"OFF"tender

This is one of those rare occasions when every element seems to line up perfectly and it all comes together. The Pottermen were not quite out of breath after their 54-32 decision. Sheehan led Stars 72-66. Potter, playing without affect as they disposed of the All-Stars, gained a 52-46 verdict over game, the Club was once again victors and game high with 16 markers. Phillips was high for the Greene netted the scoring with 11 markers and Madrazzo who had a combined to 20 points in the first half. The kind of offense as they were held squeeze out a close victory. Goobers had better luck us they fortal edge for the remainder of the game. And Olsen chipped in 16 and 15 respectively. This victory enabled the Pottermen to com-
