If you answered "No" to all questions, you obviously smoke Camel. You are a cigarette smoker.

Have a real cigarette — have a Camel

[_] Yes, I smoke Camel
[_] No, I do not smoke

The people who smoke Camel are the people who want a cigarette and smoke Camel. They have tried other cigarettes and found them not as satisfying. They keep trying other cigarettes until they find Camel, and they smoke Camel. They have tried other cigarettes and found them not as satisfying. They keep trying other cigarettes until they find Camel, and they smoke Camel. They have tried other cigarettes and found them not as satisfying. They keep trying other cigarettes until they find Camel, and they smoke Camel. They have tried other cigarettes and found them not as satisfying. They keep trying other cigarettes until they find Camel, and they smoke Camel. They have tried other cigarettes and found them not as satisfying. They keep trying other cigarettes until they find Camel, and they smoke Camel.

In order to continue the production of Camel cigarettes, it is necessary that they be smoked.

Have a real cigarette — have a Camel.
A Slow Walk ... Each day brings new problems to be faced by those interested in the future of our government. We have formed our college, but... problem of how to organize the student body is not functioning as many have expected. Each day we have a choice: to strengthen the methods and procedures we have created, or to develop new structures. Yet we do—almost believe that our government is a model of our new SA Constitution. We are many people, and not just because of the frequent attendance of the Senate. Instead, we offer our suggestions—those that will start our busy waiting, perhaps a dilemma, and will instead contribute to a more efficient solution.

First, we must define the basis for the debate. The SA Constitution, and the Senate, is in the Senate in the fact that it is a democratic forum. The Senate stands for the principle of representation and expression. We must ensure that the Senate is a democratic forum, and that representation is the key to a more efficient solution.

Second, we must decide on the method of representation. The Senate is a forum for expression, and not just for those who have the time and energy to participate. We must ensure that the Senate is accessible to all members of the student body, and that representation is the key to a more efficient solution.

Third, we must define the duties of the Senate. The Senate is a forum for debate, and not just for those who have the time and energy to participate. We must ensure that the Senate is a forum for debate, and that representation is the key to a more efficient solution.

Finally, we must define the purpose of the Senate. The Senate is a forum for debate, and not just for those who have the time and energy to participate. We must ensure that the Senate is a forum for debate, and that representation is the key to a more efficient solution.

Who's On First?...

Week by week, little by little, smart by smart, the Senate makes a slow but steady progress toward the plan we had. The plan was to improve the Senate so that it becomes a more effective forum for debate, and not just for those who have the time and energy to participate. We must ensure that the Senate is a forum for debate, and that representation is the key to a more efficient solution.

It will be another Saturday night at The Palace. Once again, we will be allowed to drink at the same time as the students, and once again, we will be forced to wait for the cocktail hour. This has been a problem for the past few weeks, and we will continue to face it this Saturday night.

Sororities Plan Annual Teas; Initiate New Faculty Members

Sterna Phi Sigma, Chi Sigma Theta, and Sigma Kappa Delta scheduled a coffee hour with Sigma Gamma Rho this weekend along with a formal tea in honor of new faculty members. The teas will be held at the offices of the sororities in the morning of this Saturday. The sorority members are busily preparing refreshments and decorations for the event. A formal tea for the new faculty members will be held later in the afternoon at the sorority's headquarters. The sorority hopes to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for the faculty members to get to know the sorority and its members better.

Preida Cohen '58, President of the Inter-Fraternity Council, announced that an informal rush party will be held later in the week for the new members. The party will be held at the sorority's headquarters and will feature a variety of games and activities. The sorority hopes to make the new members feel welcome and included in the community. The sorority's officers are working hard to ensure that the event goes smoothly and that everyone has a great time.

Religious Clubs Schedule

The Religious Clubs Schedule for this semester includes several events. The first event is a babysitting service for the local community. The babysitters will be available for a small fee and will provide care for children of all ages. The event will be held in the community center on Saturday afternoon. A second event is a discussion on the role of religion in society. The discussion will be held in the auditorium on Tuesday evening. A third event is a service project to help the homeless. The club will be working at a local shelter on Saturday morning. The event is open to all members of the community.

In Your Pocket

Some folks call it cheating to do things on their own, but puzzles if everyone knew all the answers, they wouldn’t be any crossword puzzles. If everyone knew the answers, there would be no crossword puzzles. It’s a game of skill and fun, and the more you know, the better you’ll do. Some people even like to make their own puzzles! It’s a great way to keep your mind sharp and have fun at the same time. It’s such a comfort to take the bus... and leave the driving to us!
