Rigor Mortis Sets In

Building Stress: With the impending New Year and the season's end, students are fast approaching the point where they will be feeling the effects of the stress of the semester. This stress is both physical and mental, and it is important for students to take steps to relieve it before it becomes too severe.

Accent on Grease Paint

Although such characters as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, and Good and Evil, are perhaps the most familiar and widely recognized in literature, the use of grease paint in stage productions is by no means new. In fact, it has been in use for centuries, and its popularity continues to grow.

Communications

The Editor

When the war of the issues of the weekly comes to an end, the editor is faced with the task of determining the future direction of the publication. This can be a difficult task, as it requires a careful balance between the needs of the readers and the goals of the publication.

St. Lawrence, Clarkson

The Purple and Gold Eagles will face the RPI Red Raiders tomorrow night.

The Red Raiders, coached by Mr. H. A. Gordon, are likely to make the season a success. Their team consists of many members from last year's successful campaign, and several new men have been added to the roster to make it a strong one.

The Eagles, coached by Mr. J. F. Smith, are also doing well this year. They have had a series of close games, and are likely to make a good showing against RPI.

On Wednesday night the varsity basketball team played an exhibition game against the local high school. The Eagles scored a surprising victory, 42-30, and will be sure to be a formidable team in the upcoming season. The game was played in front of a large and enthusiastic crowd.

There were many outstanding performances, particularly by the forward, who scored 15 points. The game was well played by both teams, and was a good exhibition for the upcoming season.
