Wherefore Are We Here?

American is at war, and that is the basic, real issue with which State College anxious body is faced today. American is at war and we have got to do something about winning this war as fast as is humanly possible.

To be in the United States at this critical time is an extraordinary privilege, a privilege which we do not seem to comprehend. The students of the United States have a privilege which we do not seem to comprehend. A glance at the newspapers and at the headlines of the radio shows that every student of the Army has an extraordinary privilege, a privilege which we do not seem to comprehend.

The privilege is, in the first place, an extraordinary privilege, a privilege which we do not seem to comprehend. A glance at the newspapers shows that every student of the Army has an extraordinary privilege, a privilege which we do not seem to comprehend.
