticket seller was to be found at the door. The Niagara men had a considerable advantage in the stand, but the presence of the student body was not wanting.

The game was started by the Niagara five, but State College led the game up to the first few minutes of the struggle there was not a dull moment. The spectators were thrilled by the skill and subtlety of State College work, and the clever lighting machine-like equipment.

The first score of the game was made by the Niagara five, but in the second half of the game, State College led the game up to the last few minutes. The score was 10-10, and the game was a close one.

The game was played as if the lives of the players were at stake. The Niagara men had a good number of loyal supporters, even if they were a bit rough and unreasonable. RESIGNATION OF JESSE SMITH.

It is with regret that we announce the resignation of Benn Swift from the board of Editors. Mr. Smith, in his connection with the "State College News," was a very congenial colleague and an enthusiastic worker. We had hoped to be able to retain his advice and assistance, but since part of his work was objected to by some, he feels that he and we shall have to separate. We hope that he will return and, if his services are needed, to try to be more conciliatory.

SHOW MORE COURTESY AND GOOD WILL.

A frequent criticism of State College advanced by students who come to us from other higher institutions of learning is, that there seems to be, in general, an unnatural reserve manifested by the faculty toward the students. Instead of an appearance of friendliness, there is an air of aloofness which all too plainly speaks: "These are the terrors with which we labor." When faculty members and students meet in the halls or upon the street, there is, in most cases, either no exchange of greetings at all, or an exchange of a cordial "Good Morning." Try it! Shake off this pseudo dignity which is closely akin to snobbery, come down to earth, and be at home with your fellows. Remember that you are going out into a profession where self-interest must largely be abandoned. The amount of courtesy and good will that you carry about with you will count for much.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dear Sir—

It is with regret that I have noted the discontinuance of the Komick Kolyum of the "College News." There were many lines in the column that were well worth their place in our paper. It is well, I think, to have something of the nature of the Komick Kolyum.

I do not feel that I would ask that the personal knocks and reference of the type which have been used should be continued; but I know that Benn Swift is resourceful enough in that line to give us a column once a week with something in it that is breezy and worthy of his effort as well as our time.

I hope that the management will find it possible to reinstate Benn Swift in his royal sanctum sanctorum and give us the College Kolyum once more.

Yours for S. C. T. and the "College News."

JUNIOR.

We are making use of the invitation given to students to express in the "College News" their opinion concerning the proposed tax. While we are greatly in favor of this tax, we see no reason for so exorbitant a fee. This tax, as we understand, was to cover the "College News," the Echo, and the basket ball games played on the home court. During the present scholastic year there will be played seven games on the home court. The price to college students for each game is twenty-five cents except that with Colgate, which is thirty-five cents. At this rate a total of one dollar and eighty-five cents would be amassed. The price of the "Echo" is one dollar and that of the "College News" is one dollar and a half. The sum of these three College activities is four dollars and thirty-five cents.

In view of the fact that many who attend State College are hard pressed financially, why not reduce this tax to five dollars, which seems to cover the required amount. The total of the three College activities mentioned above is four dollars and thirty-five cents. This amount subtracted from five dollars leaves a balance of sixty-five cents from each student. If this balance is devoted to the Coach Fund, a total of five hundred and eighty-five dollars would be the result of the tax on nine hundred students. If the student body of a State institution has enough money to give to the financial executives of that State to be generous enough to supply the needed balance?

We, a Senior and a Soph, have expressed our opinions concerning this important phase of our College life. Won't some fellow student tell us his view?

ulty. President Hager the Freshmen, St. Lawrence, brought hope to all close observers of the game, for a decided improvement in the work of the team could be noticed. Coach Wachler tried different combinations. One, with two Fitzgeralds as forwards, Goewey at center, and Jones and Miller as guards, seemed to work best.

The score:

STATE COLLEGE HOLDS ST. LAWRENCE TO CLOSE SCORE.

The State College five met with defeat at the hands of St. Lawrence quintet in a very fast and exciting game played on Wednesday evening, December 20th, in the Albany High School gymnasium. It was the third game of the season and the third defeat for the Purple and Gold. This, however, is in no means a disgrace nor should it be a disappointment to anybody, for it must be considered that three of the strongest teams in the State have been met. The game with St. Lawrence brought hope to all close observers of the game, for a decided improvement in the work of the team could be noticed. Coach Wachler tried different combinations. One, with two Fitzgeralds as forwards, Goewey at center, and Jones and Miller as guards, seemed to work best.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS.

The "Pedagogue" photo editors will be in the main hall on Wednesday, January 17th and Friday, January 19th, to receive snap shots and all other pictures suitable for the album of the "Pedagogue." All pictures should be handed in at once.

SPANISH CLUB.

The Spanish Club held an enjoyable Christmas meeting on December 18. The constitution was read for the benefit of the new members. Miss Smith read an interesting paper on "Christmas in Spain" and Miss Forte gave a recitation, "A Christmas Carol."

PROMETHEAN.

Last Thursday evening the Promethean Society held a Kipling meeting. After a short business session the following program was enjoyed: Vocal solo by Miss Amy Shukley, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Bane; reading by Miss Euretta Avery; vocal solo by Kolin Hager, accompanied by Miss Lois Knox, and an impressive rendering of "Boots" by Jack Harwich.

H. E. NOTES.

All H. E. students are requested to bring in books belonging in the H. E. library by next week. Because of carelessness, some books are missing. A librarian will be appointed from the students to take charge for about two hours a semester. A new book of interest is "Clothing for Women," by L. J. Bald.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE — FIRST SEMESTER 1917.

Unless a course be scheduled by name the examination in that course will be given according to the hour of recitation.
