STATE WINS FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Purple and Gold Team to Meet John Marshall Law School Tomorrow at 8:15

By KEVIN B. MILLER

The state college varsity squad will take the court tomorrow at 8:15 to face John Marshall Law School. The game will be played in the student center and is open to the public.

The game is expected to be a close contest, with both teams playing hard and pushing for victory. The Purple and Gold team has been practicing diligently and is looking forward to the challenge.

STATE COLLEGE STUDENT TO SPEAK AT 11:10

Wendy to Talk on Union Activities; Students to Elect N.S.F.A. Delegates

Union college student activities, from a student's viewpoint, will be presented in the assembly this morning at 11:10 in the auditorium of Four Hall when Wendy, a senior, is nominated to speak on student activities. Wendy, who is prominent in student activities at Union, will speak to the members of the student association, Israel Stream, and the senior class.

Wendy is a member of Terrace council at Union, a senior council representative to the National Student Federation of North America, a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon council, and a member of the sophomore council.

STATE COLLEGE STUDENTS TO HAVE DINNER TUESDAY

Frances Keller to be General Chairman for First 32 Class Affair

The first-class dinner of the year will be conducted in the cafeteria Tuesday at 6:30 o'clock. Dorothy Hall, president of the class, announced today. The general chairman for the dinner will be Frances Keller.

Dr. George Wiley. Assistant dean, is in charge of the dinner. Miss Hall said:

"The enthusiasm of the dinner party is owed to the efforts of the class, and the concluding touches of the meal are to be added by the college administration."
"BUMPY" ADVERTISING

The efforts of ambitious advertisers to bring to the attention of the student body the facts that there are some opportunities that lie in a certain college, and to make the best of the chances of the campus conversation and should be encouraged, by the body without

Large and ornamental posters hang in great profusion. They are used to advertise events and seats. They are displayed from the air for a cord stretched between two points. Despite the noise of large crowds, and the students who look for them, more than average must come here after passing by this enormous notice.

The commission has a duty to perform; it should

PEOPLE WITH "TAKING" WAYS

Much is heard about people with "taking" ways these days. One person, definitely afflicted with the attributes connected with this title, lacked the publications' office of the plan to remove several books belonging to the college library. In some cases, it is evident that there is a considerable loss of property. These books are expensive, and are located in the libraries of the college.

By purchasing Christmas seals, one can contribute to a national campaign. The numbers of these seals will help an individual for a purpose likely to improve the state considerably.

It is rapidly taking it pi:

The 2(H)th anniversary of Shakespeare's birthday. This will be observed by students here. Miss Millay wrote a fifty-two line introduction to each of the first twenty sonnets which Shakespeare, and Gabriel Poesi, is a matriculation.

Staunt considerably.

Those who do not dance are not found unreasonable in every order for each of the first two sonnets which Shakespeare, and Gabriel Poesi, is a matriculation.

Dancing was not without reason. Dancing after dinner was a very popular pastime.

The students should appoint some of their number to discuss this matter with the President, who will not fail to meet students at the request to prevent dancing in the dormitories.

The commission has a duty to perform; it should

There are many students at State who have no social interest outside their own immediate circles of friends.

In class spirit giving way to club spirit, the class spirit being in favor of the larger bod-

The late report of the teacher of German. He had given us in this volume of lines to Samuel S. Poore, '32, president of the college, and to discuss the matter with the President, who will not fail to meet students at the request to prevent dancing in the dormitories.

It is either too cold, too hot, or there is no place to sit in the available outside of the college.

Anonymity will be preserved if desired. The News does not reveal the names of any contributor.

The commission has a duty to perform; it should

MORE DANCING WANTED?

Much dissatisfaction has been expressed by some classes concerning the rules which limit dancing to a few hours each night. The action of the administration is curtailing the dancing by a regulation which limits it to the halls of residence. In some cases there is a considerable loss of property.

Those who do not dance are not found unreasonable in every order for each of the first two sonnets which Shakespeare, and Gabriel Poesi, is a matriculation.

Anonymity will be preserved if desired. The News does not reveal the names of any contributor.

ADDRESSES OF BOOKS

Miss Marion Cheeseborough, instructor in Latin; Professor Winfield Miller to discuss this matter with the President, who will not fail to meet students at the request to prevent dancing in the dormitories.

Five Latin And German Teachers To Be Hosts

The faculty-student tea is scheduled for December 10. Miss Marion Cheeseborough, assistant professor of Latin; Mary Washburne, assistant professor of German; Miss Marion Cheeseborough, instructor in Latin; Professor Winfield Miller to discuss the matter with the President, who will not fail to meet students at the request to prevent dancing in the dormitories.

By purchasing Christmas seals, one can contribute to a national campaign. The numbers of these seals will help an individual for a purpose likely to improve the state considerably.
NEWS ANNOUNCES FIRST TABULATION

 library to have annual Christmas Party

Library Committee Students To Have Annual Christmas Party

The library committee students will have their annual Christmas party tomorrow night at the Alumni Club, Gillespie Hall, 2-30 p.m. The party will be a 2-30 clock. Helen Rehle, 32, is general chairman.

The committee which will assist are: Helen Rehle, general chairman; Mrs. VanCleave, special social; and Gerald Schon [#], in attendance. For the December bulletin, Mrs. VanCleave, and Liberal, 32, chairmen. Mrs. VanCleave, 32, chair, and Gerald Schon, 32, chair. Libby, 32, chair, and Mrs. VanCleave, 32, chair.

Swimming For Women Will Begin On Monday

The swimming classes which are conducted at the Scholastic pool are included in the regular curriculum for the winter term. The classes are conducted at the Scholastic pool.

All girls who have signed up will be notified of when and where the classes will begin.

Edward Van Kleeck, 27, Executive Council Head
Edward Van Kleeck, 27, is the new president of the Student Government Association. The new president was elected by the Student Council meeting on Monday night. The new president will serve as the President of the Student Government Association.

Education Of College Women Makes

The purpose of Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. The organization includes all students who are majoring in home economics. The organization includes both men and women. The organization includes all students who are majoring in home economics. The organization includes both men and women.

Director's Message

To New Club Members

Welcome to the new club members. The club is still recruiting new members. The club meets on the first Tuesday of each month.

AERI BEGINS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

The AERI Begins To Speak on Monday.

Sneakers

The sneaker is a type of footwear that is designed to provide comfort and support during physical activity. Sneakers are typically made of canvas or leather and are secured with laces.

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's.

OMICRON NU HAS DINNER TO HONOR SCIENCE PIONEER

Last Friday night the active and honorary members of the Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, entertained a dinner in the college cafeteria in honor of Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, a pioneer in the field of home economics.

The dinner was held in the college cafeteria and was attended by Mrs. Richards and several of her colleagues. The dinner included a special menu, which featured several of Mrs. Richards' favorite dishes.

The purpose of the Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character, and is limited to students who meet those criteria.

Several reporters have attended the dinner, and the attendees were included in the final tally of the dinner.

AERI BEGINS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

The AERI Begins To Speak on Monday.

Sneakers

The sneaker is a type of footwear that is designed to provide comfort and support during physical activity. Sneakers are typically made of canvas or leather and are secured with laces.

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's.

OMICRON NU HAS DINNER TO HONOR SCIENCE PIONEER

Last Friday night the active and honorary members of the Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, entertained a dinner in the college cafeteria in honor of Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, a pioneer in the field of home economics.

The dinner was held in the college cafeteria and was attended by Mrs. Richards and several of her colleagues. The dinner included a special menu, which featured several of Mrs. Richards' favorite dishes.

The purpose of the Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character, and is limited to students who meet those criteria.

Several reporters have attended the dinner, and the attendees were included in the final tally of the dinner.

AERI BEGINS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

The AERI Begins To Speak on Monday.

Sneakers

The sneaker is a type of footwear that is designed to provide comfort and support during physical activity. Sneakers are typically made of canvas or leather and are secured with laces.

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's.

OMICRON NU HAS DINNER TO HONOR SCIENCE PIONEER

Last Friday night the active and honorary members of the Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, entertained a dinner in the college cafeteria in honor of Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, a pioneer in the field of home economics.

The dinner was held in the college cafeteria and was attended by Mrs. Richards and several of her colleagues. The dinner included a special menu, which featured several of Mrs. Richards' favorite dishes.

The purpose of the Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character, and is limited to students who meet those criteria.

Several reporters have attended the dinner, and the attendees were included in the final tally of the dinner.

AERI BEGINS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

The AERI Begins To Speak on Monday.

Sneakers

The sneaker is a type of footwear that is designed to provide comfort and support during physical activity. Sneakers are typically made of canvas or leather and are secured with laces.

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's.

OMICRON NU HAS DINNER TO HONOR SCIENCE PIONEER

Last Friday night the active and honorary members of the Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, entertained a dinner in the college cafeteria in honor of Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, a pioneer in the field of home economics.

The dinner was held in the college cafeteria and was attended by Mrs. Richards and several of her colleagues. The dinner included a special menu, which featured several of Mrs. Richards' favorite dishes.

The purpose of the Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character, and is limited to students who meet those criteria.

Several reporters have attended the dinner, and the attendees were included in the final tally of the dinner.

AERI BEGINS TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

The AERI Begins To Speak on Monday.

Sneakers

The sneaker is a type of footwear that is designed to provide comfort and support during physical activity. Sneakers are typically made of canvas or leather and are secured with laces.

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's

Keep Beautiful at Palladino's.

OMICRON NU HAS DINNER TO HONOR SCIENCE PIONEER

Last Friday night the active and honorary members of the Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, entertained a dinner in the college cafeteria in honor of Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, a pioneer in the field of home economics.

The dinner was held in the college cafeteria and was attended by Mrs. Richards and several of her colleagues. The dinner included a special menu, which featured several of Mrs. Richards' favorite dishes.

The purpose of the Omicron Nu is to promote the science of home economics. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character, and is limited to students who meet those criteria.

Several reporters have attended the dinner, and the attendees were included in the final tally of the dinner.
ALL-DAY DANCE WILL BE TONIGHT

Only State Students May Attend Dance, Says Committee Arranging Affair

The first All-State dance for this year will be conducted tonight in the Lounge, Dickinson hall, from 8 to 11:30 o'clock, according to William Collins, 34, chairman of the committee in charge.

The dance, conducted under the auspices of the State College of Education, is open to only State students and will be attended by approximately 1000 students.

WELCOME HONORARIES

Gemma Phil Sipser recently welcomed Mr. Teasen, instructor in chemistry, and Miss Miller into honorary membership in the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, and Miss Weeks into the Tau Alpha Epsilon sorority.

AWARDS CONTRACT

Awards for the outstanding workers in the junior class have been awarded by Dr. Robert S. Reger, principal, to the following: Miss Jane D. H. Verhage, first and second years; Miss Faith F. W. Smith, first, second, and third years; and Miss Mary E. Leifman, third and fourth years.

CONDUCT MEETING

The Board of Trustees will conduct its monthly meeting in the administration building today at 2 o'clock. The meeting will be open to the public.

STATE GROWS FOURFOLD IN ENROLLMENT SINCE FOUNDATION IN 1844; New School at International Falls, Minn., Plans to Open in Fall, 1933

By KENNETH A. MILLER

The school district of the city of International Falls, Minn., plans to open in the fall of 1933, and the new school will have an enrollment of approximately 800 pupils. The school will be built at a cost of $250,000 and will be equipped with all modern facilities.

BIOLOGY CLUB TO HAVE PARTY AT OBSERVATORY

The Biology club will conduct its annual party at the observatory tonight at 8 o'clock. The party will be attended by members of the Biology department and guests.

KIRBY PAGE TO BE SPEAKER SUNDAY

By MARY C. A. JOY

Kirby Page, a well-known author and lecturer, will address the Theta Phi Alpha Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on December 12.

Kirby Page is the author of the book, "The New Nation." He will address the chapter on the subject of "The New Nation and the American Civil War." His lecture will be held in the observatory on the campus of the State College.

STUDENTS DIRECT EXTRACURRICULAR CLUBS AT MILNE

Forty-four State college students are directing the extracurricular activities of the Junior High School at Milne. The students are organized in the Educational Club, a co-operative unit of the junior high school, and are supervised by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies.

FINISHED WITH TROUBLE NOTE

"Boelsheim" Is Topic Of State-Keuka Debate

The debate on the topic of the year was held at the State University at Ithaca. The motion was "That the motion of the President of the Senate of the United States, Mr. Keuka, be and is hereby adopted." The affirmative side was represented by Charles W. Keuka, 34, and the negative side by Robert W. Keuka, 34.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

There was a heated discussion on the motion, and the affirmative side was defeated.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

GARDEN FUND

The garden fund of the State College of Education, which is used for the support of the gardens on the campus, has been increased by $200.

KIRBY PAGE TO BE SPEAKER SUNDAY

By MARY C. A. JOY

Kirby Page, a well-known author and lecturer, will address the Theta Phi Alpha Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on December 12.

Kirby Page is the author of the book, "The New Nation." He will address the chapter on the subject of "The New Nation and the American Civil War." His lecture will be held in the observatory on the campus of the State College.

STUDENTS DIRECT EXTRACURRICULAR CLUBS AT MILNE

Forty-four State college students are directing the extracurricular activities of the Junior High School at Milne. The students are organized in the Educational Club, a co-operative unit of the junior high school, and are supervised by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies.

FINISHED WITH TROUBLE NOTE

"Boelsheim" Is Topic Of State-Keuka Debate

The debate on the topic of the year was held at the State University at Ithaca. The motion was "That the motion of the President of the Senate of the United States, Mr. Keuka, be and is hereby adopted." The affirmative side was represented by Charles W. Keuka, 34, and the negative side by Robert W. Keuka, 34.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

There was a heated discussion on the motion, and the affirmative side was defeated.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

GARDEN FUND

The garden fund of the State College of Education, which is used for the support of the gardens on the campus, has been increased by $200.

KIRBY PAGE TO BE SPEAKER SUNDAY

By MARY C. A. JOY

Kirby Page, a well-known author and lecturer, will address the Theta Phi Alpha Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on December 12.

Kirby Page is the author of the book, "The New Nation." He will address the chapter on the subject of "The New Nation and the American Civil War." His lecture will be held in the observatory on the campus of the State College.

STUDENTS DIRECT EXTRACURRICULAR CLUBS AT MILNE

Forty-four State college students are directing the extracurricular activities of the Junior High School at Milne. The students are organized in the Educational Club, a co-operative unit of the junior high school, and are supervised by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies.

FINISHED WITH TROUBLE NOTE

"Boelsheim" Is Topic Of State-Keuka Debate

The debate on the topic of the year was held at the State University at Ithaca. The motion was "That the motion of the President of the Senate of the United States, Mr. Keuka, be and is hereby adopted." The affirmative side was represented by Charles W. Keuka, 34, and the negative side by Robert W. Keuka, 34.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

There was a heated discussion on the motion, and the affirmative side was defeated.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

GARDEN FUND

The garden fund of the State College of Education, which is used for the support of the gardens on the campus, has been increased by $200.

KIRBY PAGE TO BE SPEAKER SUNDAY

By MARY C. A. JOY

Kirby Page, a well-known author and lecturer, will address the Theta Phi Alpha Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on December 12.

Kirby Page is the author of the book, "The New Nation." He will address the chapter on the subject of "The New Nation and the American Civil War." His lecture will be held in the observatory on the campus of the State College.

STUDENTS DIRECT EXTRACURRICULAR CLUBS AT MILNE

Forty-four State college students are directing the extracurricular activities of the Junior High School at Milne. The students are organized in the Educational Club, a co-operative unit of the junior high school, and are supervised by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies.

FINISHED WITH TROUBLE NOTE

"Boelsheim" Is Topic Of State-Keuka Debate

The debate on the topic of the year was held at the State University at Ithaca. The motion was "That the motion of the President of the Senate of the United States, Mr. Keuka, be and is hereby adopted." The affirmative side was represented by Charles W. Keuka, 34, and the negative side by Robert W. Keuka, 34.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

There was a heated discussion on the motion, and the affirmative side was defeated.

Normal school students, served on the faculty of the State University, and were represented by Edward W. Keuka, 34, who was the faculty member on the affirmative side, and by Dr. Charles B. Cooper, instructor in social studies, who was the faculty member on the negative side.

GARDEN FUND

The garden fund of the State College of Education, which is used for the support of the gardens on the campus, has been increased by $200.

KIRBY PAGE TO BE SPEAKER SUNDAY

By MARY C. A. JOY

Kirby Page, a well-known author and lecturer, will address the Theta Phi Alpha Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on December 12.

Kirby Page is the author of the book, "The New Nation." He will address the chapter on the subject of "The New Nation and the American Civil War." His lecture will be held in the observatory on the campus of the State College.