To the Editor:

When looking back and reviewing this past year, it seems fitting that this issue should include much more about the Student Association. We would like to express our deep appreciation to all of the students who have contributed so much to the success of our organization. Their dedication and hard work have made this year one of the most successful in the history of our Association.

Student Association Board Members

Dollars & Sense

This year our Student Association budget increased. Many progressive organizations feel that their budgets should be increased to reflect the value of their work. These improvements would benefit a majority of the students who are enrolled in the Student Association. The budget should not only supply funds for the budget, active organizations can continue their activities. The Student Council is attempting to accomplish this by requiring existing budgetary groups to submit a report in which they have agreed to the principle of increased accountability. This report should include a list of active members, the number of attending meetings, activities sponsored and the general support of these activities. If Council feels that the group does not benefit enough members or if Student Association monies are not given consideration by Student Board of Parents, it will be moved to the next organization which seek to be administered by parents.

This system will permit a representative group of students to volunteer their time and thought and work for the betterment of the whole organization. This will give us a chance to read and understand the various organizations.

Dewey Misinterpreted

In last week's issue of the State College News, the article on Dewey's philosophy of education was presented. The article correctly stated the idea that the child is educative. However, it missed the point that the child is educative and that Dewey's philosophy must have been considered. Dewey himself points out the value of an organization. This will give us a chance to live comfortably but not luxuriously. It is important to note the value of an organization and its importance to the community. This week we would like to recommend the recent article on Student Board of Parents. They agreed heartily with the implica- tion of some of the ideas presented by Dewey in his philosophy of education. This will give us a chance to live comfortably but not luxuriously. Freshman Members Stage Skit, President Supports Shorter Recess

By NANCY RICHARDS

Student Council members selected Herbert Walther to run for the Presidency of Student Council. Mr. Walther will also have the honor of being the first student to run for the presidency of Student Council. Council meetings will be held on a weekly basis.

The skit, "Greeks Initiate," presented by the new freshmen, was received with much laughter and enjoyment by the student body.

Sophomore Replacement Elections

The purpose of the elections is to replace the former class president, who is now a junior. The election was held in the Student Center. The voting was held from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. and a two hour lab.

Syria Causes Near East Unrest; Vital Area Becomes US Problem

BY FRANK SWISKEY

Rothschild, often called the "crusader among the Arabs," has been the target of a campaign against him by Arab leaders. His death was reported in Beirut, but it was not confirmed. The campaign against him is said to be an attempt to disrupt the Arab nations from forming a common front against Israel.

The Soviet invasion of Hungary, which has caused great concern in the United States, has also caused concern in the Near East. The Soviet forces are reportedly stationed near the border of Syria.
