Poll Of Legislation Finds Division Between Parties

by Bill Wimmer

In a recent poll of the New York State legislature conducted by the ASP, there was found a division between the Democrats and Republicans. The survey, which was administered by the ASP, involved a random sample of 500 legislators. The results of the poll are shown below:

Democrats

Republicans

A majority of both parties expressed dissatisfaction with the current political climate. The Democrats were more likely to express dissatisfaction with the Republicans, while the Republicans were more likely to express dissatisfaction with the Democrats.

The poll results suggest that there is a significant divide between the two parties, with the Democrats being more critical of the Republicans and the Republicans being more critical of the Democrats. This divide may be contributing to the overall political climate, which has been characterized by gridlock and a lack of progress on important issues.

The ASP has called on both parties to work together to address the needs of the people and find solutions to the challenges facing the state. Four thousand students were expected to converge on the University of New Haven campus on Saturday to protest against the operation of a nearby fraternities and sororities.

A tentative plan was made for a large crowd to be assembled in front of the administration building on Saturday afternoon, with speakers addressing the crowd. The plan was to then march to the campus center, where a series of events were scheduled to be held.

The protest was organized by a group of students who had been concerned about the operation of the fraternities and sororities for several weeks. They had been protesting against the operation of the fraternities and sororities, and had been carrying signs and banners in support of their cause.

The protest was expected to attract a large crowd, and the University of New Haven administration was expected to be present to address the concerns of the protesters.

Final Band Concert - Electronic Music Soon

When the latest batch of sound power researchers, by now, is the new Helsinki Flow Festival, is or its... or its... or its... or its...
U.S.

The University Concert Band is planning this year's concert program to be on the last day of April. It will be conducted by Mr.
Chadabe. The concert will be at 3:00 p.m. on April 25th in the Music Hall.

It would be very difficult to describe the effect that Mr. Hudson has had on the band. Two last oppor of this season, May 7 and 9, is the last concert of the 1969-70 tour.

As people get their organizations under control and musical band organizations become more and more popular, the University Concert Band will be conducting concerts throughout the United States and Canada. The concerts will be con ducted by Mr. Chadabe.

SS Metal, a People's army, a new democratic rebellion. May 4th in New York was the beginning.

A stage: people sat on them, played music on them, form.

If we ever have a national disaster, and you're in a situation of that we were recovering from a long day. Those of us who were in the streets, with our mattresses, chairs, and the floor; weary protestors beneath the buildings. Bodies were wrapped around the original mark of Zorro, 1981.

Latter that, Jerry Rubin spoke to hundreds inside the university, the old campus of Yale. A Black man, claiming to be a Panther, said that he was a member of the Black Panther Party, and that he was there to protect the students. The Panthers felt that we should only fight on the streets, not in the schools. We moved to a first aid station from there, so that we could sustain our spirits.

The first speaker was Doug Miranda, Defense Captain of the New York Militia. He warned against getting involved in the war, trying to stop the violence at Kent State, and the White House.

The Panthers told us that they were not going to take any more deaths. They were tired of the war, and they wanted to save their children. They had the press playing up the "state of emergency," and they were against the war.

The afternoon was filled with speakers and leaflets. There were two groups of people: the anti-war people, and the pro-war people. The anti-war people were yelling for peace, and the pro-war people were yelling for war.

The government tried to provoke us by kidnapping the people who were against the war. They had the press play up the "state of emergency," and they were against the war.
President Nixon's announced and illegitimate decision to send American military forces into Cambodia and to resume the bombing of North Vietnam demands militant, immediate, and continued opposition from all Americans.

Through his unilateral executive move, the press has placed our country in a state of emergency. He has ignored the constitutional provisions of Congress, and the Supreme Court has ruled that this is a violation of the War Powers Act, a policy which, through a process of legal logic, would mean that American involvement is illegal. Anything the President does to escalate the war should be opposed by all Americans.

The President has perennially engaged the region of the country. The anti-war movement, which has gathered and maintained the mass effort to prevent this war, is now gathering and maintaining the mass effort to prevent this war. The action of the government of the United States should be brought to the attention of all Americans.

The nation has been in a crisis for some time. Because of the crisis, the nation has never been so aware of what is happening in the world. The nation has never been so aware of the need for a change. The nation has never been so aware of the need for a change.

The need for action has never been so great and so necessary to permit the academic community to come together.
