The annual formal of all the state colleges and universities is in need of consideration. There was a general consensus that the time of the annual formal was 10:45 on Sunday afternoon. In the interest of the freshmen, this time was also adopted for the annual formal.

There will be a meeting of all interested members of the State College Choral Society at 11:15 on Friday, January 21, at the time of the annual formal, to consider the program of the annual formal.

The State College Choral Society will begin their rush period on Monday, January 21, at 11:15, and continue until 1:00 on Sunday afternoon. The program of the annual formal will be the same as that of the annual formal of the State College Choral Society.

More Music and Drama

Three one-act plays and a choral concert featuring Percy Grainger, both to be presented next week, will wind up State's lyceum program for the semester. For the three such productions presented so far, we feel that there is a need for more of such presentations next semester.

The LARGE NUMBER OF STATE COLLEGE students, thus far, have demonstrated the same enthusiasm for regular church attendance as that which is usually required of a teacher, and entrance into church affairs now has many effect in habit forming. State college Presbyterians should return Dr. Blake's gesture with a fine attendance Sunday, and the college will look forward appreciatively to similar services in other denominations.

Miss Lillian's place in the program was, naturally, a surprise. Her one-act play, "The Tattered Ticket," was well in keeping with the theme of the evening, "Tales of the Road." Miss Lillian's ability to express herself in playwriting is remarkable, and it is to be hoped that her efforts may continue to be encouraged.

Press Bureau Plans New Publicity Drive

The State college Press bureau, organized last spring to publicize State college, has its constitution approved by Myakin in this week. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

The purpose of the Press bureau is to publish the activities of the students of the college, and to keep itself in the newspapers throughout the year with the time in mind of placing the New York State College for Teachers in the ranks of the major higher education institutions of New York state.

The officers of the Press bureau will consist of the chairmen, who shall be a member of the junior class, a secretary, who shall be from the sophomore class, and an advisory board composed of the senior members and the faculty advisor.

Membership is limited to not less than eight or more than twelve members to be chosen by the bureau.

Recommendations for the incoming sophomore members shall be made by the instructors of the news club classes, and these shall be considered by the bureau in their election of sophomore members.

The bureau shall meet once a month during the third week of the month.

The day and hour shall be determined upon by the chairmen and advisory board.

Special meetings can be called by the chairman.

Hellenics

Happy New Year! And for those who do not like the Yule Log, there will be a small log with a fire in it.

BASKETERS OVERCOME NORWICH QUINN, 23-17

Succeeed 4-21 to St. Michaels' Strong Team in Friday Nights' Game

The purple and gold basketers managed to win a Vermont first weekend split on two games played with two green and white teams last night at Sunday night. Friday night, St. Michaels' college, of Norwich, won a tough battle over the Teachers while Saturday night, at Norwich, a night game, the Teachers fell before the point leaders, 23-17.

St. Michael's proved to be a team of sharpshooters. They made good fouls out of two of the four baskets and were accurate from all corners. The Teachers' playing was spirited but unorganized. The winning team, however, lost a point, putting the Winooski Whirlwind for a big lead, will not have it red down to 11-18 at half time. The first half was the second half in the Teachers' biggest game. At the end of this first half of the game, 11-18, it all went down to the finish,

The passing of the amber avalanche is small there will be no elimination. As the squad reached Burlington, they went through with it and weeded out the best by, the Blackbirds, one of the nation's strongest teams. While on the road, they met Pratt, and again beaten. Out of this information, the Teachers with the longest game have been received, a tourney is being conducted to find the winner. The game will be held on April 12th.

Intramural Program Grows in Popularity

FASDETTI Tennis is Recent Addition To Roster of Men's Sports

The intramural program has been spurred on by a new addition to the pool, the tennis courts. The courts are now available to all students at the University of Vermont and have been in use all season. The new courts provide an opportunity for the student body to relieve themselves of the winter blues and to participate in a sport that is both challenging and rewarding.

The court has quickly become popular among students, with frequent games being played throughout the week. The tennis program has become a staple of the intramural season, attracting players of all skill levels.

Canute's Corner

Bits of String and Pratt—le

A genius was hushed by hail in all of Vermont. Burlington was the principal stopping-off place as they applied them with its atmosphere for approximately twenty minutes. The university, Vermont and gray Lake Champlain were practically identical in this, the largest city in Vermont.

Bennington and Rutland were not home to the players. The towns were like Burlington in many ways. The first was on the orders of a pleasant day and the second was on the orders of a pleasant evening. Wherever they were located Middlebury critical might well be blamed to Bennington while the state capital, was disappointing.

The Vermont Trip through about three ballot Friday afternoon, when the record and the market opened time across the river to St. Michael's university of Norwich.

The victory over Norwich was State's first win in five starts this year. They had been unbalanced, through, gathered as it was on a large and ingenious court and through nice time.

The passing of the amber avalanche is small there will be no elimination. As the squad reached Burlington, they went through with it and weeded out the best by, the Blackbirds, one of the nation's strongest teams. While on the road, they met Pratt, and again beaten. Out of this information, the Teachers with the longest game have been received, a tourney is being conducted to find the winner. The game will be held on April 12th.

Offer of Oscillation Helps Freshmen Win

The residence hall at SUNY Albany is so large that the freshmen feel threatened by their size. Many freshmen feel uncomfortable in their large dormitories and some even say they would like to transfer to a smaller dormitory. However, some freshmen feel that they can handle the big dorm and do not want to move to a smaller one. The residence hall is designed to accommodate approximately 600 students, but only about 450 are currently enrolled.

WANTED... 593 Employees!

DURING the past year the College Employment Department received an average of better than two calls a day for trained office employees... for full-time, permanent positions.

...And trained graduates available for only about 85% of the positions!

Prepare yourself for the steadily increasing demand for skilled workers. A general or specialized course at ABC—thorough, practical, favored by employers—will make you more efficient, more valuable, more assured of ready, steady employment.

NEW CLASSES NOW FORMING

Advanced and two-year Senior Courses begin February 21. Room reservations are guaranteed to any Monday. For further information address Priscilla Carroll, Jr., Director of Admissions, or call at the new College Hall.
Bathing Suit Is Best-Seller Among Many White Elephants

The annual White Elephant sale on Wednesday, sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association, presented a scene reminiscent of a busy day in the New York stock exchange. Prices soared, and bidders were watching their favorite articles with an eagle eye. "Judge" Edmonds and Lillian Beegle held forth on the auctioneer's block, supported by a few upper-class friends.

A great assortment of novelties, clothing and jewelry were displayed on tables, each marked with a price tag, but when they reached the auctioneer, they authentically acquired a new value.

The jewelry table was given almost undivided attention by Alonzo Densmore and James Vanderpoel, seniors. Among many white elephants, the afternoon was concluded by Alonzo Densmore, who placed on the table a pair of shoes with a most attraction. The mystery of the afternoon was a very handsome pair of shoes, but a loss that and in very good working order. Many of the shoppers searched in vain for its mate without success. We feel that it was a professional box.

Computes sold at a premium, but earrings had to be given away. We never realized the importance of pot-holders before, but after a little persuasion, someone in the audience convinced that no family should be without one and paid an enormous price for the only two in circulation.

There was a super-abundance of fantastic percolators from the lot and found box, but a noticeable absence of Christmas decorations. In dust Bessie giving you men shirts now, or have you trained her?

St. Rose To Give Lecture In Exchange January 22

The almoner of the College of St. Rose will present a lecture, "The Tactics of Communism," by Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen at Chancellor's hall on January 22 at 8:30 o'clock. This is an exchange lecture with the Newman club and admission to St. Rose's students will therefore be fifty cents. The regular admission is one dollar. The lecture is for the benefit of the Monsignor Sheen scholarship fund.

Monsignor Sheen has lectured on the Catholic Radio hour and is a graduate of St. Victor college. He has done graduate work at the University of Washington, Paris, Louvain, and Rome. He has received a Ph.D. degree from Louvain and a B.D. degree from the University of Rome.

He was the first American to receive the Cardinal Mercier prize for philosophy at the University of Louvain. He, at present holds the chair of philosophy of Religion at the Catholic University of America at Washington, D.C.

N.S.F.A. Delegates Give Data On Problems Vital to State

Connecting the problems of State college with State students at the National Student Federation conference in Berkeley, Warren Deno and Leslie Knox, juniors, and representatives to the National Student Federation conference, gave their reports in the student assembly Friday. Jack Jones, '37, gave a brief review of the conference.

Leslie Knox explained that the conference believed the struggle against dramatic productions with other colleges in the vicinity would enable us to enroll our immense programs and make friends with the nearby colleges. He also brought out the points that if sororities and fraternities would use collective bargaining they could have their own club house.

The conference went on record in favor of the American Youth Art League and believed such acts were not always properly administered. He mentioned that the conference condemned paddling, and the end of militarization.

The conference also favored a peace strike and an end of militarization.

Mr. Denno spoke upon the fact that the N.S.F.A. is helping many German students to obtain an education in this country. The conference also set up an organization to handle the problem of teachers' colleges. This is to function throughout this year and to keep an accurate check on such problems.

Mr. Denno explained that we are connected by the student federation in a wider wide student organization. Another important world wide feature mentioned by Mr. Denno is the student investigations which gives an illuminating report this year on the revolution in Spain.

Mr. Densmore spoke about the fact that the N.S.F.A. is aiding many colleges in the Middle Atlantic region of the federation, told of the reorganization of this region so that the colleges could communicate more often with each other. This will aid the students of this district to work more easily on their problems.
