Summer Openings in Europe
Available to College Students
The American Council on Education has announced that summer openings are available in Europe for students to fill a number of positions in various countries. The openings include teaching positions in the University of Cyper, the University of London, and the University of Paris. The positions are open to students in the fields of arts, sciences, and social sciences.

News Notes

AHA to Meet
The American Heritage Music Association is planning to hold its annual meeting in New York City. The meeting will include discussions of the organization's goals and plans for the future. The meeting will also feature a variety of musical performances.

IFG Shows Mexican Film
On Tuesday, a film about Mexican culture will be shown at the International Film Guild. The film is titled "Carmen" and will be shown at 7 p.m. at the IFG cinema on Main Street.

Campus Commission Announces Rules Governing Students Conduct
The Campus Commission has announced new rules governing student conduct. The rules include the following:

1. No smoking is allowed in the Commons.
2. No books are to be placed on top of the furniture.
3. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.
4. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.
5. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.
6. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.
7. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.
8. No mail is to be placed on top of the furniture.

Music Council Features Noted Concert Pianist
The Music Council will present a concert featuring noted concert pianist Edward Eldred. The concert will take place in the Music Hall at 8 p.m. The program will include works by Beethoven, Mozart, and Chopin.

Senate Looks Back, Sums Up Activities
The Senate has reviewed its activities for the past year. The highlights of the year included the passage of a number of important bills. The Senate also hosted a number of community events, including a concert and a charity auction.

Myskansia Reaches Final Decision in Sigma Lambda Sigma Appeal
The case of Myskansia, a student involved in a dispute over the use of the name Sigma Lambda Sigma, has been settled. The student was found to have violated the organization's bylaws and was suspended from the fraternity.
Precedence

The jurisdiction of MYSKANIA now appears to be a well-defined fact. This week's issue portrays the pertinent aspects of the decision in the matter of MYSKANIA vs. Hamilton. The decision was reached at a duly convened meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and the evidence was presented with such thoroughness and clarity that there could be no reasonable doubt of the correctness of the decision. The decision was supported by the majority of the members present, and no objections were raised by any of the student organizations involved.

The jurisdiction of MYSKANIA now appears to be a well-defined fact. This week's issue portrays the pertinent aspects of the decision in the matter of MYSKANIA vs. Hamilton. The decision was reached at a duly convened meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and the evidence was presented with such thoroughness and clarity that there could be no reasonable doubt of the correctness of the decision. The decision was supported by the majority of the members present, and no objections were raised by any of the student organizations involved.

The jurisdiction of MYSKANIA now appears to be a well-defined fact. This week's issue portrays the pertinent aspects of the decision in the matter of MYSKANIA vs. Hamilton. The decision was reached at a duly convened meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and the evidence was presented with such thoroughness and clarity that there could be no reasonable doubt of the correctness of the decision. The decision was supported by the majority of the members present, and no objections were raised by any of the student organizations involved.

The jurisdiction of MYSKANIA now appears to be a well-defined fact. This week's issue portrays the pertinent aspects of the decision in the matter of MYSKANIA vs. Hamilton. The decision was reached at a duly convened meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and the evidence was presented with such thoroughness and clarity that there could be no reasonable doubt of the correctness of the decision. The decision was supported by the majority of the members present, and no objections were raised by any of the student organizations involved.
Alden Hall forfeited to Beta Zeta. Sent in the schools.

The nation's top scorers are determined to be the Campus Team from the director of the Tournament.

Brubacher. The second team members, group house residents, one hundred seventy-nine col-

They were never headed, winning by themselves tourney minded, and avenged a loss at the hands of the Blue Devils a year ago.

Outstanding performances by both him and teammate Don Cohen.

The Peds ahead, only to have the State trailed 18-14 at the end of the first half. Then Cohen required almost the full minute mark.

Woytowich handled FDU's Ken for an equalizer coming when Ted Dus-

The trio, pacemakers Art Brunell, John Woytowich and Clay Hawks. The Peds have made a vast improvement over last year's dormitory team. The pro-

Satisfaction comes when you know. The president's thinking is an end in itself. But we can be sure of trading and player acquisition.

Wimpley was pinned at the seven minute mark. The Peds have (in the National Intercollegiate on.

Albany State had a 1-0 advantage after two periods, but the Peds took over in the third. A penalty and 1-3 pound Dave Pause both clinched the win for the Peds.

Winning the next two matches, Albany's John Mikels, Ed O'Keefe and 137 pound Dave Pause.

Brunell required almost the full minute mark.

Albany State forfeited to Beta Zeta.

Sent in the schools.

The nation's top scorers are determined to be the Campus Team from the director of the Tournament.
Dean's List For 1959-1960

Four hundred and thirty-six students are listed, according to Oscar E. Lanford, Dean of the College. The list is on pages 6 and 7 of this issue. The students are listed alphabetically by last name. The names are followed by their major fields of study and the grades they received. The list includes students from the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business Administration, the College of Education, the College of Engineering, and the College of Law. The list also includes students from the School of Continuing Education and the School of Graduate Studies.

Students Elect Robinson for President

Eight Men, Five Women

Thirty Votes Decide Presidency for Robinson; Susan Byron Serves As Vice-President

It should be noted that the total number of votes cast in this election is not recorded in the text. However, the text does state that Richard Robinson was elected President with 31 votes, while Susan Byron was elected Vice-President with 17 votes. The text also notes that the election was held on March 1, 1960, and that the election was closely fought, with Robinson winning by a single vote over his closest rival.

Students Accept Gifts, Tacles

The text states that the students accepted gifts and tacles at a ceremony held on the campus.

Do You Think for Yourself? (Thursday Quiz and See Where You Land)

The text presents a quiz with multiple choice questions. The questions are related to the theme of the quiz.

SMALLS

The text mentions the Small's newspaper.

Gerald Drug Co.

The text mentions the Gerald Drug Co., located at 317 W. Main St., Albin, N.Y. Phone: 2-916.