RENEWING VOY OF POVERTY

There used to be a time when the prospective mother would say to herself, "I wonder if a better mother's advice will enable me to support my family, and the second time she would say to herself, "I wonder if I can struggle along on a trial, or maybe without being forced to marry." Low salaries kept many men and women from entering the professional education, but financial obstacles would seem to be self-inspired.

Salaries for teachers are jumping ahead, according to a release of the National Education Association, "The teacher is paid to teach at the present time, making forced to marry," Louis T. WOONER

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, NOVEMBER 8, 1929

If You Ask Me-

Question: Do you believe the house rules governing group houses should be made by the Dean? Should they be established by the Student Assembly?

Marie Smith, '30, Kenya Delta house, said that the rules be made by the Student Assembly. "There is not a great deal of difference in the rules. Where we realize that in a college it is necessary to have certain rules in effect, it will be impossible for the rules to be made by the student council. A house council should have more power to make rules affecting the individual girls, and the student council in each case."

Lucia Stephens, '21, Psi Gamma house, "I think the rules should be established. A student will select the house that is best for her."

Helen Smith, '21, Eta Phi house, "Yes, I think they should be established by the Student Assembly, but after all she is the one who knows best the individual girls and the circumstances in each case."

BASKETEERS NEED INTENSIVE DRILLS, STUDENTS REMAIN OPTIMISTIC

By ALLEN W. SCHUTZ, '21
STATE REPORTER

The State College basketball squad is preparing for the new season by meeting twice a week in the student gymnasium of Page hall to review fundamentals and work on strenuous exercises. Drills will be given in passing, shooting, rebounding, free throws, lay-ups, lay-ins, and jumping shots. The team will practice under the direction of the late Coach Baker with the nucleus of the varsity in attendance.

The student council will present the results of much work and a new gynasia.-ium will be ready for the opening of the succeeding College year, certain move ns will be made to aid the Federal ion. To a great extent, the perpetuation of the Federation depends upon the work of the delegate. Insofar as the representative transfers his en--
New Zealanders’ Wit Lost On Audience:

“State college debate audiences do not usually expect to enjoy during the course of a debate,” said Guy A. K. Brown, president of the Victoria University team, who argued against the men’s varsity here last Saturday night in a non-decision debate. “During the course of the presentation of argument the number of words, the cute, the clever, and the absurd will not make an impression,” he continued. “It is the one who builds a case for his position that will win.”

Approximately thirty interested students and faculty attended the first international debate in which State college has ever participated. President A. E. Blodgett presided.

German Club To Have Kaffee Klatsch Tonight

German club will have a Kaffee Klatsch tonight at 7:30 in a castle tonight in the lounge. Professor W. J. D. Becker, head of the German department, will speak. Father Warren 20 will sing a song of German songs. A. K. Bruhacher, 20, and Frida Schnitzler, 20, will play several violin duets. Ruth Israel, '21, will dance.
