Extension Courses Will Be Organized Upon Petition Of Interested Students

Extension courses will be organized in Albany and at other centers in the state, if there is sufficient demand for them, according to Dr. M. G. Nelson, director of extension teaching. Several courses have already been planned for Albany and other places.

Petitions for the organization of such courses may be addressed to Dr. Nelson.

All extension courses will meet in the evening and the first meeting of each course is scheduled for the week of September 15 at 7 o'clock. A schedule of courses that will probably be offered in Albany State College includes:

- 2 in Arts of Art History, 1 in History, 3 in English, 1 in Piano, 1 in Music, 1 in English.

Students who wish such transcripts should see Mr. French in room 150 Draper Hall between 12 and 1 o'clock today, between 2 and 3 o'clock today, or between 9 and 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Bryant Writes Paper For Speech Journal

Bybrent Bryant, in his recently prepared speech, submitted a paper to the speech journal. The paper is entitled "The Social Significance of Speech in Education." The paper delved into the importance of speech in education and its role in the development of students.

Students Will Not Leave Envelopes For Their Marks

Contrary to custom, students are not expected to leave their envelopes at the registrar's office, as students do not write marks in the envelopes. Instead, the registrar's office will distribute the marks to the students.
