STATE COLLEGE NEWS

Vol. 18, No. 8

State College for Teachers, Alabm, N. Y., December 15, 1933

$2.25 Per Year, 32 Weekly Issues

Merry Christmas

Happy New Year

PSI GAMMA TOPS

Scholarship List

Beta Zeta Follows with 1.59 Rating; Non-Sorority Groups

Psi Gamma sorority will be the Interfraternity of the semester's scholarship cap for the coming year, and it was

Year's average of 1.63, according to Miss Elizabeth Van Daman, registrar. This is the second Psi Gamma cap in this

This year's Psi Gamma cap was the third in a row the Psi Gamma cap, and the previous one was at 1.59, according to

N. S. F. A. Convention To Be December 27-31; Council Lists Instructions for Delegate

The annual convention of the National Student Federation will be held in Washington, D. C., December 27-31. The conven- tion will be attended by 1000 delegates from all parts of the country.

Sorority Groups

Psi Gamma, Alpha Phi, Delta Phi, Delta Zeta, and Alpha Phi Omega are the only sorority groups in the state. They have a combined average of 1.59.

Non-Sorority Groups

The non-sorority groups have an average of 1.63, according to Dr. C. H. M. Van Daman, registrar.

French System of Examinations Develops

The French system of examinations is now being developed in the state. The system is designed to be used in all schools, and will be introduced in the fall of this year.

FRENCH SCHOOL INSTITUTION

The French school in the state is expected to be started in the fall of this year. It will be a co-educational school, and will offer courses in French literature, language, and history.

Merry Christmas
The State College News, December 15, 1933

Page 2

State College News

Established by the Class of 1914

The undergraduate newspaper of the State College for Teachers

The News Staff

MARCUS C. HOWARD, Editor-in-Chief

WILLIAM C. NELSON, Managing Editor

The Daily Eagle, No. 178; 11th Ave., 2-4114

JAN CHANDELLENER, Advertising Manager

P. E. Hall, 30 Allen Street, 2-105

KATHERINE HAGEN, Finance Manager

DAN VAN LEUWAN, Advertising Manager

The State College News, 40 Western Avenue, 2-3700

RUTY WILLIAMS, Managing Editor

THE VICTORIA, 702 Main Avenue, 2-1260

MILDRED FOAD, Circulation Manager

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICES: Alberta Ross, Jeanne Ronly, Thelma Smith, author in residence; Ruth Bruns, author in residence; Frank Stanley, author in residence; Thomas Patton, editor in residence; Ethel R. Broom, editor in residence; William E. Broom, editor in residence; David Garrison, author in residence; Elizabeth Maxwell, author in residence; Martha Quimby, author in residence; Wilma Walsworth, '35, Assistant Advertising Managers: Beatrice Mary Hudson, Aubrey Kalbaugh, Virginia Chappell, Lavonc

MILDRED FACER

JEAN CRAIGMILE

Finance Manager

Page 2

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, DECEMBER 15, 1933

Perhaps a few of the seniors ahead, know that such a gift as the one here mentioned is on the way to the students from the class of '35. It is the largest and most modern gift ever made by the seniors. The gift consists of a steel cable strung across a sunset sky.

This is from one of four poems included in No Reprint available.

Ellis Young, '35, who has been the talk of the college for his love and philosophy of life. His lines are neither long nor short, but they are always very well written. In his book, "The Glimmer of a Sun," he explains, for his control: set it upon the tops of his page.

Among other poems in this collection we find "New Year's Resolution," which typifies the writer's changing of the old and the new, "Say our" words, "The Glimmer of a Sun," and a fine piece of descriptive writing by Helen Chappell.

Even though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

The title of the book is "Old Man's Sky." It contains several of Georgia's most enjoyable stories, and the book is well worth reading.

"Georgia, Georgia" is a very fine book, and the author has done a very good job of it.

A shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel. Predestination, failed to be he, was already enamored of his own work, never swimming through the air, from the minute he is conceived. As the shark grows, so also do his needs. The shark's gills are to disperse the popular superstitition that sharks follow ships when there is someone sick aboard, in hopes of getting the dead body. Very seldom do catchers meet such a fate, for the shark is a fish of very little value to the public and to the poultry industry.

The shark contains many exciting adventures with the fin and the finned fish. It also includes the story of the famous shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel.

EVEN though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

When it comes to the selection of a Senior Association Editor, a literary section, is innovated as a second class matter at postoffice, Albany, N. Y.

ESTHER ROWLAND, HILDA SHEARER, MARY TORISENS, MARY WALKER, WILMA WALSWORTH, '35. ASSISTANT ADVERTISING MANAGERS: BEATRICE MARY HUDSON, AUBREY KALBAUGH, VIRGINIA CHAPPELL, LAVONCE

Perhaps a few of the seniors ahead, know that such a gift as the one here mentioned is on the way to the students from the class of '35. It is the largest and most modern gift ever made by the seniors. The gift consists of a steel cable strung across a sunset sky.

This is from one of four poems included in No Reprint available.

Ellis Young, '35, who has been the talk of the college for his love and philosophy of life. His lines are neither long nor short, but they are always very well written. In his book, "The Glimmer of a Sun," he explains, for his control: set it upon the tops of his page.

Among other poems in this collection we find "New Year's Resolution," which typifies the writer's changing of the old and the new, "Say our" words, "The Glimmer of a Sun," and a fine piece of descriptive writing by Helen Chappell.

Even though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

The title of the book is "Old Man's Sky." It contains several of Georgia's most enjoyable stories, and the book is well worth reading.

"Georgia, Georgia" is a very fine book, and the author has done a very good job of it.

A shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel. Predestination, failed to be he, was already enamored of his own work, never swimming through the air, from the minute he is conceived. As the shark grows, so also do his needs. The shark's gills are to disperse the popular superstitition that sharks follow ships when there is someone sick aboard, in hopes of getting the dead body. Very seldom do catchers meet such a fate, for the shark is a fish of very little value to the public and to the poultry industry.

The shark contains many exciting adventures with the fin and the finned fish. It also includes the story of the famous shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel.

EVEN though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

When it comes to the selection of a Senior Association Editor, a literary section, is innovated as a second class matter at postoffice, Albany, N. Y.

ESTHER ROWLAND, HILDA SHEARER, MARY TORISENS, MARY WALKER, WILMA WALSWORTH, '35. ASSISTANT ADVERTISING MANAGERS: BEATRICE MARY HUDSON, AUBREY KALBAUGH, VIRGINIA CHAPPELL, LAVONCE

State College News

Established by the Class of 1914

The undergraduate newspaper of the State College for Teachers

The News Staff

MARCUS C. HOWARD, Editor-in-Chief

WILLIAM C. NELSON, Managing Editor

The Daily Eagle, No. 178; 11th Ave., 2-4114

JAN CHANDELLENER, Advertising Manager

P. E. Hall, 30 Allen Street, 2-105

KATHERINE HAGEN, Finance Manager

DAN VAN LEUWAN, Advertising Manager

The State College News, 40 Western Avenue, 2-3700

RUTY WILLIAMS, Managing Editor

THE VICTORIA, 702 Main Avenue, 2-1260

MILDRED FOAD, Circulation Manager

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICES: Alberta Ross, Jeanne Ronly, Thelma Smith, author in residence; Ruth Bruns, author in residence; Frank Stanley, author in residence; Thomas Patton, editor in residence; Ethel R. Broom, editor in residence; William E. Broom, editor in residence; David Garrison, author in residence; Elizabeth Maxwell, author in residence; Martha Quimby, author in residence; Wilma Walsworth, '35, Assistant Advertising Managers: Beatrice Mary Hudson, Aubrey Kalbaugh, Virginia Chappell, Lavonc

MILDRED FACER

JEAN CRAIGMILE

Finance Manager

Page 2

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, DECEMBER 15, 1933

Perhaps a few of the seniors ahead, know that such a gift as the one here mentioned is on the way to the students from the class of '35. It is the largest and most modern gift ever made by the seniors. The gift consists of a steel cable strung across a sunset sky.

This is from one of four poems included in No Reprint available.

Ellis Young, '35, who has been the talk of the college for his love and philosophy of life. His lines are neither long nor short, but they are always very well written. In his book, "The Glimmer of a Sun," he explains, for his control: set it upon the tops of his page.

Among other poems in this collection we find "New Year's Resolution," which typifies the writer's changing of the old and the new, "Say our" words, "The Glimmer of a Sun," and a fine piece of descriptive writing by Helen Chappell.

Even though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

The title of the book is "Old Man's Sky." It contains several of Georgia's most enjoyable stories, and the book is well worth reading.

"Georgia, Georgia" is a very fine book, and the author has done a very good job of it.

A shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel. Predestination, failed to be he, was already enamored of his own work, never swimming through the air, from the minute he is conceived. As the shark grows, so also do his needs. The shark's gills are to disperse the popular superstitition that sharks follow ships when there is someone sick aboard, in hopes of getting the dead body. Very seldom do catchers meet such a fate, for the shark is a fish of very little value to the public and to the poultry industry.

The shark contains many exciting adventures with the fin and the finned fish. It also includes the story of the famous shark, Captain Young tells us, is a muscular marvel.

EVEN though Georgia, and references to it by Georgia, are very rare, there is a need for such a place.

When it comes to the selection of a Senior Association Editor, a literary section, is innovated as a second class matter at postoffice, Albany, N. Y.
KING WINTER IN PERSON—his royal highness, Sir Snowman, rules over the winter sport activities of the co-eds of Wheaton College, Norton, Mass.

SCHOLARLY WINTER SPORT ENTHUSIASTS, these Middlebury, Vt., College students are preparing for a ride to the bottom of Lincoln Mountain before they begin a long hike up its slopes on snow shoes.

SANDY HEELS trace their outlines as Cortland Normal School co-eds prepare for the winter sports season at the New York institution.

SORORITY SISTER OF A SENATOR—Miss Carmen Lambert, Arizona State College co-ed, is a member of Zeta Sigma, formerly a literary society, Zetica, of which U. S. Senator Carl Hayden was a member.

QUEEN OF THE SKYLINE, Miss Helen Hockenhull has the most perfect feminine figure at Colorado Woman's College, the physical education department there reported after a recent survey. Her father is the new governor of New Mexico.

“IT WILL TAKE A LONG CHEER FOR YOU, BIG BOY,” says John Thompson, Butler University cheer leader, to Gene Demmary, lanky Bulldog center. Demmary towers six feet, seven and one-half inches above the floor, and stretches another three feet with his arms, while Thompson, the campus chatter box, barely scratches five feet.

“IT WILL TAKE A LONG CHEER FOR YOU, BIG BOY,” says John Thompson, Butler University cheer leader, to Gene Demmary, lanky Bulldog center. Demmary towers six feet, seven and one-half inches above the floor, and stretches another three feet with his arms, while Thompson, the campus chatter box, barely scratches five feet.
CHAMPION DRILL COMPANY—This is the University of Kentucky unit of the Pershing Rifles who are preparing for their third year of successful competition. They are the 1933 champions. The sponsor of the unit is Miss Betsy Frye, popular Kentucky co-ed.

PLAYING THE LEADING ROLE in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," Miss Mary Knight (right) is one of the leading actresses on the campus of Beloit College.

FIRST BOUQUETS for excellence in dramatics were awarded to Miss Sally Pierce (left), outstanding co-ed actress at the University of Michigan.

DAVY JONES AND HIS FAMOUS DEAD MEN came to life to entertain the prom-goers at Elmira College. The Davy Jones locker decorations were conceived and executed by this group of Elmira co-eds.

A DANCE OF FAR-OFF BALI was performed by this group of students from the Philippine Women's College, Manila, P. I., for the benefit of Governor-General Frank Murphy at the Malacanan Palace. The dance was a part of the Pan-Pacific Day program held in the palace.

"SHE RUN HIM DOWN"—and now she pleads for justice. Anyway, here's the "female" lead in the all-male production given by the engineers at Ohio State.

HE TURNED DOWN A SCREEN TEST to continue his law studies at the University of Wisconsin. Yes, sir, this is Francis A. Werner, who actually turned down a movie contract.
BEAUTY LAURELS have been heaped on Miss Helene Brown of Iowa State Teachers College—she is Queen of her college and World's Fair Queen's attendant.

QUEEN OF GRID ENTHUSIASTS—Miss Della Farmer (left) leads the rooters at the Superior, Wis., State Teachers College.

QUEEN OF GRID ENTHUSIASTS—Miss Della Farmer (left) leads the rooters at the Superior, Wis., State Teachers College.

MOST POPULAR co-ed and male student at the State Teachers College, Whitewater, Wis., are Miss Florence Esterl (right) and Donald Stevenson, (below), chosen by vote of the student body.

ANOTHER KENTUCKY BLONDE, they tell us, and this time it's the University of Kentucky cheerleader, Miss Lucy Jean Anderson (right), a mixture of pep, enthusiasm, and charm.

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT when the co-eds at West Virginia University go out for gymnastics. Here is a group practicing tumbling on the roof garden of the physical education building of the southern institution. The co-eds are Jean Miller, Julia Eckart, Goldye Kahn, and Virginia Ahern.

RAH! RAH! RAH! They all cheer lustily when Miss Frances Akers leads the yells at Ventura, Calif., Junior College.
POP WARNE's FIRST LOVE—at least in the automotive field—is this 1919 "one-horse chaise," upon which he is working so diligently. The Temple University coach has a bigger and more modern car, in addition to this one.

WHO'S AFRAID—of Charlie Daschund, who diligently guards Prof. Malcolm Willey, recently appointed assistant to President Coffman of the University of Minnesota.

THEY NEARLY "SPILLED THE BEANS" for the second annual beanfeed for second-year men at the University of Minnesota. These three deans served the frosh, and Dr. W. E. Scammon (right), of the Medical School, officially estimated the number of beans at 34,157. He was assisted by Deans E. E. Nicholson (left) and R. A. Stevenson.

KNITTING BETWEEN ISSUES—and between classes—is the favorite occupation of many members of the Blue and Grey staff at Hood College, Frederick, Md. Did someone say something about hooking somebody?

CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS! Here are the six captains of the seven co-ed sports sponsored by the W.A.A. at Culver-Stockton College. Left to right: Evelyn Courtney, tennis; Lethe Borkem, basketball; Margaret Allen, volleyball; Jeannine Miller, swimming; Loretta Younger, basketball; Azoline Rostedt, tennis, and Helen Carr, director of women's physical education.

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN WEDDING at Simmons College, Boston, featuring Ruth Bauer and Constance Dort.

"PLEASE DON'T SHOOT"—even Mary Wilcox as Katherine Mansfield gingerly produces a six-shooter in a Drexel Institute Dramatic Club production. The third side of the triangle is Stanley Wilk.

UP IN THE AIR—the LaCrosse team of Harvard University goes in for a lot of real action at receiver meetings.

DRUM MAJORS, ATTENTION! They take for aims from young Malcolm Craig, Jr., at the University of Vermont. He is shown with John J. Miller, drum major of the R.O.T.C. band.
UP AND OVER—with Lew Ayres leading, John Mack Brown and Billy Bakewell even up. The scene is the tennis court at the Hollywood home of Mr. Ayres.

LAYING THE CORNERSTONE of the Woman's Athletic Association cabin on Lake Dallas at the Texas State College for Women. The cabin will accommodate 75 students when completed.

THEM THEY KIDNAPPED THE RAM of Fordham University just before the N.Y. U.-Fordham game. Here are the N.Y. U. students just after they were "captured."

IN A CARRIAGE—Miss Dorothy Squire, editor of the Simmons College News, attended the Senior Holby party.

FOUR HORSE(WO)MEN of Rockford, III., College prepare for their annual riding show. Our photographer caught them just as they were starting out on a practice ride.
CHRISTMAS CHORALS will be sung on the Dana College campus in Blair, Neb., by the college's famous a capella choir, shown above in their very appropriate choral gowns.

THE FAMOUS WELL HOUSE at Indiana University is shrouded after the first snow storm of the season.

DOUBLE-RINGERS are the specialty of Prof. Fred L. Kil-dow, of the University of Minnesota. He is shown at right giving the journalists a few lessons in his favorite sport.

OUT-OF-DOORS AND ATHLETIC EVENTS demand that the well-dressed co-ed appear in the latest model coat. At the left is a swagger coat that is popular with the chic young miss, while at the bottom left is a popular model for the windy day. At the right is a frock that is admirably suited for the Sunday evening tea or the informal reception.

WINNER AND RUNNER-UP of the I. A. A. A. A. cross country championship, Thomas C. Ottey, of Michigan State, and Joseph Mangan, of Cornell.

REPORT CARD
By Prof. Metro Eble Hahn

MARKS: POOR, FAIR, GOOD, OR EXCELLENT

SUBJECT
S. O. S. ICEBERG: Rod LaRue in an "Ancient Mariner" setting with ice and glaciers everywhere. Some unusual flying shots and excellent arctic photography, but the story's just a lot of slick.

THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS: A usually amusing romantic comedy centered about the love affair of a young Hessian deserter and a Continental army officer's daughter. It is thoroughly human in quality and if you've been on folklore and the late '70's you can't go wrong here.

EVER IN MY HEART: Forgotten war time hyenas and dead halites make this inline fair instead of good, but the old shell Gordon song which Otto Kruger sings to Barbara Stanwyck is worth your quarter.

THE WAY TO LOVE: Chevalier and lip have elevated ambition of being tourist guide in home town Paris which leads to series of unmemorable but entertaining incidents. Ann Doran, making end of a knife throwing act, supplies the romance, and Ray Milland, a giddy country girl, the spunk. All sit pretty ambitious and you'd better see it - right now!

MEET THE BARON: If you hadn't every Thursday night for the past ninety-nine years this might be a duelling movie. Ketch with Pearl, Durante, and DeBosky.

THE WORLD CHANGES: The use of Paul Muni from a young man in Dakota to his death at the age of seventy. Muni's capable acting and the excellent supporting cast with Mary Astor and Claire McAllister make this story of meat packing very worthwhile, and if you can sit through another three-generation picture without getting a beard, then it is one to see.

SAILOR HERE ARE: By Kenyon Nichol and Charles Robin sou. What our Navy does in spare time, and don't miss Sunday si/mol after seeing it.
IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE THE CHAMPION TRAP SHOOTER

WALTER BEAVER of Berwyn, Pa., wouldn't be where he is today—holder of the coveted Grand American Handicap—if it weren't for his healthy nerves.

"Winning a trap-shooting championship is partly a matter of luck, partly the result of practice and partly healthy nerves," says the champion. "I'm a steady smoker and have been for many years. People kid me about it at the tournaments. They say I never have a cigarette out of my mouth. During all these years I've been smoking Camels, not only because I like their taste and their mildness, but also because they never jangle my nerves."

It's no fun to feel that your nerves are ragged—and to wonder why. Check up on your eating...your sleep...your cigarettes.

Get a fresh slant on smoking. Switch to Camels. Your nerves and your taste will tell you that Camels are a more likable cigarette—and that they don't upset your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS turn to CAMELS

A MATCHLESS BLEND

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES? If you smoke a lot...inside...outdoors...wherever you are...join the swing to Camels. You'll like those costlier tobaccos in Camels. You'll find them smoother, better tasting, and they never get on your nerves.
Y.W.C.A. TO HAVE PARTY IN LOUNGE TONIGHT AT 7:30

The Young Women's Christian association will feature a "Silly Symphony" theme at the end of the party to be conducted tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Lounge of Richardson hall. The theme will be carried out in the decorations, refreshments, and prizes, according to Laura Clarke, '35, general chairman for the party.

All students who desire to attend the party may do so by signing on the main bulletin board in groups of four by 3:00 o'clock today. The admission charge is twenty-five cents.

Morrone. The party included: Teresa Honest, '34, entertainment. The committee for the refreshments and tickets, Daisy Bryson, '35; publicity, Harriet Ten Eyck, '35; and clean-up, Huldah Classen, '36, chairman.

CLUB CONDUCTS PARTY

The Classical club conducted a Christmas party Monday night in the Lounge of Richardson hall. The faculty of the Latin department were guests.

THE SIDE LINE

After last week's slaughter of the Madison ensemble, I am afraid for under-estimating the caliber of our varsity hoop team—too bad!

Although points were not needed, it was disappointing to see "Sparky" bounce out shot after shot. "Rarely is off night," says "Flanny" (in an interview with a representative of the State College News).

The theme of the play centers around the Christmas spirit, and the action takes place on Christmas eve. The cast includes: Peter Smith, Thomas Garrett, '34; Professor Steele, Jayne Beekman, '34; and the old man, Edward Oldfield, '35. The committee assisting Miss Reiner are: Miss Bums, assistant professor of English, and Mrs. Palmer into honorary membership.

Sorority Will Conduct Tea Tomorrow at 3:00

Pi Gamma sorority will conduct a tea tomorrow afternoon from 3:00 until 3:30 o'clock at the sorority house, 133 South Lake avenue.

Members of the College faculty and all sorority members are invited to attend as guests. Miss Helen M. Phillips, assistant professor of English, and Miss Minnie B. Scotland, assistant professor of Biology, will preside.

Elsie Estabrooks, '35, will be general chairman for the tea. Miss Estabrooks announced the following committee: arrangements, Miss Helen M. Phillips, '34, chairwoman, and Edna Fehmel, '35; refreshments, Dorothy Lundcn, '34, chairwoman, Elizabeth Whitman, '36, chairman, and clean-up, Huubah Claussen, '36, chairman.

Welcome Members

Kappa Delta sorority welcome Dr. James B. Palmer, professor of education, and Mrs. Palmer into honorary membership.

Eyes Examined

big eye glasses

EXCELLENT PRESCRIPTIONS FITTED

Heavitiz Building, Room 10, 61 Columbia Street, Albany, N. Y.

KEEPS BEAUTIFUL AT

PALLADINO'S FOUNTAIN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Hair cutting — Waves — Marcel's

133 North Pearl St.

Keep Beautiful At

PALLADINO'S FOUNTAIN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Hair cutting waves — Marcel's

Albany, N. Y.

Copyright © 1933, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.