Dramatic Class Presents Plays

The three one-act plays presented last Friday evening by the Dramatic Class for the benefit of the Red Cross were very successful. The audience was large and enthusiastic, and the proceeds most encouraging to the Red Cross workers.

The "Play-Goers," by Sir Arthur Pinero, was presented as the first number on the program. All the parts were well interpreted, and the humorous situation was cleverly sustained throughout. Special commendation is due the work of Miss Spengler and Miss Fischer, who, as the parlor maid and cook respectively, were completely carried off by the Frosh, the bewildered husband being cleverly played by Lawrence McMichael.

The second play was the production of its star, Miss Ruth Fischer '19. Apart from the interest of local authorship, we feel that Margaret Fischer was commendable on points of real merit. Many of the lines were clever and the parts were well assigned, and contrastingly portrayed. Miss Fischer's interpretation of the leading role formed the nucleus—one might say the entire interest—of the play. It could not have been other than successful. The production of the beginning was destroyed by a weak ending. We wonder if possibly had anything to do with the decision of the finale!

For the third play, Lewis Bache's "The Claw," we have only the highest commendation. The leading role was played with realistic ability by Miss Doris Sweet. The part was an extremely difficult one, but was most realistically portrayed. Miss Sweet's support was also excellent, the work of Miss Doris Fischer and Joseph Linsker being particularly good. The greatest praise we can extend to the cast of "The Claw" is to say that it left nothing to be desired. For this amateur performance it had unusual merit and finesse.

Frosh Win Banner Rush

Big crowds out to witness "Taming of the Sophs"

One of the most exciting rushes in the history of State College took place last Wednesday night when all hands were carried off by the Frosh. In the first few minutes of the fight, Harry '21 succeeded in placing the Freshman homer on top of the 75-foot smoke stack. Hard to hand scenes were quite common in the fight, and the Frosh seemed to have the upper hand of the Sophs.

But on the contrary they appeared grown up did not have her back up on the platform again.

The program proper then began. Ruth Fischer described "The Ideal Senior," Hazel Hengge, "The Ideal Junior," and Sally Roudy, "The Ideal Sophomore." Each of these speeches were very original and clever. Miss Hengge closed her speech thus: "After all, the ideal Junior is best described by the following list of Juniors: one hundred per cent American; David Aaron; Allen Gillett; Nichola Chute; Verne Hrubachcr; Ernest Puderbaugh; Cassius Loeman; Albert Marvin and Earl Sutherlands.

After Joseph Walker, the president of the college, by Grace Clapp, '18, and a student membership, the ceremony then took place, the Juniors marching to the Senior seats, the Sophomores to the Junior section, and the Freshmen to the Sophomore. Mysskania, with Lillian Maigton as its agent, thus surprised the college by unveiling a College Honor Roll, with the names of about 50 college men who are in the service. The members of the Senior class represented on the list are: John A. Becker, Jr., Benjamin Garver, John Crehan, Alfred Dieter, Irving Gosway, George Gordon, Jr., Arthur Harnes, David Herriman, Jesse Jones, Henry Lacy, Edward E. Potter; Arthur Burns, Forrest Case, Ralph Floyd, Albert Marvin and De Witt Townsend.

New Mysskania Chosen

The most important and most exciting event of the day was the dignified members of Mysskania, one at a time, descended from their seats of honor on the platform, and marching to the place where the selected Junior sat, announced the name, pinning purple and gold ribbons upon her (or him), and then both proceeded back up on the platform again.

The chairs of the men in service were covered with flags. Mysskania, it should be explained for the sake of those who may not have heard of it, is:

"An organization composed of not less than eight or more than twelve Seniors. This body governs student activities other than athletics. Only Seniors who have good scholarship and have shown themselves to be creditable in class and on floats are eligible for election. Five members of this organization are elected by the faculty, the remaining by the active members of Mysskania. Election to Myssakania is the highest honor obtainable in State College. The emblem is a key, signifying high..."
STATE COLLEGE NEWS
May 29, 1918

Published weekly, during the college year, by the Committee on Publishing a College Weekly Newspaper, New York State College, State University of Iowa.

The subscription rate is one dollar and a half a year. Advertising rates may be had on application. All contributions, except those for publication must be in the News Box before Saturdays of the week preceding publication.

SENIOR EDITORS
Stanley Heaton, '18
Kathryn Cole, '18
Mildred L. McEwan, '18

REPORTERS
Bernice Bronner, '19
Caroline E. Lipes, '19
Donald Towler, '19
Dorothy Banner, '19

Managing editors of this issue:
Mildred L. MacEwan, '18
Dorothy Banner, '19

TO READERS
This issue of the State College News is the last of the year, 1918. In spite of many trying internal conditions, the second year of the literary news has been fairly successful and everyone feels that growth has been made. The board of editors wishes to bespeak the students and faculty its thanks in connection with the financial and material aid given by them during the college year. The hard work of the people realize the great and constant labor connected with the publishing of the News. And those few who have understood—and have helped and given, the board is especially grateful. We earnestly seek and hope to win the interest and help of every student and faculty member for the new board of editors for 1918-19. About the College News! World! Hand in material! Criticize constructively!

Now, in completion of the year's work, the board of editors extend hearty good wishes for a good report card, a happy summer, and a successful year to come.

THE BIG ISSUE
Several weeks ago an article appeared in the New York Times concerning the expected publication of a twelve-page special edition of the News, which has not materialized some explanation seems to be necessary.

That the plans were well under way, but a series of unfortunate circumstances had made it impossible this year. First, the board of editors was not completely elected. The new administration officers are powerless to complete the election with the advice to do so by May 29th. The last time I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before. Two weeks ago I scolded, I cried. Did you know you girls enough to be spared? Oh, exceptions! I mean before.

Secondly, the aid promised by the New York Times has been indefinitely withdrawn. The President, R. Townsend, has gone into the service. Other work has prevented the secretary, Doris Swett, from juniormating the news. And now June exams are upon us—and no big issue can be worked up at this date. It is greatly to be regretted that such a worthy effort has been blocked and defeated through carelessness, but there is no use crying over spilt milk. Let us hope for better things next year.

THE BEST JOBS
When it comes to getting positions, the men have the better of it. They can do the things that make life visibly worth while. We can be nurses, but they can run machine shops. No one thinks they are queer about nurses, but a great disappointment because they show a willingness to do such dangerous acts. We hold this reputation in so many places that I wonder whether it is or is not just as well. girls complain that men gain too much money or are more successful, but speaking fairly they ought to profit by such a position. It may very well be that some men who haven't studied an hour walk nonchalantly away with a sidelong smirk in teaching. I start my lip a little more.

Just because he's a man? There is another answer. Often I have one and the other is restless. It is the closest of this period than in any other hour in the week. I rattle all my previous experience to the one on the left prepared. In that case I know that I have all gained thereby. And even in the times when I am more restless than in any other hour in the week.

几乎没有—

Athletic Council News
At the regular meeting of the Athletic Council last Thursday, the following new rules were adopted: Men's football players should receive their major letter, and that managers of minor teams should receive their minor letter. Also, that managers and captains of varsity teams shall not be eligible to serve on the Council, and that the chair of the Council shall be a Senior, and that there be an assistant, if he be a Junior. The Senior should receive a minor let-

ATHLETIC COUNCIL IN THE WAR
In the final issue of the News, it is wise to show the war of the college and its students. Many students of the college are in the war, and those who are not are in the war in the way they can do the things that make life loyal to the State and to the Nation. To the best of her ability she has been preparing and sending to the soldiers thousands of students to become, and devoted citizens. And indirectly through these students, she has influenced the lives of thousands upon thousands of public and high school boys and girls—aiming to make them splendid citizens of the United States.

In the war of the sixties, the college immediately showed its worth by sending forth to battle every man in attendance. In the main hall near the entrance hangs a bronze tablet—a silent tribute to those who went, and the silent testimonial of the spirit of our Alma Mater.

Again, in the trying years since August, 1914, State College has done its part. Early in the year 1915-16, a voluntary friendship fund was raised to relieve suffering students in Europe. Then, when on April 6th, 1917, President Wilson declared that we had organized her efforts for America, the women roll of fifty names tells the story of some of her sacrifices. Conscript recruiting and drafting parties were the same, only the President's third Saturday and Sunday and morning in the afternoon.

A strictly large subscription to the friendship fund of 1917-18, and we are only a few weeks away from V. M. C. A., K. of C. Red Cross and War Chest are examples of material aid to the nation. The active Red Cross Unit, doing actual service at the college, is an example.

Last year, of all State College, had opened her doors for the training of soldiers in mechanical work, the exhibition will arrive May 15 for completion. The Industrial Training Department will look after the practical education and contacts of the soldiers.

There are not a few of the services. Our Alma Mater has rendered to the Nation. And in the coming days it will continue in like manner. More and more people to State College is in the war to see it through?

PROF. SIMONIN SPEAKS AT FRENCH CLUB
At the last meeting of the French Club on May 22, Prof. Simonin spoke on the Alsace-Lorraine Question. He vividly expressed the attitude of the French people toward the return of these provinces and pointed out the many differences in the language and temperaments of Prince and German. During the severe German claims to this territory.

HUBERT WINKLER
For the second time this year State College mourns the loss of one of its best students. Mr. Winkler was granted an end to illness and pain. He was a member of the present Senior class of 1918. Up to within a few weeks of his death, when it was indispenable for him to speak much, he would often ask for the welfare of classmates and old State. He was always cheerful and helpful for the time when he would rejoin the staff at College.

Mr. Winkler was born Nov. 12, 1894, graduated from St. Joseph's Academy at Schenectady in 1913, at which time he entered State Colle-

THE NIGHT BEFORE FINALS

Twas the night before finals, And round the mulberry tree,

and Jill went tumbling in.

Jack and Jill went tumbling in,

And Jill's old song had fled away.

And just as Jill went tumbling in,

The evening sun came starry and cool.

Our student took his place.

Our student took his place,

And he stood out of college.

"Lit. Dig." in turn was hurried then,

And A. B. Breese attacked; with aweful venem gloared he then,

When "Lit. Dig." came apace,

But soon his mind enrapt

And "Lit. Dig." came apace,

To think of the war. We look longingly on the

They are not a few of the services. Our Alma Mater has rendered to the Nation. And in the coming days it will continue in like manner. More and more people to State College is in the war to see it through?

THE NIGHT BEFORE FINALS

Twas the night before finals, And round the mulberry tree,

and Jill went tumbling in.

Jack and Jill went tumbling in,

And Jill's old song had fled away.

And just as Jill went tumbling in,

The evening sun came starry and cool.

Our student took his place.

Our student took his place,

And he stood out of college.

"Lit. Dig." in turn was hurried then,

And A. B. Breese attacked; with aweful venem gloared he then,

When "Lit. Dig." came apace,

But soon his mind enrapt

And "Lit. Dig." came apace,

To think of the war. We look longingly on the

They are not a few of the services. Our Alma Mater has rendered to the Nation. And in the coming days it will continue in like manner. More and more people to State College is in the war to see it through?
The Freshman girls took charge of the Wednesday meeting of Kappa Nu and told us their first impressions of college and C. A. For the last hike of the season was a very successful Silver Bay party in the gem. Marion Gardner was in charge, and Louis Knox was a most able assistant.

CAMPUS LIFE

Speaking of Prof. Woodward's "bore yard." He lived a life spectacular. And get what folks called fame—He found his art and gave to each a scientific name. He died, and in a niche was placed, And greatly praised was he. And landed as a man who built For earth's posterity. But subsequent—a thousand years—One day there passed that way A plodding, plugging college prof. Who picked that bed of clay. Uncovering some gray old stones, And lading through his glass. The prof. exclaims, "Rare find in the "bone yard." He lived a life spectacular. For earth's posterity.

ALPHA EPSILON PHI

Our chapter is new and has not had time to grow. We are just getting started, but slowly, getting there, and we hope some day to be firmly established. We have gone in for Red Cross work; we have fought a Liberty Bond and have gone out canvassing for the Third Liberty Loan drive. We hope next year to make ourselves felt by our new set of officers. Who are as follows: President, Sophia Rosenweig, '19; Secretary, Edythe Sherman, '20; Treasurer, Jennie Rosenweig, '19; Asst. Editor for A. E. O. Quarterly, Goldie Bloom, '19. Register for S. C. News, Bertha Gallop, '21; Marshal, Ruth Greenblatt, '21.

G. A. A. TAKE HIKE TO INDIAN LADDER

The last hike of the season was held Saturday. About fifty girls under Miss Gray's direction rode to the Indian Ladder Road and hiked to the top of the mountain. The bus left at 10 o'clock, lunch was eaten as soon as the stiff climb had been made. Lunch over, the girls divided in groups, some to picking flowers, some to go over the bear trail, some for the lower trail, some to the cabin. Esther Alnrich '18 combined humor and pathos to the extent of gathering the girls' hearts for her laboratory.

The college cotillion was utilized by the three higher classes when towards six o'clock a fire was needed. The work of building the fire and preparing the supper fell to the only capable Freshman. Hot dogs—sandwiches—fruit—cotton candy. However, does not care about pieces. And some of the girls practiced the doctrines of above noted was forced by the incommodious way in which they stored for Saturday evening.

In the way down the road it began to rain and before the uncovered bus had done a block, the lightly clothed girls were soaked. Some Has deserted their 100 per cent American hearts, for the harder it rained, the harder they sing "Pack Your Troubles" and others. Even the "End of a Perfect Day" found a joyful place on the chorus. For it had been a perfect day and the mint in the midst of the discomfort and fears for health that it caused, added to the joy of.

Y. W. C. A.

Moving Up Day
Continued from Page 1

The members of Myshana for 1918-19 are: Harriet L. Church, H. F. Balls; Agnes Dorrel Dewiln, Albany; Francis Joseph Pitz; L. C. Troy; Caroline R. Lines, Albany; Dorothy Roberts, Albany; Gertrude L. Schmerhorn; Hunter; Earl Sutherland, Cornell; View; Donald MacLean, Tower; Dundie; Lyra Waterhouse; Green; Winifred Wemple, Hazel, and Henry Wood, Woodford.

The program was continued on the campus, the procession to which was led by the Seniors, who formed into lines leading down from the auditorium steps, making an aisle through which the class passed. As the last Freshman had taken position at the foot of the line, the Seniors marched through the long aisle, the other classes following, and each class formed its numeral on the campus. Class songs came next, then the opening of the 1918 Ivy by Miss Harriet A. Aromitz and Miss Gertrude Simonds.

Class songs were the closing features of the morning program, staged on the campus steps. The opening number was a missionary show by the following Seniors: Miss Mildred McElrue, Nell Sater, and members: Miss Lilian Pennel, Miss Ruth Parry, Miss Agnes Moore, Miss Katherine Cole, and Miss Marion Leaves, the latter being interlocutor. Tableaux by the Juniors followed with Count Castellano as the Kaiser, Howard Kinyon as Uncle Sam, Donald Winkler at Schenectady, Bucheller as Jean de Arc, Jacob Tobias as John Bull, and Donald St. Clair as the Salishan majesty.

Sophomore members, presented in tableau with the Goddess of Liberty summoning her women workers, including Red Cross knitters, nurses, band aid girls, Women's Christian Association guides, Hoover girls and ambulance men. The following Sophomores took part: Miss Jane Schmider, Miss Marion Hawkins, Miss Betty Gardner, Miss Maude Ralfe, Miss Mildred Service, Miss Joy Cramph, Miss Eliza McQuaid, Miss Harriet Woodsey, Miss Blanche Hill, Miss Lavinia Hamberg, Miss Peggy Van Ness, Miss Madeline Cummings, Miss Alice Richmond, Miss Helen Reiter, Miss Mary Burnam and Miss Hazel Rowley.

Field Session

The classes met at the college at 2:30 p.m., and walked to Ridgefield in a body—cheering and singing made the march seem short. All thus had a chance to see a little of the college for traffic was stopped at every cross street on Partridge from Western to Myrtle.

The bleachers were filled rapidly and the 60-yard dash for women was begun at once. Representatives from the four classes ran—D. Austin '19 and E. Shanks '18 tied for first place in 6.2 seconds. F. Dominey '19 and N. Parkhurst '21 tied for second place in 6.3 seconds. The 100-yard relay was a feature, as well, with the two upper classes against each other and the two lower. The Frosh won from the Sophomores by a three to one margin, Nellie Parkhurst ran twice in the absence of a sufficient number of Sophomores. The Juniors won from the Seniors.

Sophs Win Track Meet

The Sophs, by capturing the first three places in the 220-yard dash, carried away the honors in the field meet held at Ridgefield last Thursday. The scores of the teams follow: Sophs, 122; Frosh, 88; and the Juniors, 77.

The time made in all events will stand as records, the meet being the first outdoor affair held by the college.

Summary—100-yard dash, Manville '21, first; Neuner '20, second; Lasker '20, third; Time, 11.2 sec.

220-yard dash, Rosendelich '20, first; Neuner '20 and Van Lodolz '20, tied for second. Time, 24.4 sec.

The meet was followed by a five inning baseball game between the Seniors and the Juniors. The odd classes won by the score of 14 to 3.

The day was well elided by a big singing on the campus. The classes sang individually and the Sophomores were given the honors for the best song. During the evening the results of the afternoon races were announced. When the singing was all over no one wanted to go home so every one stayed and danced for some time.

Sigma Nu Kappa

The following officers were elected:

President—Alfred J. Miller

Vice-President—Francis Fitzgerald

Secretary—Augustus M. Crable

Treasurer—Edwin Nicholson

President—Alfred J. Miller.

For the Campus Club, a member of the faculty.

Brother Christianse represented the chapter at the funeral of the late Bernard Whitter at Schenectady.

The following have been elected to membership: Guss Crable '19, Wm. Strain '21 for the Federated Reserve Army.

Merril Sauerbrei, '18, has gone into service as a chemist, working on gas experiments.

Sigma Nu Kappa welcomes Ed Long back to State College as a member of the faculty.

Here's a prayer for the cause and the workers, far over the sea.

Elizabeth P. Swamer.

Edmond G. Roy

Expert Commercial Photographer.

106 North Pearl St.

Albany, N. Y.

Eyres

Flowers

108 State St.

Albany, N. Y.

Albany Drug Co.

251 Central Avenue

We Make Our Ice Cream

We Make Our Candy

FRESH EVERY DAY

Marston & Seaman

Jewelers

20 So. Pearl St.

Albany, N. Y.

Albany Up-to-Date Cloak Mfg. Co.

Manufacturers and Retailers of

Coats, Suits, Waists

and

High Grade Furs

ALBANY UP-TO-DATE CLOAK MFG. CO.

472 to 478 Broadway

Hats and Shoes for Men

Women's Outer and

Under Garments

Woman's Footwear, Furs

and Fur Costs

Fine Qualities—Reasonable Prices

Tennis Balls, 25, 35 and 50c.

at

SCHNEIDER'S

COLLEGE PHARMACY

Western and Lake Aves.

M. S. Keenolts

Groceries,

Fruit, Vegetables, etc.

208 Central Avenue

ESSEX LUNCH

The Restaurant favored by

College students

Central Avenue

2 blocks from Robin Street

The Union Trust Co.

of Albany, N. Y.

Invites Your Personal Accounts

Main Office

Park Branch

47 State St.

200 Washington Ave.

Special Agency

The Horseshoe Shop

Neckwear. Hosery, Shirts,

Sweaters and Gloves

Dawson's Men's Shop

259 Central Ave.

Near Lake Avenue

Gustave Lorey

Photographer in the Class of 1918

Special rates to all students

170 State St.

Albany, N. Y.

The Little Red Cross in the Window

I walk through the streets of the city,

In daylight and dark, sun and rain.

And the little red cross in the window,

I see it, again and again.

It reeks not of rank nor of station,

It cares not for wealth or its lack.

But the little red cross in the window,

Has all, rich and poor, at its back.

It speaks of a oneness of purpose,

Of a cause that is dear to each heart.

Oh, that little red cross in the window,

Says "At least, I am having a share!"

So here's to the work that's so noble,

And the workers, far over the sea.

And dear little red cross in the window,

Here's a prayer for the cause and for thee!

Elizabeth P. Swamer.

SPANISH CLUB

There will be a meeting of the Spanish Club to-day at 4 p.m.

This is an important meeting as election for next year's officers will take place.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club to-day at 4 P. M.

Continued from Page 3