MUD Skit, "Play Ball" Features Struggling Albany Atomics Team

Tonight at 8, the curtain rises on a special production which is sure to bring laughter and applause from those who enjoy the antics of the University Players. "Play Ball" is a one-act comedy written by Paul Smith of Greenbelt, Md., and is the beginning of the University Players' second season. The cast is composed of students from various fields and the program is under the direction of Paul Smith.

The skit is a parody of the last three games of the World Series and follows the fortunes of the Atomics, being played by the entire cast of the Players. The action takes place on the ball field in the Statesmen and the Choral-ballet, and then the finale "The Seventh Inning Stretch" a quick and bright cheerleading routine ends the program.

The show is a full of laughs and fun, but will appeal only to those who enjoy a light-hearted, slightly satirical look at the world of baseball. The cast, which is made up of members from various Fraternal organizations, is sure to add a touch of humor to the proceedings. The show will be repeated Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m. in the Student Union. Tickets are $5.00 and may be purchased at the Box Office of the Union building.
