ASUBA Overspends SB Budget

1979-1980 Deficit Totals Near $3000

By Beth Cammalleri

The Associated Student Body (ASUBA) overspent its budget by nearly $3000, according to the President of ASUBA, Mr. Jones. The President attributed the overspending to the failure of the Senate to pass the necessary appropriations.

The overspending resulted in a deficit of approximately $3000. The Senate was unable to allocate funds to cover the overspending, leading to the deficit.

The President has recommended that the Senate pass the necessary appropriations to cover the overspending and prevent a similar situation from occurring in the future.

ASUBA Postelections

The Associated Student Body (ASUBA) elections for the 1979-80 academic year were held last week. The results were as follows:

- President: Mr. Brown
- Vice President: Ms. Davis
- Treasurer: Mr. Johnson
- Secretary: Ms. Thompson

The elections were held at the Central Student Center on Monday, Oct. 6. Over 1000 students voted in the elections, which is a record number for ASUBA elections.

Rutgers Faces Expulsion

A Rutgers student was charged with sexual harassment on Wednesday, according to the President of Rutgers. The case is being handled by the Student Affairs Office.

State Tower Flooded

During the recent flood, the State Tower was flooded, causing severe damage to the building. The floodwaters reached up to the second floor, causing extensive damage to the interior of the building.

The President of SUNYA has announced that the State Tower will be closed for the next two weeks. The President has also requested that all students and faculty relocate to other buildings.

When Pipe Bursts

by Barbara Schneider

The 35-story State Tower at SUNYA burst on Thursday, October 16, due to a severe pipe break. The break occurred in the basement of the tower, causing extensive damage to the building.

The President of SUNYA has announced that the State Tower will be closed for the next two weeks. The President has also requested that all students and faculty relocate to other buildings.

Bus Driver Correction

In a recent issue of the ASP, a bus driver at SUNYA was given an incorrect route. According to the driver, he was given the wrong route and was expected to make the trip in less than one hour. However, the correct trip time is approximately two hours.

The President of SUNYA has apologized to the driver for the error and has addressed the issue with the Transportation Department.

How About Reagan For Pope?

To The Editor:

On September 21, 1979, the issue of the Stuyvesant Heights Neighborhood League of Women's Voice Panama Canal Zone Weekly Report was delivered to the editorial office. The column on the front page was titled "How About Reagan For Pope?" and contained political satire and commentary.

Joeys List to Me

Dear Joey,

I'm writing to you because I think it's important for you to hear my side of the story. You see, I believe that the recent events have made it clear that the current system is not working for everyone.

The ASP spoke with Mr. Stevens last week about the scheduling problem by many students like myself. It seems that the new schedule change decided on last Friday is causing a lot of problems. The schedule that was published beforehand was not as accurate as we had hoped.

I believe that we need to work together to find a solution to this issue. Please consider my perspective and let's find a way to make this work for everyone.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

The Return of Billy the Kid

Billy Mertz was once named baseball's "Player of the Year" and was also featured in the movie, Billy Mertz vs. The World. Because of his success, Billy was offered a position as the starting pitcher for the New York Yankees. Billy, who was retiring from the game of baseball, decided to accept the offer. However, the Yankees were not pleased with his performance and asked him to leave. Billy was devastated and decided to go on a search for a new home. He eventually found a small town in the mountains where he lived in peace and quiet. However, one day, a group of bandits appeared and threatened his home. Billy quickly gathered his baseball skills and defeated the bandits, saving his town. The townspeople were grateful and Billy became a hero. The movie was a huge success and Billy was once again a famous baseball player.
Cherry Tree

The cryptic quotient of art is blue and green like trees. Mean trees. Thor split our cherry tree. Red it bled no more in spring spitting splitting like angels tears and babies screams. Red tongue tasted a far away tree. Mean tree. Slender spider gentle rider butterfly

The Beast
I am the beast and I crouch in the wood, lying in wait. Soon the sun will set, soon the moon will be full. And I'll be waiting...

Unaware of everything, except their little troupe, the hearty Americans tour the woods, looking for those unearthed secrets that Primitive Cultures hold. Noisily they trample roots and beat down a little more the already beaten trail. I hear them coming, I smell their rich blood. I am the beast and I crouch in the wood, lying in wait.

Why Do I Dream?
To escape, to fly, to understand the reasons why, to leave behind the things I see and be the things I want to be.

To say the things I've never said, to live after I've been dead, to appreciate this life we lead so that my dreams is all I need.

To laugh, to cry, to understand the reasons why, for daylight brings out what is real, but nightmares dreams are what I feel.

Queen Plays The Game

Ed Pinka

The band was composed of five members: lead singer Tony Galloway, who was also the keyboardist; guitarist Doug Gray; drummer David, who was also the bassist; and lead guitarist Rick, who also doubled as the keyboardist. Lead singer Tony Galloway and guitarist Doug Gray formed an incredible partnership, with each member contributing a unique set of talents to the overall sound of the band. The band's music was characterized by its powerful guitar riffs, energetic rhythms, and catchy hooks, which helped to earn them a loyal following both on the road and in the studio.

The band's music was also praised for its ability to capture the spirit of the times, reflecting the social and political issues of the era. Their lyrics often dealt with themes of love, loss, and the search for meaning in a world that was often ruled by corporate greed and soulless consumerism. In this way, Queen was able to connect with fans across the globe, who were drawn to their music for its raw emotion and its ability to speak to the human condition.

All in all, Queen was a band that was truly ahead of its time, and their impact on the music world cannot be overstated. Their legacy continues to inspire musicians and fans alike, and their music will no doubt continue to be enjoyed for generations to come.

In other news, Elie Schicffelin has been elected to the University's Board of Trustees. The new board member is expected to bring a fresh perspective to the institution's decision-making process. Schicffelin, a seasoned attorney, is known for his commitment to social justice and his work in the legal community. His appointment is seen as a significant step forward for the university's transparency and accountability. The incoming trustees will work closely with President Friedman and the administration to ensure the university continues to thrive and remain a leader in education and research. The university community is excited about the new board members and looks forward to their contributions in the coming years.

In other news, Elie Schicffelin has been elected to the University's Board of Trustees. The new board member is expected to bring a fresh perspective to the institution's decision-making process. Schicffelin, a seasoned attorney, is known for his commitment to social justice and his work in the legal community. His appointment is seen as a significant step forward for the university's transparency and accountability. The incoming trustees will work closely with President Friedman and the administration to ensure the university continues to thrive and remain a leader in education and research. The university community is excited about the new board members and looks forward to their contributions in the coming years.
