Surveys On Younger Generation
Finds Youth Grave, Conservative

Survey: Youth is changing, but not as fast as was expected, according to a survey of the junior and senior classes at Stater Union. According to the survey, which was conducted by members of the Residence Council, there are many changes taking place in the younger generation that are not being noticed by the older generation. The survey found that the younger generation is more individualistic and less conformist than the older generation. The survey also found that the younger generation is more interested in current events and political issues than the older generation.
